OUTSTANDING UM SENIORS HONORED AT SPECIAL CEREMONY

MISSOULA —

More than 80 outstanding members of The University of Montana—Missoula’s 1996 graduating class were honored recently at the ninth annual UM President’s Senior Day of Recognition awards ceremony.

The following local students were among those honored April 20 for academic excellence, leadership and service. Each student was nominated by the campus department, program or organization listed after his or her name: April Ennis of Shepherd, Golden Key and communication studies; Rachel Han of Outlook, physical therapy; Travis Kinzler of Fairview, Student Social Work Association; Kristian Pederson of Fort Smith, Spanish; Margaret Ann Shunick of Sheridan, Psychology Club; Jarrod Willems of Billings, American Pharmaceutical Association-Associated Students of Pharmacy; Kyle Wood of Miles City, journalism; and Ronald Yates Jr. of Red Lodge, management.

Senior Day of Recognition is sponsored by the Pentralia Chapter of Mortar board, the Alumni Association and the University Center Bookstore.
