GREAT FALLS BANKERS NAMED TO UM BUSINESS SCHOOL ADVISORY BOARD

MISSOULA --

Two Great Falls business leaders will lend their expert advice to The University of Montana's business school.

Named to three-year terms on the Business Advisory Council for the School of Business Administration were Richard E. "Rick" Hart, president of Mountain West Bank of Great Falls, and Frank W. Shaw, president, district manager and board director for Norwest Bank Montana.

Council members meet twice a year on the Missoula campus to advise Dean Larry Gianchetta on the operation of the School of Business Administration.

Hart graduated from UM with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1970. Shaw earned a bachelor's degree in economics from UM in 1964.
