CUMULATIVE INDEX

Volumes I-IV

The lack of an adequate index materially lessens the value of a legal publication. Since the first four issues of the Review constitute sufficient material for binding, it is thought that a comprehensive index may be appropriate at this time.

It is proposed, therefore, to establish a uniform system of numbering the various issues, in order to facilitate reference and citation. In the future, each yearly publication is to be numbered as a volume. Thus the 1940 issue will be cited as Volume I, and the present 1943 issue as Volume IV. Volumes I to IV inclusive will be bound together
