OUTSTANDING UM SENIORS HONORED AT SPECIAL CEREMONY

MISSOULA —

More than 80 outstanding members of The University of Montana—Missoula’s 1996 graduating class were honored recently at the ninth annual UM President’s Senior Day of Recognition awards ceremony.

The students, honored April 20, were chosen for academic excellence, leadership and service, each student representing a different campus department, program or organization.

The outstanding seniors from Great Falls and their nominators are Walter Houston, Japanese; Sara Render, premedical sciences; Jeffrey Ridgeley, physics and astronomy; and Nicole Rosenleaf, who was nominated by the Russian and German departments and the Davidson Honors College.

Helena honorees are Lynette Anderson, Pi Sigma Alpha; Greg Bolin, music; Melissa Brown, botanical science; Jennifer Filipovich, political science; and Stephen Roth, exercise science.

Bozeman honorees are Hannah Lohmiller, creative writing; and Sarah Mentzer, classics.

Honorees from Livingston are Donna Juvan, Phoenix; and Matthew O’Hara, environmental geology.

Fort Benton also had two honorees: Stacie Meeks, nominated by Beta Phi Alpha and Pi Omega Pi; and Melinda Wellman, nominated by pharmacy practice.
