AREA UM STUDENTS STUDY ABROAD

MISSOULA--

Two University of Montana-Missoula students from the Bozeman area will study overseas through international exchange programs during the 1995-96 academic year.

Philosophy major Jodi Willson of Bozeman will spend spring semester 1996 in the Netherlands as an International Student Exchange Program participant. Business major Michael Letson of West Yellowstone will spend the year in a direct exchange with Sophia University in Japan.

Eighteen UM students will attend universities in nine countries as part of international exchange programs this academic year.
