CURTAIN GOES DOWN ON PIGSKIN THURSDAY

GUSSIE SCHERCK'S LAST FIGHT IN GRID TOGS

Cougars and Grizzlies in Good Condition for Big Battle.

The curtain will drop on Montana's football season Thursday afternoon. The Bruins will make their exit from the field and gridiron armour will be shelved until the 1920 squad goes into action next fall.

Pullman's strong crimson and gray warriors are due to arrive in Missoula tonight or tomorrow morning. The Cougars are in good condition despite their hard battle with O. A. C. last Saturday. Although no touchdowns were scored in that game the Oregon farmers defeated the Palousers by 6 to 0 by two field goals, once more upsetting the dope sheet on Northwest conference football.

With nearly a two weeks' rest the Grizzlies should put up their strongest game of the season in their final game on Thanksgiving day. They have worked hard in practice every night and are prepared to put up a strong offensive, as well as defensive battle. They stand no chance to win on the comparative score basis, but gridiron records all over the country indicate that comparative scores mean nothing.

Thursday's game will see the last collegiate appearance of Captain "Gussie" Scherck, rated as one of the scrappiest ends in the northwest. It will also be the finale for three W. S. C. players, Captain Richard Hanley, quarterback, Walter Herreid, tackle, and Bert Brooks, left end. These men are all veterans of the powerful Washington State machine.

The game Thursday afternoon will start at 2:30 o'clock. It is expected that the largest crowd since 1916, (Continued on Page Four.)

Cougar Struggle Is Gussie's Last College Football

When the final whistle of the W. S. C. game blows on Thursday afternoon, Captain Gussie Scherck, veteran Montana end, will have participated in his last game. He has played every year since he has entered college except for the year when he was in the army.

Scherck started his football career when he was in high school, playing for Missoula two years and for Butte one year. He came to the University in 1914 and played end for the varsity all that year. He was a member of the team that held Syracuse University to a tie in 1915, although he was put out of the game for some of the season on account of injuries. In 1916 he played a stellar game at right end and starred in both the South Dakota and the W. S. C. games.

He enlisted in the army in April, 1917, and was discharged in December, 1918. He came back to school or the spring quarter and played baseball on the varsity. This fall he was elected to lead the Bruins through their football schedule. Starting the season at fullback he was soon changed to his old position at end where he has made the all-state team. During the Aggie game, the armers only made seven yards around is end.

This is also the last game for Hanley, captain of the Cougar eleven.

Farmer Sees Old Pals In University Pictures

Charlie Farmer is a busy man. But for once his work is a pleasure. He has been putting the lantern slides in order and he can't help laughing once in a while when he sees four old grads wearing those antiquated peg top trousers and Oxfords with those big bows. "Look at Jim's hat, will you, Peg?" "Say, that was some team!" "Now, who is this girl?" "Gee, I know her as well as—now who can she be?" Oh, look, here is my senior class."

If Charlie wasn't so anxious to see whose picture is on the next slide he would almost fear that the slide wouldn't be ready for the big show on Thursday night. They will be ready.

MANAGER ASKS STUDENTS TO AID IN TICKET SALE

1200 Seats to Be Sold; 500 Members of A. S. U. M. Have Made Reservations.

"Seat sales outside of the University for the Homecoming Day" game are not as brisk as they should be," says A. S. U. M. business manager Ireland. "If the game is to be a financial success, students will have to talk it up among the people of Missoula and arouse their interest. The sales so far have been rather disappointing."

Today a desk was established in the main corridor of University hall where students may obtain reserved seat tickets. There are 500 seats reserved for rooters and reservations must be made before 6 o'clock Wednesday night in order to obtain places in this section. There will be some body on the job to give out tickets this afternoon and all day Wednesday.

There will be 1200 seats for sale to outsiders and cars will be parked across from the bleachers at a charge to the occupants of $1.25 a head. Seven hundred will be sold for $1.50, the remainder for $1.25.

U CAMPUS IS SCENE OF MANY REUNIONS

FORMER STUDENTS RETURN BY SCORES

Every Train Carries Its Cargo of Homecomers to Missoula for Big Event.

Many former students of the State University have already arrived on the campus for the Homecoming Thanksgiving day. Scores of others have written friends on the campus of their intention to come. With the addition of those who will arrive unexpected, the large attendance at the State University's first reunion is assured, is the opinion of the committee in charge.

The first to arrive were Phil Carroll from Seattle and John Patterson from Cincinnati, Ohio. Fraternities and sororities all announce many members who will return. All organizations will hold reunions in conjunction with the Homecoming.

Mathew V. Carrol, '18, member of Alpha Delta Alpha fraternity arrived from Seattle Saturday evening to be here for Homecoming day.

Among the Kappa Kappa Gammas who will be here are: Jean MacRae, Anna McKenzie, Doris Hall, Helen Sanders, Farrar Kennett, Ann Rector, Margaret Miller, Brenda Farrell, Mrs. Fred Ferman, Lillian Scrogan, Grace Leary and Mrs. Forest Longeway.

E. Pat Kelly of Butte, former star quarterback of Montana, and member of the class of '14, has written friends here that he intends to be in Missoula for Homecoming day.

Palmer Nelson, a former member of the S. A. T. C. here, is returning November 25 for Homecoming day. Nelson will probably be the most distant visitor here on that day, as he is coming from Valley City, N. D. He (Continued on Page Three.)

Bitter Root Doctor Edited First Kaimin

In 1896 the Kaimin, the official paper of the State University, made its first appearance in the form of a monthly magazine. P. S. Rennie, now a doctor in Stevensville, was the first editor of the magazine. Doctor Pixley of Missoula, Benjamin Stewart of Alaska, and George H. Greenwood, a member of the Old National bank of Spokane, were members of the staff.

In 1906 the Kaimin was changed to a weekly paper and in 1915 it was published twice a week. Before the end of the year it is expected that it will be published three times during the week.

All Kaimin editors from the time of the establishment of the school of journalism until the declaration of war were in military service.

Efforts are being made to have Doctor P. S. Rennie at the University for Homecoming day.

PARADE STARTS U HOMECOMING

800 Students Representing Every Campus Organization to Appear in Stunts.

PLAN DOWN-TOWN RALLY

Football Men, Coaches and Former Varsity Athletes to Talk at Pep Fest.

A parade consisting of 800 University students, closed by a big downtown rally, will officially start Homecoming on Wednesday at 4 o'clock. Wednesday will unofficially be reunion day as most of the Homecomers will arrive Tuesday.

The parade will start at the University. Every student is expected to take part in it. Every fraternity, sorority, club and organization will have a float or stunts in the parade. They will represent some event in the history of the University. The students will march in the parade according to organizations.

The football team will probably be pulled in a vehicle by the students, according to the plans of the committee. The line of march will be from the University down University avenue, down Higgins avenue, and back to Kelley's corner, where the rally will be held.

That the rally will be the biggest and peppiest ever held by Montana students is the expectation of Yell King Bill Kane. There will be yells and songs by the students. Prominent members of the football team, Coach Bierman, Doc Schreiber, and old "M" men who have returned for Homecoming will give short talks.

The University has received evidence from all over the state to show that Homecoming is going to be successful. Letters have come in to the faculty members and to the student (Continued on Page Four.)

University Emblem to Be Beacon Light to Greet Homecomers

The present M on the side of Mt. Sentinel has like everything else undergone an evolutionary process. The first letter which graced the side of Sentinel in the year 1910 was a small white wooden structure set up by means of brackets. This letter stood the test of all kinds of weather until the year 1914, when a big blizzard completely wrecked it. Two M's were later constructed in its place, one of wood and the other of stone.

The present M was surveyed in 1915 by members of the forestry surveying class under the supervision of James H. Bonner, then assistant professor of forestry. At the end of the day's work only the outline of the M was finished and whitewashed. The next spring, members of the freshman class, just before Interscholastic week, completed the job, filling the outline in with rocks and giving the letter a heavy coat of whitewash. According to custom the freshman class gives the M a white coating twice each year.

On the evening of October 9, the present freshman class, for the first time in the history of the University, lighted up the M with fuses. A new custom was consequently added to that of whitewashing the emblem of Montana University. The freshmen have voted to light up the M again next Thursday night at 10 o'clock as a feature of Homecoming week.

THE YELLOW PERIL

We saw him take the plain envelope from the bulletin board. And we turned away in order that we might not see his blushes.

A whoop of glee caused us to turn to see him. Merrily he waved the typewritten slip. "Down in 11 out of a possible 15 hours," he chortled. "I claim that's batting 700 per cent."

He was a senior.

And freshmen watched him.

We, ourselves, are very doubtful as to the efficacy of the yellow slip. Instructors use them for everything from the case of the student who gets a paper in late, to the student who is hopelessly delinquent. The idea is that the dean of men is more than the pound of cure, he is the ounce of prevention as well. And if the faculty man feels that a student may possibly get a B where he should make an A, he promptly "sicks Jesse on 'em."

This condition is bad enough, but the student who not only regards the delinquency reports, loosely but gets others to join him in his folly, is making conditions even worse.

We have never yet seen a student fail because he heeded a "yellow slip." We have seen dozens fail because they ignored them. The senior who encourages the underclass men to ignore delinquency reports is dealing a severe blow to the State University. For the freshmen who follow his example will never be sophomores.

PHOEBE AT HOME

When the Kappas announce open house from 7 to 11, we can guess it will be a popular game.

And knowing the reputation one Kappa achieved on the way to Bozeman, we are going to leave our pocketbooks at home.

Meanwhile the guardians of the key are urging "If you can't come seven, come eleven."

Anyway, Little Joe will be there.

Curse him.

CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM

People are always knocking the weather, yet no one ever does anything to change it.

Which reminds us of a member of the faculty.

The art student who sits up half the night debating whether or not to draw, usually gets a full house—of yellow slips.

MANY APPLICANTS FOR SHORTHORN COURSE

The Forestry school is receiving numerous applications for enrollment in the ranger course which will start at the beginning of the next quarter. Many of them are from southwestern states, notably California, New Mexico and Arizona.

FORMER STUDENTS MARRY

Gladine Lewis, '13 and John Crawford were married on September 15, according to word received here. They will live in Hysham. Mrs. Crawford is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

SENTINEL SELLS RIBBONS

Copper, silver and gold ribbons are being sold on the campus for the 1920 Sentinel. Besides the word "Homecoming," printed across them they carry the slogan "Beat 'Em Bruins."

Manager E. C. Mosby of the year-book, says these ribbons are "$5 worth of pep for 15 cents."

The ribbons are on sale at Calahan's down town, and by students on the campus.

LENORE HEMMICK LEAVES RECONSTRUCTION SERVICE

Lenore Hemmick, who has been visiting in Missoula, has gone to Fort D. A. Russell at Cheyenne, Wyo., to receive her discharge. She is a member of the class of '17. For some time she has been engaged in physical reconstruction work in the army.

She was first assigned to Vancouver barracks at Portland and then in hospitals in Washington, D. C. After her discharge she expects to take a position in the hospitals of the Goodyear Rubber company at Akron, Ohio.

DORM GIVES DANCE

The girls who take their meals at Craig hall gave a dance at the dorm Friday evening. The parlors were decorated in red, white and blue and the programs were labeled "The Dance of the States." About 60 couples attended.

VERNA LAVIELLE MARRIES

Verna Lavielle of Belt left on Friday for Salt Lake, where she is to be married to Fred Selgling, also of Belt. Miss Lavielle is a member of the junior class.

Memorial Way Keeps Ever Green Memory of Varsity's Hero Dead

(By Elsie Tschudy.)

"Memorial Way." By this name is known the avenue which leads from the north entrance of the campus grounds to the central oval. Along both sides of this avenue are lined 32 young trees, each with a protecting shield and each with a name plate at its foot. These trees are memorials to those students of the University of Montana who died in the service of their country during the World War.

Not all of our dead were killed on foreign battlefields. Some were overcome in the fight against influenza and scarlet fever waged in the students' army training corps in Missoula and in army camps all over our country. Mrs. Yoder, first mentioned on the list, whose tree stands opposite the entrance of the new Science hall, was a volunteer nurse who gave up her life while caring for diseased victims in the local training camps. Miss Garrigus, Miss Halse, Miss Requam and Miss Byrnes were also nurses.

The trees were down here in the nursery of the forestry school. They are all Montana yellow pine, the longest-lived tree that grows. This pine attains a beautiful size in one hundred and fifty years and lives for three to five hundred years.

The trees were set out last spring in connection with the Arbor Day memorial exercises. Should any of them suffer from the transplanting they will be replaced by new and stronger trees. In their greenness will they keep ever green the memory of these, our heroes:

125 HELPED TO START BAND'S TREASURY FUND

A crowd, numbering about 125, attended the band dance in the gymnasium last Saturday night. The Harmony Jazz orchestra furnished the music for the occasion. The patrons and patronesses were President and Mrs. E. O. Sisson, Professor and Mrs. T. C. Spaulding, Professor and Mrs. Charles Farmer and Mrs. K. W. Jameson.

The band has long needed a treasury fund, and the money realized from the dance will be used to start this fund.

WELCOME HOME WEEK

THE WEEK beginning November 23 is homecoming week at the Montana University. This week has a double significance to the University student this year, as many of the returned soldiers who formerly attended the "U" will be formally welcomed home by their various fraternities. The sororities as well as the fraternities will have their customary "Firesides," at which reminiscences of the good old days will be related.

Social gatherings of various kinds will be held, commencing Wednesday evening, November 26. You will want something nice for these occasions and Donohue's has it, at just the price you will like to pay.

FOR THE CO-ED

For such an occasion there are a number of articles which one could suggest, and each one would be quite appropriate. Our November profit-sharing garment sale suggests a new dancing frock. Never were frocks any lovelier, the styles any newer, nor the price any lower. We have just received a shipment of wool scarfs, also heavy wool hose in the drop stitch styles for wear with low shoes at the W. S. C. football game. Our new sweaters with their bell shape cuffs and ripple flare over the hips are meeting with instant favor with the smart followers of fashion. The prices are as low as the qualities will permit.

FOR THE COLLEGIAN

Dress plays such an important part in the social life of every student. A man is judged by his personal appearance; looks reflect the mental attitude and enable one to judge on sight the manner of man you are. It is a natural tendency for a man to have just a little more confidence if he is well dressed. Dress the Donohue way and save money. Donohue's clothes are designed for every type of man, and are so priced that nearly every one can be well dressed at a price he feels he can afford to pay. Drop in and give our clothes the "once over." A new shipment of fine silk shirts just received.

Fifteen long-winded athletes gathered in Coach Schreiber's office yesterday and drew for the sororities that they are to represent in the three and one-half mile cross-country run on Homecoming day. They were given the final instructions regarding the race.

They will meet at the gymnasium at 1:30 Thursday afternoon and will be taken out to the starting place near Fort Missoula. The course as scheduled is to extend through the county fair grounds, past the Country club house, where a check will be taken of the runners, and from there to the University. Upon reaching the athletic field the entrants will complete the race by running around the cinder track until they cross the tape in front of the grandstand. According to arrangements the marathon is expected to be finished just before the football game begins.

The winner's score will be one, and the others will count the number of their place of finishing. If a contestant fails to finish his score will be 15.

The three members of each team will add their scores and the sorority whose team has the least number of points will be the winner.

The sororities are preparing to give the contestants a dinner party in the domestic science dining room some time next week.

Spike Baker, a letter man in track, is the favorite, having more experience in the speed game. Austin, Brady, and Joy promise to be running close up at the finish. The rest of the men are good distance men and several being freshmen nothing definite is known as to their ability. Any of these men may upset the "dope" of the older men.

With Baker and Austin on their team the Delta Sigma Chi sorority seems to have a little edge on the others. Otherwise the teams are pretty well balanced, and with a dark horse may turn the trick.

The teams and their representatives are:

Delta Sigma Chi — Baker, Austin, Hawke.

Kappa Kappa Gamma — Campbell, Carnell, Whittinger.

Alpha Phi — Brady, Thomas, Howard. Kappa Alpha Theta — Hatch, Stevenson, Toulouse.

Delta Gamma — Phillips, Lewis, Joy.

when every seat in the stands and on the sidelines was occupied when W. S. C. played here, will be present. The Washington State college team is receiving a guarantee of $1,000 for the game and will bring at least 20 players, besides Coach Gustave Welch, Athletic Director Bohler and one of the assistant coaches.

Officials have been selected for the game and were announced yesterday as follows: Sam Moyer, referee; E. H. Hinderman, umpire; Jerry Nissen, head linesman. Moyer and Hinderman are coaches in the Spokane high schools, while Nissen was formerly coach of the University football team. He now resides at Seattle, but is in Missoula on business. Moyer and Hinderman have officiated in several games that Montana has taken part in during the last few years. They were the officials for the Montana-Idaho game this year.

U Forest Students Sweat in Making Trail Up Sentinel

The trail up old Mount Sentinel has meant more to the students of the University of Montana than to the government look-out on the summit who it was first intended for. He used to come down to town often and the trail was constructed for his convenience. In the fall of 1915 Professor Bonner surveyed the trail and the students of the school of forestry constructed it.

During the four years that have passed since then the old trail up Mount Sentinel has been the "longest way 'round" of many a happy hike. The freshmen classes are especially thankful to the work of the foresters—to the energy which made possible the trail, and to the wisdom and judgment which gave it only a 7 per cent grade. Twice each year the freshmen climb this path with heavy loads of whitewash to paint that old letter which means so much to the students of Montana University.

When the students become discouraged—sometimes—their eyes follow the old trail up the hill. As they look up they see the "M" and, in the contemplation of the great things for which it stands, they forget their meaner selves. Mount Sentinel trail is two and one-half miles in length; and the primary object of its construction was to make travel easier in the look-out on the summit. But the role which it has played in the life of the Montana University has been much greater.

body which express an active interest in the University plans for Thanksgiving. City officials, faculty, and old and new students are doing their best to make Homecoming an event to be remembered.

Homecoming plans are all laid. They are due to hatch Thursday. A pecking at the shell will be noticeable Wednesday afternoon, but not until Thursday afternoon will the brood be fluttering around the mother "M."

Faculty members may have the pleasure of shaking hands with men and women to whom they gave yellow slip after yellow slip. Football men will meet football men who used to fight for the honor of the "U" and of whom they have heard wondrous tales. Dorm girls will have a chance to give the sisters who used to occupy their rooms the once over, and Simpkins hall residents can turn into the personal part of personally conducted tours showing people who never saw the new buildings everything there is to be seen.

This is just part of what is going to be doing. There will be class reunions, class rivalries will be aroused and the present student body will have its eyes opened wider than wide by what it can see if it watches.

CLOTHES TAKEN IN GIRLS' GYM

Clothing from the lockers in the girls' gym has been missing. A fine of five cents has been imposed on every girl leaving her locker open while in gym or otherwise. It has been a hope that this will end all such disturbances.

BIERMAN POSTS CALL FOR BASKETBALL MEN

LARKIN AND SULLIVAN ARE ONLY LETTERMEN

Sigma Chi Looks Strong in First Game With A. D. A. Starting Series.

First call for varsity basketball material is set for next Monday evening, according to Coach Bernie Bierman's latest plans. Prospects for a large turnout are good, although but two letter men are registered at present.

Larkin at forward and Sullivan at guard are the veterans of the Grizzly quintet. Both men played on the 1918 team, which took the state honors away from the farmers.

Boyd, Fox, Adams and McKain are all back in the University and with a year's experience as subs should make other candidates hustle for a berth. Among the other promising candidates are Cort Howard, Ahern and Whistler, all of whom made the all-fraternity team last season.

Whistler and Boyd are guards, while Ahern and Howard will bid for the position of forward. Fox and McKain have both played center and should make a good fight to get on the squad.

The first intra-mural contest is scheduled for a week from today, when the Sigma Chi meets Alpha Delta Alpha in the opener of the interfraternity schedule. It looks like an easy victory for the Sigs with one letter man, two members of last year's all star team and a sub from the state champ team of 1918 back in the University.

The probable lineup of the Sigma Chi team will be Larkin and Ahern, forwards; Fox, center; Whistler and Olsen, guards. The A. D. A. team will pick their quint from Ruppel, Warner, Campbell, Shepard, Moriarity, Kain, Westby and McKain.

NEW R. O. T. C. MEMBERS MEASURED FOR UNIFORMS

Cadets See Motion Picture Lectures on Various Phases of Military Life.

The members of the R. O. T. C. corps, with the exception of the men who were in it last year, are being measured for their uniforms.

Last year's men will be re-issued their old uniforms but the new comers will be equipped with new material as the commandant does not wish the men to wear goods that have been used by others.

About half the cadets have been measured already and the rest will be finished in a few days. According to Sergeant Brown the new uniforms should arrive in about a month or at least in time for use the beginning of next quarter.

The old uniforms left over from last year will be salvaged and sent back to the quartermaster's department.

Motion picture lectures were given Friday to the men of the R. O. T. C. The mechanism and the use of grenades were shown by two reels of film. Two more reels dealt with the gun. Target determination was the subject of the remaining two reels. The pictures were shown in the assembly room of the New Science building.
