GLASGOW AWARDED THE CHAMPIONSHIP IN DEBATE FINALS

Second Place Given Chinook, Third Hysham; Fourth Lincoln County

NEGATIVE GETS DECISION

Girl Debater Argues Against Peace Enforcing League at War's Close

The Glasgow high school won the state championship in the final debate held last night at the State University. The second place was awarded to the Chinook high school. Hysham and Lincoln county high schools won third and fourth places respectively. The question in debate was: Resolved, That the program of the American League to enforce peace could be adopted by international agreement at the close of the present war.

Miss Olive McKay, representative of the Glasgow high school, debating on the negative side of the question, said, "The real causes of war go deep into the national aspirations of the countries. The causes of most of the wars in the last hundred years have involved territorial national aspiration, economic conditions. These are fundamental causes. Do you think at nations with these fundamental uses will submit to enforced public arrangements without enforced decisions?" Miss Marguerite Thibaudau, who presented the Chinook high school, debating in the affirmative, said, "There is a growing internationalism in education, in commerce, in finance, in socialism. We no longer ask, 'What can I do to help America?' but we think, 'What can we do to help the world?' We are speaking as Americans, but are not the pals of America spreading all over the world? We are going to win the war. You all think that, and when Germany is defeated, autocracy is defeated. Germany will then know that there must be something to democracy when it rules the world."

Miss Grace Eldering, the Hysham high school debater, said, "We must not lose in the council chambers that we have won in war. If a league to enforce peace is not established after this present war, there will be the idea of the balance of power and in 50 years there will be another nation trying to force its culture upon the world and causing another war a thousand times more terrible than this one. We can have progress without war and we need a league now to enforce and preserve peace."

Miss Edith Shenefelt of the Lincoln county high school opened the debate in the affirmative. "The program of the American League to enforce peace is a practical scheme and sound in principle. It is advocated by the greatest men of the country. Great Britain, France, Scandinavia and the United States are in favor of this plan."

The representatives from the other high schools in the debate were: Christina Shultz, Columbus high school; Edwin Stevenson, Belgrade high school; Lydia Van Hynning, Feris county high school, and Phillip White, Missoula high school.

The judges of the debate were Miss Lucy H. Carson, head of the English department, Montana State Normal school; Attorney Lewis M. Simes and attorney A. J. Violette. Dr. Coffman of the English department at the State University acted as chairman.

And Sweet Adair Couldn't Live Up to Her Cognomen

"Adair, my Sweet Adair," the housing committee just couldn't help humming unconsciously that haunting saccarine melody when they came upon the name "Adair" in the list of students coming for Track meet last Monday. Rooms of any sort are rather scarce this week but the girls in charge of securing accommodations for the visitors finally managed to locate her in the dormitory.

Yesterday morning Adair arrived in Missoula, somehow escaping the ministering attentions of the reception committee. Arrived at Craig hall, she mounted the steps and rang the bell. "I guess I am to stay here," the newcomer said when the door opened.

The girl looked at Adair and gulped. "I'm afraid that you can't stay here," she managed to gasp. Patiently Adair flicked a bit of dust off "her" trousers, picked up "her" suitcase and started away. Under "her" breath "she" murmured things that no lady ever says. Somebody said it was about wishing girl's names on helpless infants.

ANNE HALL WINS ANNUAL CONTEST IN DECLAMATION

Missoula Girl Awarded First Place in Women's Histrionic Competition

LAPP, VICTOR AMONG BOYS

Great Falls Youngster Given Honors in Public Speaking Over Three Contestants.

Missoula county high school, represented by Miss Anne Hall, won first honors in the girls' final declamatory contest for the state championship at the State University last night. Great Falls, represented by Burton Lapp, won first place in the boys' final declamatory contest. The other winners of the girls' contest were Dorothy Sheldon of Corvallis, Hazel Clark of Libby, Helena Badger of Billings and Alice Neal of Butte, who won second, third, fourth and fifth places respectively. Donald Potter of Gallatin county won second place and Adair McCarthy of Broadwater won third place in the finals.

Three Boys in Finals.

There were but three boys who qualified for the finals held last night. The winners of second and third places, Donald Potter, representing Gallatin county high school, and Adair McCarthy of Broadwater.

All of speakers whether they be listed among the winners or not, must be commended upon their delivery. And the martial and patriotic spirit of the time was reflected in the number of contestants who chose wartime subjects as their themes.

Miss Hall was awarded the premier honors upon her quiet yet forceful delivery of Alfred Noyes' old English ballad, "The Highwayman." She told of "Bess, the landlord's daughter," who sacrificed her life that her robber lover might be saved from the hands of "Ging George's men."

Winner Is Youngster.

Perhaps it was the youth of the winner of the boys' section of the contest that helped win for him and his school the championship. He recited the story of how "Aunt Eliza" was locked in the roof during a rainstorm because "mother" told the boy to close the scuttle and, for once, he believed in "Prompt Obedience."

"The Finish of Patsy Barnes," was the theme of Miss Dorothy Sheldon of Corvallis.

Miss Hazel Clark of Libby told again of those turbulent days in 1776, when the fathers of the nation were signing the Declaration of Independence. (Continued on Page Four.)

MAKE VISITORS WANT TO RETURN, SAYS DEAN

Women Acting as Hostesses of the University Not as Individuals.

"Make the visiting girls want to come back," is the message of Mrs. K. W. Jameson, dean of women to the women of the University on the eve of the fifteenth annual track meet.

"Every girl must remember during Track meet that she is acting not as an individual, but as the whole University. Whatever she does will be reflected back to the University," said Mrs. Jameson. "The girls must remember that they are the hostesses, and a great deal depends on the way we treat the visiting girls, whether they will want to come back here again. We want to show them just as good a time as we can."

VICTOR LEADS, CUSTER NEXT OPENING DAY OF TRACK MEET

John Shaffer, Miles City Boy, Breaks Discus Record and Captures 13 Points; Bitter Root Athletes Take Premier Honors; Romney Stars in Dashes; Hamilton Has Good Chance for State Title, Today.

FIRST DAY'S SCORE

Victor—Mile run, 1; discus throw, 7; high jump, 4; shot put, 6; total, 18.

Custer County—Discus throw, 5; pole vault, 3; high jump, 2; shot put, 3; total, 13.

Hamilton—Mile run, 5; high jump, 5; total, 10.

Butte, 440-yard dash, 5; pole vault, 4; total, 9.

Stevensville, 440-yard dash, 2; pole vault, 7; total, 9.

Anaconda, 440-yard dash, 7; total, 7.

Billings, mile run, 4; discus throw, 3; total, 7.

Helena, mile run, 5; pole vault, 1; high jump, 1; total, 7.

Broadwater, shot put, 4; total, 4.

Missoula, 440-yard dash, 1; shot put, 2; total, 3.

Polson, shot put, 3; total, 3.

Victor, with a total score of 18 points, led the field in the opening events of the fifteenth interscholastic track meet, held on Montana field yesterday afternoon. John Shaffer, a tall youngster from Custer, shared with the high schools of the Bitter Root valley first honors. With a state record and 13 points to his credit put Custer county in the second place.

The Bitter Root valley, thanks to the efforts of Victor and Hamilton athletes, established foundations for probable victory today, with the state championship and whatever honors Shaffer does not take apparently to be divided among them. Other teams sharing in six events finally decided yesterday are:

Hamilton, 10; Butte, 9; Stevensville, 9; Anaconda, 7; Billings, 7; Helena, 7; Broadwater county 4; Missoula county, 3; Polson, 3.

Hamilton Likely to Win.

Hamilton last night seemed due to win the meet, with Miles Romney, Jr., the team's mainstay, looming up as Shaffer's dangerous rival for individual honors. Victor and Stevensville promise to increase their scores, probably to the exclusion from glory of such old champions as Missoula, Butte and Anaconda, to say nothing of Gallatin, five times winner of the meet, whose column on the score board is quite empty.

Outcome Not Certain.

But the outcome of the meet is far from certain. Missoula, though seriously handicapped by the illness of Lawrence Crane, who had been counted upon to win the mile and one each of the two half-mile and quarter-mile races, may figure importantly today. Butte and Anaconda have men in final races today and are certain to pick up points, perhaps enough to overcome the Bitter Rooters' lead. In any event, if the first day may be accepted as an indication of what is to come, the meet today will be quite as good as any ever held on Montana field, with the possibility of smashed records very great, unless inclement weather continues.

Up to Former Standards.

Certainly the opening day was up to former standards. The big crowd which braved the weather saw a succession of thrilling contests. The mile run was the first, with Bachman of Hamilton and Ross of Billings fighting down the stretch in the prettiest finish seen on the track in many years. Bachman won by a nose after a neck-and-neck sprint to the tape.

Shaffer Breaks Record.

Then came Shaffer's record-breaking performance in the discus throw. The husky Custer county lad threw the weight 114.4 feet, 9 and 1-5 inches beyond the record set by George Trainor of Missoula in 1908.

The final event of the day brought another brilliant exhibition, this time by a young colored boy, Muriel Freeman of Butte. Freeman ran away from the field in the first quarter-mile race, giving a pretty showing of ability.

Big Events Today.

Today's program includes 11 of the 17 final events of the week, as well as numerous trial heats. It will open at 2 o'clock with two half-mile races, each counting in the final score. The program will be as follows:

Semi-final heats in the 220-yard low hurdles.

Semi-final heats in the 50-yard dash.

Final heat of the 100-yard dash.

Final heat of the 20-yard low hurdles.

Finals in the 220-yard dash.

Finals in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Finals in the 440-yard dash (second race.)

Finals in the relay race.

RESULTS OF MEET IN SUMMARY

FINAL EVENTS

Shot Put—Downing, Victor, first; Gleason, Broadwater, second; Shaffer, Custer, third; Schlossberg, Missoula, fourth; Cates, Victor, fifth. Distance, 42 feet 6 inches.

Pole Vault—Porter, Stevensville, first; Zundie, Butte, second; Shaffer, Custer, third; O'Hare, Stevensville, fourth; Prosser, Helena, fifth. Height 9 feet 10 inches. On the jumpoff to decide second place Zundie vaulted 10 feet. He had previously failed at 9 feet, 8 inches, however, so that the mark does not count.

Discus Throw—Shaffer, Custer, first; Dowling, Victor, second; Kershner, Billings, third; Cates, Victor, fourth; Dwyer, Victor, fifth. Distance, 114.4 feet, breaking state record of 113 feet 6 inches, set by G. Trainor of Nissoula in 1908.

Mile Run—Bachman, Hamilton, first; Ross, Billings, second; Fisk, Helena, third; Hedges, Helena, fourth; Sestak, Vivotr, fifth. Time, 4 minutes 56 1-6 seconds.

FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1918.

ARE YOU WORTH DYING FOR?

Over yonder brave men are suffering and dying for you.

Are you worth dying for?

What have you done to deserve their devotion? What are you doing that can meet in part the obligation?

If you are not serving, giving, lending to the point of sacrifice, you are not worth dying for.

Think it over.—Ex.

IS IT WORTH WHILE? YES!

Is it worth while to continue our higher educational institutions? That is a question which has arisen, with scores of other "foolish questions" with the war and the departure of so many of our young men from the colleges and high schools.

"Despite the chilliness of the day, an enormous crowd attended the opening events of the fifteenth annual Interscholastic track meet on Montana field this afternoon"—and the greater part of this enormous, enthusiastic crowd was young boys and girls from the high schools from every part of the state. They were boys and girls whose youth and enthusiasm and future possibilities is a vigorously affirmative answer to the question, "Is it worth while to continue our higher educational institutions?"

A total of 162 athletes are entered in the various events—162 boys, who, in order to take part in the meet, underwent training that could not but make them better soldiers—if they are called to army service—or better citizens, God granting that it may never be necessary to call them into service.

The Track meet and those who came to participate actively—or root for the "home team," none the less actively—is the most ardent appeal that could be made for its own existence and the long life of higher education.

The boys who took part in the races and jumping, discus-throwing and javelin-hurling, will be far better citizens—or soldiers—after one or two or more years in some college—and the girls, many of them scarcely out of pig tails and short skirts, can not but be better suited for whatever duties "growing up" may bring them, by a few short years more in the school room—and at play.

It is not a happy picture to think of the manly boys—but nevertheless undeniably young, in spite of their manliness—being thrust into the heart of any conflict, nor the laughing, care-free girls—whose woman's attire suggests that they are only "dressing up" to play, being sent out to take up woman's or—with so many answering the insistent call to arms—man's work in the world. A university campus, or their present setting, makes a far happier, and certainly, for the sake of their future, and the future of their state and country and the world, a more desirable setting.

THINK FOR YOURSELF

One of the professors at the University, in recitation and before examination, invariably remarks to his classes: "Don't just repeat to me what you have heard me say in lectures. Do a little original thinking and tell me what you yourself believe is true. Even if I disagree with you, I'll give you more credit in this course for a few brain throbs of your own than for the most perfect memorized dictaphone record."

A university community seems always to be infested with a group of persons who go around repeating verbatim what they have heard someone else say. This is the same class of student who announces himself a democrat or a republican because his father was a democrat or a republican; who says the war will be over soon because his history professor has so prophesied; who memorizes rather than understands what he reads; who, in short, is always propping up his mind with some sort of a mental crutch borrowed from someone else.

A college education is supposed to teach one to think for himself, not to acquire the habit of having someone else think for him. It is better to get lower grades and to maintain freedom of thought and opinion, than to merit all the courses in the University with a mind drugged with other persons' ideas.

At some time everyone runs into a problem that calls for original decision, and what is the man to do then who has never thought for himself? Don't steal the other fellow's brain throbs, manufacture some for yourself. Someone has truly said: Think for yourself, one good idea. That's known to be thine own, 'Tis better than a thousand gleaned From fields by others sown.

YARN PATRIOTS OFFER SERVICES TO COUNTRY

"The Sammies are coming for the Track Meet.

The Sailors and Nurses, too; If you want to help the Red Cross, Just take one home with you."

Isn't that an offer—take one home with you! These little yarn patriots are waiting to give their services to the Red Cross and to their country. "If you'll only take me with you," they plead, "we'll always recall to you the good times that you had at Track meet. And while you were having 'such good times, you were serving the Red Cross and your country with your quarters."

All the little "extras," ice cream, candy, pop, gum—those things that add so much to track meet—are being sold for the benefit of the Red Cross, too. The members of the Delta Gamma sorority, dressed as Red Cross nurses, are in charge of the booths at the entrance to the meet.

FOUR U INSTITUTIONS HAVE NEW RECORD CARDS

Registrar Spear Returns From Conference with Chancellor; New Plans Made.

Permanent record cards, arranged for the quarter system, instead of the semester system are to be used in the University of Montana at Missoula and at Bozeman, according to Registrar J. B. Spear, who recently returned from Helena, where Chancellor Elliott had called R. O. Wilson, registrar of the State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts at Bozeman, and Mr. Spear to confer with them.

Mr. Spear says the use of permanent record cards is made necessary by the change from the semester to the quarter system. Chancellor Elliott approved of the plan to get copies of the permanent record cards for next year to advisers so that the cards will be up to date. Credit books are to be done away with, although students will still receive grade slips. A new form of blanks for registration is being worked up but the exact details have not yet been agreed upon.

The four institutions comprising the University of Montana are now under the quarter system.

ART EXHIBIT BEING HELD IN UNIVERSITY STUDIO

Works of Miss Hansen and Miss Hittle on Exhibition for Track Visitors.

An exhibition of the work of Miss Josephine Hansen, who teaches art in the city schools, and of Miss Margaret Hittle, who is at the head of the art department in the Missoula county high school, is being held in the art studio of the University. In the exhibition are sketches of the Panama-Pacific exposition, interesting places around Missoula and sketches made in Chicago, where the artists have studied.

There are cut paper designs in brilliant colors and interesting arrangements, also water color sketches and about 30 oil paintings.

The studio is open to all visitors between the afternoon and evening events of the track meet.

JUNIORS PLAN DANCE AND SENTINEL DRIVE

Plans for the junior dance and the drive for the sale of Sentinels were the chief topics of discussion at the junior class meeting, which was held Tuesday afternoon. The class decided to have an informal dance this year. The date for the dance has not been definitely fixed, but it will probably be the latter part of May. A committee was appointed to direct the drive for the sale of Sentinels. Posters advertising the year books were placed in conspicuous places about the campus to interest visitors and students who have not already purchased books.

M. C. A. OFFERS SCHEUCH POSITION OF SECRETARYSHIP

Northwestern War Board Recommends Him and French and Portuguese Seek Services

ONEER FACULTY MEMBER

s Not Made Decision; Awaits Further Details Regarding Work

Frederick C. Scheuch, head of the department of languages at the State University, has received a letter from Northwestern Representative Ward, asking him to accept a position as Y. M. C. A. secretary for the French troops at the front. He also received a like request for his services with the Portuguese troops. He has not yet decided.

The French government has been very impressed with the service rendered by the American Y. M. C. A. soldiers at the front and is now in the United States to furnish work with secretaries, especially to serve with the French troops, the letters say. It is pointed out that these men should have a knowledge of languages, must be men of resourcefulness, must have had extensive experience, and must be men of fraternal spirit. The secretary of the board recommends Mr. Scheuch "a man well fitted for the work contemplated."

The French prime minister, M. Poincaré, and General Petain are keenly interested in the work. He has visited several foyers, and has appointed officers to keep in touch with the work as it develops, according to the war board. This branch of the Y. M. C. A. is under the supervision of the war department.

Professor Scheuch has been a member of the faculty at the State University since its founding in 1895. He has taught French, Spanish and German, and when Dr. Craighead, former president, left the institution in 1916, became acting president. He served as executive of the University until 1918. E. O. Sisson's formal inauguration last fall. Professor Scheuch has been abroad. His father was American consul in Spain for ten years.

Professor Scheuch says that while he is anxious to do all he can to help his country he will have to wait for further details before making a decision regarding these offers.

MISS ETTA BRECHBILL HOLDING FORESTRY JOB

Miss Etta Brechbill, the student of drafting who accepted a position in the engineer's department of the district forest office, is still carrying out six hours of drafting work at the school of forestry. Her work at the district office consists mainly of checking and compiling original sketches for blueprinting. She has Monday and Wednesday forenoons off and spends them in the drafting room at the school of forestry, doing advanced drafting work.

QUARTET GIVES CONCERT

The University string quartet gave a concert at Deer Lodge last Friday. Professor DeLoss Smith led the community singing. Helen Finch and one Bruce played solos.

"Well, they are taking good care of my boy, anyhow."

"That so?"

"Yes, he writes me that they are keeping him in the guard house for a month."—Ex.

Among the rooters from Helena, who expect to be present during the coming meet, are Arthur Redding, Raymond McAdams and Everett Wood.

GRADUATES PROVE THAT HIGHER EDUCATION PAYS

Some of Class of '18 Fill Lucrative Places Before Graduating

That higher education pays and that it is also very effective in keeping the wolf from the door is being proved by a number of the students of the class of 1918, who are now filling or have prospects of appointments to excellent positions. Myrtle Wanderer, who is teaching mathematics in the Jefferson county high school at Boulder, will teach there next year. Elsie Kain will teach English in the Deer Lodge high school next year. Bertha Elinghouse, who is teaching history in the Powell county high school, will continue her work there next fall. Forest Owens has been elected principal of schools at Toston, Montana, and Clifton Jackson, principal for the schools of Lodge Grass, Montana. P. F. Felker has accepted a position as principal of a school system in North Dakota. Ruth Barnett, who has been teaching English at Glendive, will resume her work there at the beginning of the next term. Frances Colvin will teach English in the Columbus high school.

"SHOULDER ARMS" TO BE NEW CADET ORDERS SOON

Government rifles for the University cadet battalion are expected immediately, according to Captain W. J. McCormick, commandant. The final bond has been drawn up and signed by the University authorities. It was thought that the guns would be shipped from Camp Lewis, but it is probable that they will be sent on from the east. The cadets will begin to study the manual of arms as soon as the guns arrive.

"I AM SAFELY ACROSS" WORD FROM JAY ECTOR

Word was received on the campus last week of the safe arrival of John Jay Ector. The card was one he had left in New York when he left and it bore the words, "I am safely across." Ector is with the medical corps of the aviation section. At the time of his enlistment last summer he was a senior in the school of forestry. He was a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity.

DUDLEY RICHARDS ENLISTS

David Dudley Richards, one of the first journalism students at the University, now secretary of the Missoula Chamber of Commerce, is going to the ordnance school at Camp Hitchcock, Georgia. Mr. Richards has always been an active friend of the University.

Miss 1842 Read Papers Like This Ante Bellum One

Bright and crisp as the last hour's extra, an old Pittsburg newspaper, dated September 10, 1842, has been received at the school of journalism from Carl H. Getz, formerly assistant professor of journalism at the University, now editor of the Editor and Publisher, issued in New York.

But only in the fresh, unyellowed condition of the paper stock does it resemble the newspaper of today. The first four columns of this paper are filled with advertisements, the other two on the front page are taken up by a poem and "Anecdotes of General Jackson." On the second page are editorials, "Court Gossip," and brief news stories, such as "Duels in New Orleans." The other two pages of the paper are devoted to advertisements.

Such ads as this appear: "David Clark, agt. Fashionable Boot Maker, has removed to No. 34 Market street, between Second and Third streets, where he would be happy to see his customers and all others who feel disposed to patronize him. He uses nothing but first rate stock, and employs the best of workmen, and as he gives his constant personal attention to business, he trusts that he will deserve and receive a fair share of patronage."

This notice of a suicide is printed: "A young man named Dooley committed suicide at Galena, Ill., on the 24th ult. But a short time since he gave promise of becoming a useful and respectable member of society, but he unfortunately formed an intimacy with bad company, which gradually led him from vice to vice, until his harrowed feelings at the disgraced state to which he had fallen, became unsupportable, and drove him to the fearful act of self-destruction."

The end of this unfortunate man is another warning to the thoughtless young to shun the allurements of evil associations.

ELECTIONS FOR A. S. U. M. WILL BE HELD MAY 23

The officers to be elected are president, vice-president, secretary and manager, two delegates at large and Kaimin editor.

ANNE HALL WINS DECLAMATION CONTEST

(Continued From Page One.) "Sally Ann's Experience," recited by Billings' representative, Miss Helena Badger, was the theme that won the fourth position. The same declamation was also delivered by Miss Lila Brader of Havre, who did not place in the awarding of the positions. Miss Alice Neal, speaking for Butte high school, finished fifth in the race. She recited "The Colors," by Roberts.

Speaks Empey Selection.

In the boys' contest the second place was given to Donald Potter, of Gallatin county high school, who recited the "Coward" episode from Arthur Guy Empey's war story, "Over the Top." The recitation, taken from the chapter entitled, "The Firing Squad," had been rewritten and the technique improved upon.

Adair McCarthy, speaking for Broadwater high school, who won the third place in the contest, chose as his theme "Our Country."

The other contestants were Miss Ruth Thorn of Albion, who recited "Hagar," by Willis; Miss Edith McCall, who spoke "Whose Afraid," by Cooke, and Miss Ruth Herron, who delivered "The Three Things," another episode of the great war, by Andrews.

Musical Selections.

During the evening, between the declamations, selections were played by the University orchestra, led by Professor Cecil Burleigh, and Miss Margaret Wickes rendered a piano solo, "Wedding Day at Troldhaugen," by Greig. Two violin solos by Miss Helen Finch were received by the audience with the applause which always greets her appearance.

County Attorney Fred Angevine acted as chairman. The judges were Miss Ruth E. Kellogg, Miss E. O. Bangs and Professor H. M. Jones. Those who timed the contestants were Mr. J. B. Speer and Dr. J. W. Howard.
