FRESHMAN HONOR SOCIETY AT UM PICKS LOCAL STUDENTS

MISSOULA —

The University of Montana—Missoula Chapter of Alpha Lambda Delta, a national honor society for freshmen, recently initiated 36 students from Montana and around the nation who maintained an exceptional grade-point average during their first semester at UM.

Among the initiates are Lisa Armbruster and John "Tyler" Weingartner of Helena. Armbruster, daughter of Tom and Joan Armbruster, is majoring in pre-physical therapy. Weingartner, son of J.C. and Cindy Weingartner, is taking general studies.

Butte initiates are Barbra Broudy and Angela Griffith. Broudy, daughter of Joel and Sheri Broudy, is taking pre-journalism. Griffith, daughter of Rick and Kathy Griffith, is a pre-pharmacy major.

Also initiated were Tina Flesch of Shelby, a psychology and pre-physical therapy major whose parents are Gene and Ruth Flesch; pre-physical therapy major Kara Smart of Livingston, daughter of Deborah and Stanley Smart; and biology major Shawna Sutherland of Dillon, daughter of Cheri Jimeno and Kit Sutherland.
