KALISPELL MAN NAMED TO UM'S STUDENT SENATE

MISSOULA --

Patrick Milliken of Kalispell has been appointed a student body representative at The University of Montana—Missoula.

Members of the Associated Students of The University of Montana senate elected Milliken as an alternate senator last month. He was appointed this week to fill a recently vacated seat. Milliken is a freshmen studying business.

ASUM represents student interests including hiring a lobbyist to promote student issues at the state Legislature and sending a representative to the Montana Board of Regents meetings.

ASUM responsibilities include administering more than $500,000 in student activity fees to more than 150 ASUM-recognized student groups. ASUM provides legal services, child care and entertainment programming for students.
