JUNEAU WOMEN SELECTED AS UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA ADVOCATES

MISSOULA --

Jennifer Johnson and Jayne Lidholm of Juneau have been selected as Advocates at The University of Montana-Missoula.

The University of Montana Advocates are an 80-member group of professional student leaders who assist the University with a variety of volunteer activities such as UM Days, orientation, recruiting and registration. They represent the student body and the University to the general public and also serve as campus hosts for Homecoming, alumni relations and UM Foundation events.

The UM Advocate organization was one of the first student leadership groups founded in the United States and has been a forerunner in progressive student organizations at other colleges and universities across North America. In the mid-1970s UM Advocates started touring Montana and other states serving as ambassadors for UM.

The daughter of Franklin and Anita Johnson, Jennifer is a sophomore studying health and human performance and pre-physical therapy.

The daughter of Gary and Juanita Lidholm, Jayne is a sophomore studying business administration.

Both women are 1995 graduates of Juneau-Douglas High School.
