AREA STUDENTS SELECTED AS UM ADVOCATES

MISSOULA --

John Lair of Corvallis and Heidi Schlotterbeck of Hamilton have been selected as Advocates at The University of Montana-Missoula.

The University of Montana Advocates are an 80-member group of professional student leaders who assist the University with a variety of volunteer activities such as UM Days, orientation, recruiting and registration. They represent the student body and the University to the general public and also serve as campus hosts for Homecoming, alumni relations and UM Foundation events.

The UM Advocate organization was one of the first student leadership groups founded in the United States and has been a forerunner in progressive student organizations at other colleges and universities across North America. In the mid-1970s UM Advocates started touring Montana and other states serving as ambassadors for UM.

The son of Jim and Sue Lair, John is a sophomore studying English. He is a 1995 graduate of Corvallis High School.

The daughter of Bill and Sandy Schlotterbeck, Heidi is a junior studying pre-pharmacy. She is a 1994 graduate of Hamilton High School.
