UM BUSINESS SCHOOL STUDENTS WIN SCHOLARSHIPS, AWARDS

MISSOULA —

Fifty-five students in The University of Montana School of Business Administration received awards and more than $45,000 in scholarships at the school’s annual awards banquet Friday, May 3.

Award-winning students from out of state and overseas are

- J. Shannon Hubbard of Pendleton, Ore., a senior in accounting who received a $750 scholarship from the Western Montana Chapter of the Institute of Management Accountants. Hubbard graduated from Pendleton High School in 1978. His parents are James and Peggy Hubbard of Cascade Locks, Ore.

- Jin Zhang of Chengdu, Sichuan Province, China, who received a plaque for being the outstanding master’s of accountancy student. Zhang graduated from Chengdu 7 Middle School in 1988. Her parents are Chang-Qi Zhang and Si-Kai Ye.

- Preven Kumar Thiyagarajah of Petaling Jaya, Selangor, Malaysia, a junior in finance who received a $1,000 Anne Kathren Lagerlef Scholarship. Thiyagarajah graduated from high school in 1990. His parents are Thiyagarajah Annamalai and Jane Jacob.
Boon Michelle Shook-Mian and Chong Jackie Lu-Ping of Sibu, Sarawak, Malaysia, both juniors in finance. Shook-Mian, a 1991 graduate of Sacred Heart Secondary School, received a $950 Ida M. Kober Scholarship. Her parents are Boon Yang Seng and Leong Siew Fong of Kuching, Sarawak, Malaysia.

Lu-Ping, a 1991 graduate of Methodist Secondary School, received a $500 Dr. Rudyard B. Goode Memorial Scholarship. His parents are Peter Chong Sin Fatt and Wong Ai Hua.

Contact: Cathi Darrington, business school administrative officer, (406) 243-6195