FLYING

Sunday
two brothers fold movie bills, church bulletins, and newspapers into airplanes. Thousands are piled in their attic.
Different creases make divers, spinners, loopers

into the yard
of the old woman next door who climbs the hill behind her house and huddles beside a thorn bush.
She scatters handfuls of rice from the basin of her skirt muttering "Caw, Caw, Soul.
Caw, Caw, Soul."
