MISSOULA --

Representatives of non-profit agencies, business people, educators and others interested in learning or improving grant-writing skills are invited to attend a two-day workshop in Missoula sponsored by The University of Montana Monday and Tuesday, May 20-21.

"The Art of Successful Grant Writing" is scheduled from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday at the UM Center for Continuing Education. The workshop is designed to develop and strengthen grant-writing skills and provide a foundation for fulfilling the requirements of most funding sources.

The $150 workshop fee includes lunch on Monday and a comprehensive workbook.

The workshop will be led by Richard B. Offner, a national consultant on grant writing, organizational development and strategic planning. Participants will gain understanding of the components of the grant-writing process, including developing an application, writing goals and objectives, devising an evaluation plan, producing a budget, locating funding sources and marketing the project.
