COACH TO LEAVE U THIS SPRING

Bernie Bierman Announces His Intention to Resign in June

DOES NOT STATE REASONS

His Teams Are Said to Be Best Drilled in History of University.

B. W. Bierman announced Thursday night that his services as coach of the University of Montana football and basketball teams will come to an end at the close of the present college year. Coach Bierman gave no reasons for his decision and stated that he had no plans for the future.

Bierman has made an excellent record as varsity coach and one that will be long remembered on the campus. The football team that he turned out last fall made more points than any other squad against the Washington State College during the season. Those who saw the Grizzlies battle the Aggies at Bozeman watched a brilliant example of Bierman's work as a trainer of gridiron fighters. His team was light and often crippled by loss of men, but under his training they fought their way through the season, coming out with an admirable record.

Sport critics state that Coach Bierman's basketball team is the best drilled team that has ever represented the University, although the Grizzlies have been administered four straight conference defeats. Their excellent teamwork caused considerable comment wherever they have played.

MONTANA WILL DEBATE WITH AGGIES THURSDAY

The University of Montana will debate with the Montana State Agricultural College at the University auditorium on Thursday, February 12. The question will be: "Resolved, That the United States Senate should ratify a treaty similar to the one proposed by France."

George Witter and George Shepard will represent the University on the negative.

Associate Justice J. A. Mathews of the state supreme court, Rev. Jesse Lacklen, pastor of the Methodist church in Missoula, and Lieutenant Governor W. W. McDowell, will be the judges.

This will be the first time in five years that the two schools have debated. The first one was held in 1912 in Bozeman. The decision was in favor of M. S. C. For the next three years the University won every debate scheduled with the Aggies.

HEAR WIRELESS TELEPHONY

R. B. Adams Demonstrates the Invention to Forest Students.

Wireless telephony was demonstrated to the students of the forestry school by R. B. Adams, a prominent telegraph and telephone expert of the United States forest service, Monday afternoon. Two small portable wireless telephone units, one in the forest school and the other at Mr. Adams' residence in the city, were put in operation, and the students had the experience of hearing the human voice successfully transmitted by wireless. Mr. Adams gave a lecture on the subject, pointing out the method of operation.

Whitman Next

The Grizzlies will meet Whitman Monday and Tuesday, February 9 and 10, for the first time this season. Whitman has one of the fastest fives in the northwest. They have defeated the University of Washington and Oregon. So far they are leading in the race for the Northwest championship. The games will be called at 8:15.

POSTER GIVES REASONS FOR SUPPORT OF BILL

Says University Has Reached Limit of Growth Under Present Revenue System.

"Reasons why you should support the University Finance Bill" is the title over a large placard placed in Main Hall Thursday afternoon. The placard was designed by the advertising class of the school of journalism, which is taught by Dean A. L. Stone.

Among the propositions given why students should support the Finance bill the advertising class has expounded the following:

The University of Montana had reached the limit of growth and of service possible under the present system of revenue.

If Montana is to have a University worthy of the name it must make adequate financial provisions. In per capita resources and wealth Montana ranks among the first four states of the Union. In her financial support of higher education she is fortieth.

For their own sakes and for Montana's sake, Montana students should be educated at home. It is but justice to them.

Every Montana student who attends an institution outside the state represents a financial loss to Montana of $1,000 a year. In 1919 this loss was half a million dollars.

An additional and assured income is necessary to provide the right sort of instructors and to keep them in Montana.

The University of Montana must have more buildings and more equipment if it is to grow.

Fit instructors and proper equipment mean more and better service to the state.

These measures will make possible the developments of a fixed University policy in education and state service.

The states whose universities are in the first rank include Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Colorado, Wisconsin, Oregon, Wyoming, Nevada and Kentucky. They have in force a mileage tax.

WOMEN URGED TO BUY CO-ED FORMAL TICKETS

Chairman Jewell Godfrey Says Tickets Not Selling Fast as Expected.

"Tickets for the co-ed formal are not selling as rapidly as was expected," said Jewel Godfrey, chairman of the co-ed formal. "Every girl should go," she said, "especially this year since it is really the girls' dance and a leap year dance—besides it comes on Friday the 13th."

The dance will be given in the Elite hall. The decorations will be valentine motifs and Sheridan's five-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

The co-ed formal has been a University tradition for five years. It originated with the leap year dance of 1916. That dance was so successful that the girls decided to make it a yearly custom.

CHARTER DAY TO BE BIG STUDENT EVENT

NOTED MEN WILL ADDRESS CONVOCATION

Afternoon of Entertainment in Gym Arranged; Music at Night.

This year Charter day will be more of a day for the students than it has been formerly, according to the plans being made by the committee in charge. The University charter was signed February 17. In former years the entertainment has been limited to speeches in the morning. This year there will be an afternoon of fun in the gymnasium.

The chief speaker will be Lieutenant Governor W. W. McDowell. He will address the students at 10 o'clock on the morning of Charter day, after the first two morning classes. Other speakers are Acting President F. C. Scheuch of the original faculty; D. D. Richards, secretary of the Missoula Chamber of Commerce and a Montana alumni; Mac Gault of the student body, and Chancellor E. C. Elliott of the greater University of Montana.

In the afternoon there will be various kinds of amusement in the gymnasium. Two basketball games, one between the faculty and the seniors, and another between two varsity teams to be picked by Coach B. W. Bierman, will be staged. There will be wrestling matches between University men and several other stunts to be put on by the Physical Education department. The band will play during the afternoon.

In the evening a recital by the students of the University School of Music will be given.

PASS RESOLUTIONS ON STUDENT'S DEATH

Organizations Extend Sympathy to Acting President Scheuch.

Resolutions of sympathy for the family of Straughn Scheuch, who died suddenly Monday, were adopted Tuesday by the members of the Student Council of the University, the Freshman class, of which he was a member, and by the Sigma Chi fraternity, of which he was a pledge.

Mrs. F. C. Scheuch will not arrive from Texas until Saturday morning at the earliest. Funeral arrangements are awaiting her arrival. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon if Mrs. Scheuch makes connections in Denver, where only a short time between trains is allowed. J. H. T. Ryman, a member of the local board of the University, who was in Texas on a business trip, is accompanying her home.

Sigma Chi Resolutions.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Scheuch and Family, Missoula, Montana.

Dear Friends: Whereas, Almighty God, in his omnipotent power, has seen fit to have the Angel of Death call your son, Straughn Scheuch, from mortal life, Beta Delta Chapter of Sigma Chi extends to you its deep and heartfelt sympathy in your bereavement.

Your loss is ours for we called him friend and companion. We knew him from early childhood as a cheerful, true, frank and loyal boy, and in his associations with us during his brief

NOTICE

Upon the recommendation of the Dean of Men and the Dean of women, and with the approval of the Chancellor, I have taken the following action:

Pending the presentation by the students, and the approval by the University authorities, of a plan through which the responsibility for the character of certain student affairs may be fixed, and the University safeguarded from criticism, the student performance known as Hi-Jinx, and performances of similar general character, may not hereafter be conducted by University students nor under University auspices.

F. C. SCHEUCH,
Acting President.

LORADO TAFT PRAISED BY FREDERICK SCHWALM

"It is by no means a usual thing—to find a man who is a genius and yet is able to tell the whys and wherefores," said Professor F. D. Schwalm. "That is why we are so fortunate in getting a man like Lorado Taft to speak here. I only wish we were nearer to Chicago, so that we could hear him more often."

"Mr. Taft is a man whose worth is not measured only by his talent. His education went right along with it. Many great artists have come to be geniuses, but they could not tell you how they arrived there. They are like trail-blazers who cannot retrace their way."

"Art people judge a man by technical details the public judges him by his achievement. Lorado Taft is upheld both in art circles and in the circle of public opinion, a circumstance which is very seldom true."

The subject of the artist's lecture here to be given in the University auditorium on March 8th, is "American Sculpture and Sculptors." It is possible that he may touch on some of the events of his education and his early work.

"The cry in art circles of the east is, 'Why do not great geniuses give us their methods, give us themes or addresses by which we could study their ways of working?'" Professor Schwalm continued. "It is because they cannot. Mr. Taft can. That is why he is such a remarkable man."

AFTER TWO-DAY CONFAB ELLIOTT LEAVES TOWN

Will Return to Missoula Next Week to Complete Plans for Campaign.

Chancellor E. C. Elliott of the Greater University of Montana returned to Helena Thursday, after spending two days in Missoula conferring with University officials in regard to his proposed financial plans for the University of Montana.

Mr. Elliott was unable to obtain a meeting of the local board at this time so will probably return to Missoula the first of next week. A campaign is being planned for the two measures that will be submitted to the voters at the next regular election in November, which will provide adequate funds for building and maintenance for all the state institutions.

SENTINEL STAFF MEETING

There will be an important meeting of the Sentinel staff Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Be there.

GRIZZLIES MEET AGGIES TONIGHT

STATE COLLEGE CONFIDENT

Bruin Quint Expects Hard Tussle But Are in to Win Victory.

Ladies and gentlemen, we have with us tonight, Aggie Kittens, Taylor, Jorgensen, Harris, Bush and Pitts, who will tangle with the Grizzlies for state basketball championship honors. Varsity Captain Larkin, Olson, McKain, Walterskirchen and Sullivan will engage the milk fed five. Let's go, Montana."

Coach Bierman puts his warriors through the last practice before the big fight last night. All the Grizzlies are in the pink. Larkin is faster than ever. Olson has his eagle eye back. McKain is hitting the roof in the tip-off while Sullivan and Walterskirchen are ready to battle before the Kitten's basket. Everybody is waiting for the referee's whistle.

The Aggies are out for blood. So far this season they have suffered no defeat, but tonight they will pull the Waterloo stuff. The Miners have been meat for the Kittens and they have had fun with all the high school and amateur teams in the state, but how they will act when they meet real company is a question.

Of the five from over the hill four have had many years experience with the hoop game. They were members of the Aggie crew who pulled down third place in the National Amateur Athletic Union basketball tournament, held in Chicago in 1917. Bush the youngster of the quintet, is playing good ball so that the alibi stuff has been discarded by the Farmers.

The crowd is ready to pack the gymnasium. Referee Ray Matter is here. The cheer leader is anxious for the battle to begin at 8:15, and the Grizzlies are no longer hibernating, so the word on everybody's lips is "Let's go, Montana."

ART FRATERNITY BIDS THREE TO MEMBERSHIP

Ruby Jacobson, Grace Baldwin and James Dorsey were formally pledged to Delta Phi Delta at a regular meeting of the fraternity, which was held in Showell's studio last evening. Other art majors and majors are wearing Phi Delta ribbons, but these cannot be pledged until the end of the second quarter. The studio was decorated in old rose and gold, the fraternity colors.

TRYOUTS FOR MAY FETE DANCES HAVE BEEN HELD

No definite plans have been completed as to the number of dances that will be presented. But according to the plans of the committee there will be a place for every girl who has any ability.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1920.

STRAUGHN SCHEUCH

We extend our sincere sympathy to Acting President Scheuch and the members of his family upon the death of Straughn Scheuch. As a member of the student body, he was not with us very long. Yet we knew him to be at all times conformable with the highest standards of manhood, and the type of college man who would reflect the highest brand of credit to our University. His death was a shock, and his passing has left the unmistakable signs of sorrow on our campus.

LET'S GO, MONTANA

Tonight the Grizzlies make the initial clash in the race for the state championship. The Aggies are here, confident in their ability to annex the first two titular contests. But they are stacking up against real fast competition when they meet the Bruin aggregation under the leadership of Captain Larkin. We expect the State College men to be thrown for the first loss of the season, but the old Montana spirit must be in evidence as never before. Let's back every Grizzly with 100 per cent spirit and support, such that the winning stride will be inevitable and cannot be stopped.

We have seen excellent displays of genuine spirit at the co-ed basketball games. Divert this spirit into the old Montana way, and we will get away with these two games so slick and clean that there will be no comeback. Let's go, Montana.

A WAY OUT

Now that the production of Hi Jinx has temporarily been pushed into the discard by action of University authorities, until some system of supervision is devised to keep such productions within the limits of the University standards, we hope that the continual and disagreeable discussion of the last Hi Jinx will cease. But by way of suggestion for the future, wouldn't it be well for students to think seriously of what is to be the extent of faculty control over student productions. We do not want faculty censorship. Censorship is a confession of weakness on our part and not becoming to University students.

The Kaimin believes that the student supervision of student theatricals naturally becomes a duty of the members of the committee on student features. This committee is composed of the Yell King, the Junior class president and some Student Council co-ed. This committee, after exercising its right of supervision, would be responsible for the character of the production. This responsibility resting on two or three individuals would make possible the elimination of shady productions. The trouble in the past has been that there is never anyone upon whom to fix responsibility. We act in a crowd and usually mutually agree that the responsibility shall rest on no one. We believe that the three student leaders who have been given their places of responsibility by student vote, are fully competent to judge what shall be the character of a student theatrical. To preserve their own reputation they will preserve the reputation of the students whom they represent and their University.

Some argue that in productions where men are only concerned, that it is not justifiable that a woman be allowed the right of supervision. This brings up the point of whether or not a co-ed leader who is given a position of trust in student government, can be relied upon to maintain secrecy. The Kaimin believed she can be depended upon and that it is no reflection on the men to have a woman as a member of a supervising committee.

The whole situation resolves itself into one of two things, faculty censorship or student supervision. Think it over. We favor student supervision.

DRAMATIC CLASS WILL PRESENT THREE PLAYS

The class in dramatic presentation, conducted by the English faculty, is working on two productions from the Washington Square Plays, "Overtones" and "The Clod." The class intends to produce these two in public, together with another one-act play to be selected at the next meeting, although the date and details of the performance have not yet been set.

COMPLETES LECTURES

L. J. Hurtt, district grazing examiner of the United States forest service, completed his series of lectures on forest regulations and grazing lands at the forestry school this afternoon.

POSTPONE DANCE

A dancing party, planned by the alumnae of Beta Phi chapter of Kappa Gamma for the active chapter, to be given Saturday night in the Parish house, has been indefinitely postponed.

McClay; home economics, Flora McLaughlin; journalism, Catherine Small; music, Irma Stark; English, Mildred Lore; physical education, Solvay Anderson; history, Alice Neal; modern languages, Mary Vedder; mathematics, Gertrude Clark; fine arts, Lois Showell. Chairmen for the other departments have not yet been appointed.

By special vote of the association the election was held earlier than usual in order that Miss Zada French, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in the greater University of Montana, will have time to train the new cabinet in its duties before she leaves in March.

The new cabinet will be installed Sunday afternoon at 3 in the Y. W. C. A. rooms.

U ORCHESTRA TO PLAY AT CHARTER DAY CON

The University orchestra had planned to give several selections at Convocation Thursday, but because of the postponement of convocation, it is possible that the orchestra will make its initial concert appearance on Charter day, according to Prof. A. H. Weisberg, director of the orchestra.

At present there are about 20 pieces in the orchestra and this number does not include those who are playing in the junior, or beginners, orchestra.

The orchestra is now working on several selections which they will play at the Charter day convocation, according to Mr. Weisberg.

MARIE JOHNSON IS DEAD

Word that Mrs. Eugene McIntyre, formerly Miss Marie Johnson, student here during the years 1915-16 and 1916-17, who died suddenly at her home in Casper, Wyo., came as a shock to her many friends and acquaintances on the campus. Mrs. McIntyre's death came at the birth of a little son, who survived his less fortunate mother.

Marie Johnson graduated from the Hamilton high school in the spring of 1915 and the same fall entered the University. She was voted one of the six most beautiful young women in the University. In 1917 she left school and married Eugene McIntyre of Polson. The young couple later made their home in Casper, where Mr. McIntyre has oil interests.

Mrs. McIntyre is survived by her husband, her son and her mother, who lives in Hamilton, her father having died last year.

BOOK NEARLY COMPLETE

Ireland Announces Material on Directory About Ready.

According to Russell Ireland, A. S. U. M. manager, who is in charge of the publication of the booklet known as the Student's Directory, the book is expected to be out next week.

Ireland said that the material for the directory was practically ready to go to press and that no trouble was expected in getting it out within a very few days.

The directory will contain the name, year in school, department, home address and Missoula address of each of about 900 students and will also contain, in addition to this, practically the same information concerning members of the faculty.

LEAPHART WILL SPEAK AT CON FEBRUARY 23

Dean C. W. Leaphart of the law school will speak at the Washington's birthday convocation, Monday, February 23, on "Washington's Foreign Policy and How the Events of the Last Few Years Have Caused Us to Depart from Them." Another speaker will talk on the historical side of the life of Washington.

The convocation for this week was called off by Physical Director W. E. Schreiber to prevent any further spread of influenza.

ART STUDENTS WRITE LIFE OF LORADO TAFT

A 500-word paper on some phase or incident of the life of Lorado Taft, noted sculptor, who will lecture in Missoula on March 8th, has been assigned to each student enrolled in the art department. These papers will be read and discussed Friday afternoon in class. They are being prepared with the idea of acquainting the students with a man they all should know, according to F. D. Schwalm.

The publicity work for Mr. Taft's talk here is in the hands of the Art league. Seat sales are already well under way. Novel tickets, selling at 50c, are a bright blue in the shape of an artist's palette.

Y. W. C. A. PLANS PARTY

The Y. W. C. A. is planning a party for all the women of the University at the Y hut February 20, to which each girl is to come dressed to represent her major department. One girl in each major subject will be in charge of a stunt put on by that department. The stunts are to be not more than 10 minutes in length. After the stunts there will be songs and refreshments. Every girl is cordially invited to come.

NEW SUITS MIRROR THE DAY'S FASHIONS AT DONOHUE'S

For such a season as this, in which the suit will be more than usually popular for general wear, the arrival of the advanced modes this early in the season was exceptionally fortunate, because of its wealth of the best. The influence of the orient will be noticeable in the lavish use of colorful embroideries on many of the suits. Simplicity of line and trimming is equally good choice.

Alpha Phi	1	5	167

By losing to Kappa Kappa Gamma by a score of 30 to 19, Wednesday, Craig Hall was eliminated from among the four possible winners of the co-ed basketball tournament. The same afternoon Alpha Phi won from Out of Town by a score of 24 to 19. Craig Hall was seriously handicapped by the loss of Clara Johnson, star center, and Marian Hebert, forward, because of illness. Despite this they played a fast game and the first half ended a tie. In the second half Kappa speeded up and the Craig Hall five began to weaken.

Helen Newman was responsible for most of the Kappa points, but the guarding of Ann Wilson and the floor work of Eunice Whiteside were features of the game.

For Craig Hall, Celia Anderson starred, playing the floor well and making most of the baskets. Fern Searight played a good game as guard.

The Out of Town-Alpha Phi game was slow. For Alpha Phi, Lillian Quast and Ruth James starred, while Hildred Gleason and Frances Rock played a good game for the losers.

The tournament will end February 20, when Theta will play the winner of the Kappa-Town game, which is scheduled for February 13. All three teams have lost one game, but Theta has played all her hard games. Town lost to Craig Hall, Theta to Town, and Kappa to Theta. Theta has won from both Craig Hall and Kappa.

February 9—Town vs. Out of Town.
February 11—Cottage vs. Kappa Kappa Gamma; Out of Town vs. Delta Sigma Chi; February 13—Kappa Kappa Gamma vs. Town; Out of Town vs. Delta Sigma Chi; February 17—Cottage vs. Kappa Alpha Theta; February 18—Alpha Phi vs. Cottage; Town vs. Delta Gamma; February 20—Finals.

WORK ON U YEAR BOOK PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

Most of the Engraving Expected to Be Finished This Month.

The work on the 1920 Sentinel is proceeding nicely and the book is getting into a tangible shape. A large part of the engravings will be made this month and most of the sections will be completed by the middle of April.

One section will be left open for the interscholastic meet in May and copy rushed to the printer on the last day of the meet. This will bring the book up to date in practically every varsity activity except baseball. Delivery of the Sentinels will be started June 1st and continue through the first week of June.

For the first time since the publication of the Sentinel the printer will be held under a penalty contract, which will assure the getting of the book out on time.

All campus organizations that desire separate pages should speak to the business manager at once.

CANADIAN GATEWAY TO EXCHANGE WITH KAIMIN

The Kaimin last week received a request from The Gateway, a student paper of the University of Alberta, at Edmonton, Alberta, to be placed on The Kaimin's exchange list.

The Gateway is the only Canadian paper that the Kaimin office receives, although the number of western college papers received is many. Student papers from the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Kansas, North Dakota and Ohio are on The Kaimin files.

Ignorant Essays

The Sophomore Life of Clarice.
Chapter X.

Clarice was all set to see the fur fly when the Bruins tangled with the Kittens from across the divide. The Farmers had been plowing every other team in the state under with their basket shooters. Coach Powell thought they were good. He did not like to her them called Aggies, but then he has only been with them a short while, and as yet has been blind to their faults.

"You can take the boy out of the country but cannot take the country out of the boy, so you send him to an Aggie school," mused Clarice. Our Hero was all set to root hard. He knew that if the sisters made as much noise at the Varsity contest as they did at the co-ed Greek battles the team would know they were behind them. Clarice knew it would be a good battle, that the Grizzlies would win, for it had not been since the blue snow that the Farmers had annexed a victory. (To be continued.)

You know it always seems to me, that life at college seems to be different from the rest. And I feel for a certainty, that it is always sure to be a little for the best. And now I'm going to try and tell why every guy should yell and yell for his Varsity. Not just because they want you to get out and holler bolla baa, and rah, rah, one, two, three. It's not your lungs they want to help when they ask you to come and yelp, "Montana give 'er hell." You know there is a ladder of fame and it's always best to have your name on top of the top rung. So put Montana on the top, until it's there don't ever stop if you have to bust a lung.—Rex.

Would you call a kitchen barrage, shelling the aggs.

The fellows might not fell at home, but they will be at home at the co-ed formal.

Miss Leyda called 24 fouls in the Alpha Phi-Out of Town game. A foul game we would say.

Tryouts have started for the May-feet.

Jerry, U Artists' Friend, Sacrifices to Anatomy Class

"Jerry" has moved. No more does he swing from his "Gamma"-shaped stand in the art lab. No longer do his pointed fingers rattle in the rush of air when some bustling artist brushes past his stand by the door. No longer do his clammy feet, dangling at the ends of long limbs, swing about playfully.

For Jerry has been lifted down and taken apart, head from neck and limb from limb. A class in anatomy, under the direction of Professor Schwalm, is discussing his white bones. They mumble strange words over his light, little head. They draw pictures, supplementing that little head with plump cheeks and big black eyes.

Poor Jerry is down and out. And we miss him—awfully. Won't they hang him up again?

FARMER EXPLAINS STAND TAKEN FRIDAY NIGHT

Professor Charles E. Farmer, superintendent of buildings and grounds, in a statement yesterday made plain his reasons for refusing to allow students to occupy the aisles of the assembly hall during the performance of Hi Jinx Friday night.

He said that the state law regarding the use of buildings similar to theaters required that no more persons be allowed in the seating space than can be properly seated in the chairs, provided that no chairs be placed in the aisles and that there must be an exit nearby before a crowd can occupy the aisles.

"In the future the students must adhere strictly to these regulations," said Professor Farmer. "I am responsible for the buildings and must see that the rules are enforced." He said that the assembly last Friday night was a rather dangerous place with the large crowd there and the front aisle blocked by the piano and orchestra.

U HAS ADEQUATE FIRE PROTECTION FACILITIES

The University's fire protection facilities are up to the standard. Charlie Farmer has made some charts for the State Efficiency board that shows this institution to have adequate protection. This has been a very good thing, Mr. Farmer thinks, for although it has found the school up to requirements, still it has brought out a few minor details which can be improved upon.

EXTEND SYMPATHY ON DEATH OF U STUDENT

attendance at the State University of Montana, we found him ever courteous, and always a gentleman, with a sympathetic character that made all persons, with whom he came in contact, his true and loyal friends. He stood for what was best in young manhood. His should have been a long and honorable career, but in God's wisdom, this was not to be.

To us, who knew him, who worked with him, and who loved him, the memory of his friendship will always be a solace to the grief that must abide. Sincerely yours,

FLU EPIDEMIC CRITICAL AT U SAYS SCHREIBER

The flu situation at the University, while there are no serious cases, is very critical, was the statement of Dr. W. E. Schreiber yesterday. Everything depends on the care the students take of themselves. Emphasis must be put on the fact that the danger comes after the student has been up after a slight attack and without properly taking care of himself comes down with a second attack. He must stay in bed until he fully recovers.

The Delta Rho house is the only one of the house quarantined at the present. There are four members of that fraternity at the campus hospital; Andy Boyd, K. McKoin, Howard Carver and John Southwick.

Mrs. A. F. LeClair has had charge of the hospital with Miss Redmond of Great Falls as assistant.

The committee wishes to have it announced that it desires the number of invitations needed by each fraternity.
