UM BUSINESS SCHOOL STUDENTS WIN SCHOLARSHIPS, AWARDS

MISSOULA —

Fifty-five students in The University of Montana School of Business Administration received awards and more than $45,000 in scholarships at the school’s annual awards banquet Friday, May 3.

Among the recipients were

■ Holly C. Dirkes and Larry D. Williams of Libby, who each received a $1,000 Anne Kathren Lagerlef Scholarship. Dirkes, a 1990 graduate of Libby Senior High School, is a junior majoring in accounting and finance. Her parents are Bill and Jan Dirkes of Ketchum, Idaho. Williams, a 1986 Libby High School graduate, is a junior in business. His parents are Larry and Liz Williams and the late Carol Williams.

■ Michael C. Bowman and Brian E. Oppel of Bigfork. Bowman, a junior in business management, received a $3,000 Jack E. Corette Memorial Scholarship. Bowman graduated from Bigfork High School in 1993. His parents are Robert and Elizabeth Bowman. Oppel, a junior in accounting and music, received a $1,000 Jack Bell Scholarship. Oppel graduated from Bigfork High School in 1992. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Oppel of Wellsboro, Penn., and Payson, Utah.

■ Lori K. Brown of Eureka, a junior in business administration who received a $500 Tractor and Equipment Company Scholarship. Brown graduated from Lincoln County High School in 1993. Her parents are Loni and Jeanne Brown.

- Shelly L. Smith of Whitefish, a junior in accounting who received a $700 KPMG Peat Marwick Scholarship and a $100 scholarship from the American Production and Inventory Control Society. Smith graduated from Whitefish High School in 1993. Her parents are Archie and Kay Smith.

- Connie H. Voth of Ronan, a junior in business administration who received a $1,300 Louise Voorhees Hoback Scholarship and a $500 scholarship from the Missoula Chapter of the Montana Society of Certified Public Accountants. Voth graduated from Ronan high School in 1964.

- Tanya J. Kidd and Steven B. Vaughan of Hamilton, both juniors in finance. Kidd, who graduated from Hamilton High School in 1993, received a $1,000 Citizens State Bank Scholarship. Her mother is Sandi Kidd. Vaughan, a 1989 Hamilton High School graduate, received a $750 Erik Jon Osburnsen Memorial Scholarship. His parents are Pat and Kathy Vaughan.

###

Contact: Cathi Darrington, business school administrative officer, (406) 243-6195.