Brice Toole, Missoula; Algeroy LeClaire, Missoula; Donald Ross, Great Falls, and a fourth member yet to be selected will accompany the club as an instrumental quartet.

QUARTER THIS SPRING TO START MARCH 22

The spring quarter at the University will begin March 22. It will end June 12. This will make commencement June 30. The summer quarter will not open until June 14.

The reason for the change, according to J. B. Speer, was to enable summer school teachers to return to their schools the day after Labor day. Last summer the examinations were given one week early to allow teachers to return home in time to their schools.

WAITING FORCE CRIPPLED

Dining room service at Craig Hall has been seriously crippled for over a week by sickness among the women who wait on tables. Mary Veder has been in the hospital for more than a week but will be on duty by Saturday. Grace Baldwin was ill last Thursday and Ann Nohl was forced to go off duty Thursday morning.

Coon Receives Reward for Military Service

Mr. Shirley J. Coon, head of the business administration department, is in receipt of a certificate from Washington, D. C., in recognition of his services during the recent world war. Mr. Coon served in the government's food department.

Working out of head offices in Cleveland, Ohio, and Washington, D. C., he traveled over the east and south inspecting local food administrations. It was also his duty to set price margins on such perishable articles as were not determined in Washington.

Mr. Coon was engaged in this work for a period of eight months.

BAIRD TO CAPTAIN CUBS IN AGGIE KITTEN BATTLE

University Frosh to Leave Sunday for Two-game Series With Farmer Yearlings.

The freshman basketball team, which leaves Sunday for a two-game series with the Aggie Kittens February 16 and 17, elected Harold Baird captain at a meeting Wednesday night. The election of Baird was unanimous. He has shown much class on the floor this year and would have been a strong contender for a varsity berth but for the freshman ruling.

The Freshman team is strong and has pushed the Varsity in all practices that have taken place between the two teams. The men who are showing class on the yearling quintet are Baird, Elliott, McGowan, Kirchner, Porter, Murphy, Westby and Barber. It is unfortunate that only seven men will be taken to Bozeman, as it has been a nip and tuck battle for places on the squad, said Coach Schreiber last night.

The team, as it has been practicing, consist of Baird and Elliott, guards, Porter and Murphy, forwards, and McGowan, center. There is a question as to whether Elliott and Murphy will be eligible to make the trip owing to delinquencies in studies last quarter. The loss of these two regulars will weaken the squad, but Coach Schreiber is still confident that the Grizzlies will return victorious.

L. W. Doctor Composes Music for Old Songs

L. W. Doctor, member of the Missoula corps of the Salvation Army and a member of the University band, has written music for "Up With Montana, Boys, Down With the Aggs," and for the University marching song, both as marches. The songs are now being practiced by the band, and according to Bill Cogswell, a member of the band, the music has proven very good.

USE HI JINX MONEY FOR FROSH JERSEYS

The proceeds from Hi Jinx which are approximately forty dollars, will go toward the money to purchase the freshman jerseys, according to Bill Kane. A meeting of the cast was held Thursday to decide what to do with the profits.

CHARTER DAY PLANS ARE BEST IN HISTORY

FUN PROMISED IN AFTER-NOON PROGRAM

Lieutenant Governor W. W. McDowell to Be Principal Speaker.

Plans for the largest Charter day program ever held are now completed, according to H. G. Merriam, chairman of convocation, and Pat Keely, manager of the afternoon program or the Student Athletic program.

The afternoon program, which will start at 2 o'clock will begin with the basketball game between the faculty and seniors.

Maurice Dietrich is captain of the faculty team and John Patterson is captain of the senior team. After this there will be a wrestling match between Dwight Carver and Earl Berry. They will contest for the heavyweight championship of Mt. Sentinel. The next thing on the program is a basketball game between the Varsity and the second team. Then there will be aesthetic dances given by the co-eds under the direction of Miss Lucille Leyda. After the dances there will be another wrestling match between Harold Garrett and Edward O'Hare for the welterweight championship of Mt. Sentinel. The program will probably close with an impromptu Charter day dance in the gymnasium.

"All students are expected to be present at the convocation and programs," said Pat Keely. "We will promise to rout the faculty in the basketball game. Things will be put on in quick succession with the band going all the time."

The morning convocation, as announced before, will be held from 10 to 12. The principal speaker will be Lieutenant-Governor W. W. McDowell, candidate for democratic nomination for governor. Acting President F. C. Scheuch will give some of his reminiscences of the early days of the University and Chancellor Elliott will also speak. Mac Gault, president of the senior class, will speak representing the students.

The convocation will open with music by the choral society. This will be the first time they have sung before the student body.

In the evening there will be a musical program given by the faculty of the school of music.

Charter day is the oldest tradition of the University, having been observed since 1895.

FLU SITUATION AT U STILL MUCH THE SAME

"All the influenza cases at the University are light, but the situation does not improve very fast. As soon as we discharge patients from the hospital others are brought in. There are sixteen at the campus hospital now but several of them will be ready to leave in a day or so. There are no fraternity houses quarantined now," was the statement of Dr. W. E. Schreiber yesterday.

Every precaution is being taken to avoid a serious epidemic.

VARSITY WINS OVER COLLEGIANS; JUDGES' DECISION UNANIMOUS

University, Represented by Witter and Shepard, Annexes Fourth Straight Victory from Aggies; Award Made on Merits of Argument.

Senior Caps and Gowns Ordered by Committee

When the seniors swing out this spring there will be 70 in the line, according to John F. Patterson, chairman of the cap and gown committee. The caps and gowns were ordered this week.

The class is pretty evenly divided this year. There are 36 women and 34 men. Last year there were 36 seniors in the graduating class showing an increase in this year's class of almost double.

EIGHTY HIGH SCHOOLS TO SEND MEN TO MEET

University Will Pay All Expenses of Three Men From Each School

At least 75 per cent of the 105 accredited high schools in Montana are expected to be represented in the interscholastic track meet, to be held here May 12 to 15, according to Dr. J. P. Rowe, chairman of the committee in charge of the meet.

This year there has been a change made in the rules. The University will pay the expenses of only one declaimer, one athlete and one debater or two athletes and a debater. This rule is made to help cover the deficit of $1500 from last year's meet.

George Varnell, a recognized authority on athletics, has been engaged as starter. D. D. Richards, '12, will be clerk. Richards is secretary of the chamber of commerce and has been an official at most of the track meets since his graduation from the University.

The events will be carried off in much the same manner as they have in former years. An added attraction will be the Varsity baseball games with the University of Idaho on the three days of the meet. May Fete will probably be repeated as has been the custom before.

Only Sentinel Dance Set for February 28

Here it is—the time, the place and from the latest reports from the registrar's office, 393 co-eds. All waiting for the Sentinel dance.

Sheridan's four-piece jazz orchestra will start number one on the program at 9 o'clock Saturday evening, February 28th. The gymnasium will be all set for the super-syncope and it will cost you just 75c to get inside.

This will be the only Sentinel dance this year. It is going to be a hum-dinger, so get your dates early for the best informal dance of the season.

Mrs. R. H. Harvey of Livingston visited her daughter Eleanor, at Craig hall Thursday.

The State University annexed its fourth straight victory in debate over the Montana State College when the University team was awarded a unanimous decision over the Aggie debaters Thursday night in Convocation hall.

George Shepard and George Witter represented the University on the negative side of the question for debate which was: "Resolved, That a treaty similar to the one proposed between France and the United States should be ratified by the United States Senate." The affirmative was upheld by Leon Sayers and Vergle Gilman, who represented the State College. Associate Justice J. A. Matthews of Helena, Lieutenant Governor W. W. McDowell of Butte, and Rev. Jesse Lacklan of Missoula acted as judges for the debate.

Stewart McHaffie, a graduate of the University and a former debater, presided as chairman. In an introductory speech he gave an account of former debate relations between the two institutions, saying that no forensic contests between the two schools had been held for five years. He thanked the judges for coming from other cities to officiate at the contest, saying such an action spoke well for their interest in institutions of higher learning in the state. He gave a summary of the importance of the question and then introduced the first speaker for the affirmative, Leon Sayers.

The basis of his argument was that it was necessary for the United States to make a military alliance with France, first: because France has reason to fear unprovoked aggression from Germany, and second: because France is threatened with Bolshevism. Therefor in order to preserve the peace of the world America should ally herself with France.

Shepard, the first speaker on the negative, stated that he and his college would prove that a military treaty with France should not be ratified by the United States Senate by the following points: first, such an alliance is not necessary; second, it would be dangerous to the United States, and third, it would tend to cause war instead of keeping the peace.

Gilman, the second affirmative speaker, also devoted his 12-minute constructive argument to an attempt to prove that a military pact with France was necessary. Witter, following him, concluded the argument on the points set forth by his colleague.

In the four-minute rebuttals, the negative clearly demonstrated their superiority over their opponents in strategy, address, logical argument, refutation and teamwork. There was little doubt in the minds of the spectators as to the outcome of the judge's decision.

A fair sized audience, which included a good many town people, heard the debate.

The Mathematics club had a meeting, Wednesday evening. Therna McGlaughlin and Beatrice Reiter gave papers.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1920.

LEND THEM YOUR EARS

The old tower clock came into its own again last, and for the first time this year, told the news of victory in the opening forensic clash on the University debate program. We won conclusively last night in a debate in which the judges based their decision on the merits of the argument and not on the merits of the question. We have added another unanimous win to the already long list of University victories in debate.

The only regrettable feature of the evening was the small attendance. Few realize the hours of work and exhaustive study which is necessary in the preparation of a debate. Few realize that a victory in debate is in every sense as much a victory as the winning of an athletic contest. Debate is a recognized form of intercollegiate activities, in which one school by the exercise of judgment, thinking powers and delivery on the part of the speakers, obtain supremacy over another school. Montana won last night because her speakers were the masters of the visiting speakers. The University won because our speakers had studied the question from every angle and were prepared to meet any and all attacks. But the speakers, although happy in the thought of victory, were no doubt disappointed in the student support. They are justified in believing that University students are not enthusiastic, or do not care, whether we win or lose, in debate. The University debate squad has a busy season to face. Let us make it easier for them by better and more appreciation of their efforts.

ON YOUR MARKS

The most opportune occasion to show your interest and love for the University is right now. Individual efforts at this time by every student on the campus is imperative and essential. Make your interest alive and active. Scatter the news of the two financial measures, so vital to the future of Montana state educational institutions, around the state, such that every voter will realize that the measures need his support. This is the least that we can do. Our task is not difficult. We have an excellent opportunity to give actual expression of our good will. It will be a happy thought in later life, to think that we were active participants in a campaign to bring Montana to its rightful place in educational prominence.

WELL DONE

No better disposition of the surplus funds realized in the recent Hi Jinx performance could be made than by making it a part of the money to be used in the purchase of freshman jerseys. The money will be well used. It has been given to a legitimate cause. The Hi Jinx cast had the proper spirit.

Jilted

She was a flustered and excited co-ed. All out of breath and with seemingly futile attempts to fill her lungs with clear fresh morning air, she rushed into the new Science building. "Where is the janitor? I want him and want him bad" she cried. A laboratory assistant advanced cautiously but with no likely testimony to proffer to clear up the mystery, he slid behind a big jar of creaturs all alcoholled up. A biology student ventured a possible solution to her troubles. "Why," said he, "I understand the janitor already has a bid to the co-ed formal." She sank and the blushing tinges on her face resembled the sun that was about to set at the end of an imperfect day.

CONVOCATION WILL BE IN CHARGE OF Y. W. C. A.

Girls in the native costumes of Japan, China, Korea, India and the Philippines will be the feature of the "fashion show" convocation next Thursday, which is in charge of the University Y. W. C. A.

All the costumes were given to the Y. W. C. A. workers in different countries. A Philippine princess gave the costume which will be worn to represent that country.

On Thursday afternoon the Y. W. C. A. will give an exhibit of Chinese and Philippine relics and handwork in the association room. Sandwiches will be on sale.

VARSITY Y. W. C. A. TO HOLD BANQUET SUNDAY

The annual membership banquet of the University Y. W. C. A. will be held at 12:30 Sunday in the cafeteria of the City Y. W. C. A. Miss Margaret Roberts, who has charge of the cafeteria, will manage the banquet, assisted by the social committee of the local association. It was considered that 12:30 would be the most convenient time for the banquet, as it would not interfere with other plans for the day.

NEW SUITS MIRROR THE DAY'S FASHIONS AT DONOHUE'S

For such a season as this, in which the suit will be more than usually popular for general wear, the arrival of the advanced modes this early in the season was exceptionally fortunate, because of its wealth of the best. The influence of the orient will be noticeable in the lavish use of colorful embroideries on many of the suits. Simplicity of line and trimming is equally good choice.

NEIL M'KAIN UNABLE TO START CONTEST

Gonzaga Has Lost Games in Tour of State to Aggies, Mines and Wesleyan.

The Fighting Grizzlies* will meet the fast Gonzaga five in the gymnasium Saturday night at 8:15. Although the Gonzaga quintet has suffered defeat at the hands of every team they have encountered in the state, the contest will be fast for the Turks have played good basketball and have been defeated by small scores. The Grizzlies will start the game without the services of McKain at center. McKain will be out of the game for a week, owing to an injury to his heel.

Coach Bierman has the Bruins out for practice every night and predicts a victory for the Varsity Saturday night. Captain Larkin is still troubled with a sore arm, but Physical Director Schreiber says he will be able to enter the game Saturday night. Ahern and Olsen are still suffering from colds, but will be on the floor when referee Musselman blows his whistle to start the contest.

Gonzaga so far has played Montana Wesleyan, Aggies and the School of Mines, and has suffered defeat in each encounter. All the games were close and the Grizzlies are promised a fast game when the Turks meet the Bruins.

The lineup for the game in all probability will be:

Grizzlies	Gonzaga
Larkin	Malloy
Right Forward
Olsen	Gehers
Left Forward
Ahern	Murry

Sullivan	Crowley

PLAN PRIVATE CLASSES FOR EMBRYO ARTISTS

Instructions in Oil Paintings to Be Given Members of Art Fraternity.

Private classes in oil painting will be offered by Delta Phi Delta to members of that fraternity who are interested in advanced work, starting Saturday afternoon, February 14th, and continuing every Saturday thereafter. Sessions will last three hours and will be strictly private, student admittance being given to Delta Phi Delta members only. Vera Burkhart will act as model.

"Delta Phi Delta offers to the art student opportunities similar to those offered in art schools of the east—of Chicago and Boston. I heartily approve of the plan," said Miss Josephine Hansen, supervisor of art of the Missoula public schools. Miss Hansen has been invited and will attend the classes. Mrs. Charlotte C. Kinney, art supervisor of the Missoula county high school, has also been asked to work with the students.

"This is an opportunity to be found nowhere in the west," said Professor F. D. Schwalm of the art department. "We hope to continue this work during the summer, taking our model outdoors with us."

Ignorant Essays

The Sophomore Life of Clarice
Chapter XI.

Clarice saw the Grizzlies lose to the Farmers. It pained him. It caused him to see red. He was blue but the sight of the Bruins brought joy to his heart. It was the old fight that made him glad he was a student at Montana's greatest institution. But one thing that made him wonder if Montana students were losing the old spirit was the attitude of several Greek clans. One of the things that hurt him was the fact that one house needed over a dozen brothers to help the pretty dish washer after the evening meal. Of course, this was more important than an Aggie game. Then another clan had a theater box party while several of the Greek sisters attended a dance up one of Missoula's numerous valleys. "Things sure are come to a fine head when a Farmer contest will not bring out the students," mused Clarice. "Oh, School Spirit, where have you gone?"

The Aggies now are peeved because we are not satisfied with the names "Grizzlies" and "Bruins," but also call ourselves "Montana." We are taking in too much territory, they say. Well, we do take in a lot of territory and if we did not call ourselves Montana none of the schools in the northwest would know that there were state schools in the Treasure state.

Cheer up, Aggies, don't you cry. You will be dry farmers, by and by.

Annabelle—"Why haven't you any good pieces for your phonograph?"

Clarice (the frat man)—"Aw, these darned athletes around here keep breaking all the records.

Something Pathetic.

Say, just because a girl has a ticket to a co-ed prom is no reason for her to wear her heart on her sleeve.

Hasher at the dorm, the dear old dorm—"Say, it's some spectacle when I bring in the glasses." We'll say she nose glasses anyway.

Ex-cowboy in the gym class—"Say, did you see anything of a jersey around here with my brand on it?"

We forgot to explain that the reason that the hasher dropped the bread plate was that she had a bun on.

Robinson Crusoe may have layed off most of the time, but he always worked Friday.

We meant to run a joke this time about the co-ed's hats, but we were afraid it would be over their heads.

Playing a slow game, Town won from Out of Town by a score of 36 to 26, Wednesday. Both Delta Gamma and Cottage forfeited the remainder of their games because of illness of girls on the teams.

The first half of the Town vs. Out of Town game ended with a tie. In the second half Town played a somewhat faster game and ran up a lead of five baskets. Frances Rock made most of the loser's baskets while Lillian Christensen was responsible for the greater part of Town's points.

Today Kappa will play Town and Out of Town and Delta Sigma Chi will meet. Wednesday, February 18, the winner of the Kappa vs. Town team will play Theta to decide the championship of the tournament. The same day Craig Hall will play the loser of Friday's game for third place.

Schreiber States He May Send Two Relay Teams to Meet Held by U. of W.

Track Schedule.
May 8	Interclass Meet
May 15	Idaho-Montana at Moscow
May 22	Aggies at Missoula
May 29	N. W. Conf. at Pullman

With more promising material on hand than ever before, Montana's outlook for track this year is exceptionally good. Many old letter men are again enrolled us, and among the new students are a large number of inter-scholastic stars who will be eligible. It is also probable, according to Physical Director Schreiber that Montana will be represented in the relay carnival to be held by the University of Washington at Seattle some time in April.

The sprints loom up large with Duffy, Spogen, Romney, O'Hare, Sterling and Adams. Sterling and Adams are both point-winners in conference meets. It is possible that a relay team will be picked from the above men.

Harry Adams won the individual championship cup at Camp McArthur, Texas, in a meet in which over 35,000 men were represented. He was also captain of the champion relay team at the cantonment.

Prospects for the hurdles are, Sterling, Howard, Hodson, and Carver, while in the middle distances Sullivan, Olsen, Baker, Hawk, Toulouse and Farmer. Dorsey, McKoin, Harpole and Joy will be out for the distances and Shafer, McGowan, Carver and Dorsey will have the weights. Others are: pole vault, Howard, Baker and White; high jump, Adams, Hodson, Howard and White; broad jump, Hodson and Spogen.

Physical Director Schreiber stated that there would probably be two relay teams for the Seattle event, one for a mile, and the other for a half-mile race.

The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. of the University, and was attended by about 21 of the 808 students.

Two financial measures, of vital interest to the future of the University and other state educational institutions, will be submitted to Montana voters at the next election in November. Briefly, the first measure calls for an annual state tax of one and one-half mills to be levied during the next ten years for the support of the institutions of the University of Montana. The second measure provides a state bond issue of $5,000,000 for the construction and equipment of more buildings for the various educational institutions in the state.

Who is the author of the fictitious invitations to the co-ed formal? That is the question that is on everyone's lips today.

Girls and fellows alike were made the butt of a joke by the author of the invitations. Written bids were sent to a few of the well known men about the campus. Some of them who were not already dated began to wear a smile reaching from one exposed flapper to another, and there could be only one reason—at last, they had received bids to the co-ed formal.

Girls who had settled the matter of their co-ed dates weeks, even months ago, were suddenly recipient of several telephone calls and were forced to listen to acceptances and resignations with thanks. Most of the ill-fated co-eds received one or two telephone messages of each kind.

It was only after several of these telephone messages had been delivered that the plot of the practical joker was discovered and there is more than one co-ed who is crying for his head.

PRESS CLUB BANQUET TO BE FEBRUARY 21

Entertainment to Be Furnished by Pledges of Sigma Delta Chi.

The annual press club banquet will be held February 21. The place has not been determined.

Eck Mosby, manager of the banquet, say that it is to be one of the peppiest, most typical Montana affairs held this year. The details of the entertainment are secret but the initiates of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity, under the direction of W. E. Christenson, promises some real stunts. Mr. Christenson is one of the neophytes. The Incinerator, the miniature paper that was a feature at last year's banquet, will probably be published again this year.

LIBRARY BOOKS MUCH USED

Requests From All Over State
Come to Miss Buckhouse.

Many demands for books are being received from people outside the campus, according to Miss Gertrude Buckhouse, University librarian.

Several requests for books have been received from schools all over the state where debates are being held upon the questions of municipal ownership and the League of Nations.

Dr. C. E. Vidal, physician in charge of the Montana Tuberculosis sanitarium, has put in an application for a number of volumes to be used by the inmates. He asks for works upon horticulture, agriculture, bee culture and poultry. These books will be taken from the state's apportionment of books secured in the nation's war drives, which are deposited at the library. The volumes were raised to send to the soldiers overseas, but when the armistice was signed they were distributed proportionately among the states.

Dr. Vidal has a number of ex-service men in the sanitarium and wants to obtain all available reading matter for them.

REQUEST

Mrs. F. A. LeClaire, University nurse, has requested that no more flowers or plants be sent to the University hospital.

MILLIONAIRE SCRIBES WILL MAKE FIRST BOW NEXT FRIDAY MORNING

Next Friday, the responsibility of editing The Kaimin falls on the shoulders of the neophytes of Sigma Delta Chi, the national journalism fraternity. Following the usual practice of the fraternity, the pledges make their initial campus bow as editors, and will pattern the paper after some well-known state or national newspaper. The all powerful potentates of the fraternity have decreed that the pledges make their journalistic attempts as near like the Great Falls Leader, as possible. Merrill Borland has been named as editor of the Sigma Delta Chi edition and he will appoint the other staff members and designate their duties.

In order that this addition of The Kaimin be accompanied by something of a ceremonial nature, it has also been decided that the neophytes should appear Friday morning in clawhammer apparel. They will arrive Friday morning in individual taxis in time to be present at the 8:20 classes. Watch for them. Cornelius Vanderbilt, the millionaire reporter, will have nothing on the Sigma Delta Chi pledges, when it comes to dress and this quintette of reporters will corner and subjugate every person on the campus who has any news suitable for the edition.

Y. W. C. A. SEABECK MEET OFFERS BIG ATTRACTION

Montana delegates will be given the first opportunity to serve as song leader and accompanist at the student conference of the northwest field of the Y. W. C. A., to be held in Seabeck, Wash., in August, according to word received by the University Y. W. C. A. from field headquarters in Seattle. The living expenses of song leader and accompanist while on the conference grounds will be paid by the national association. The University organization hopes to be able to raise enough money to pay traveling expenses for delegates to fill the positions suggested.

ART EXHIBIT WILL BE HELD ON CHARTER DAY

Delta Phi Delta Will Display
Work of Art Students in Laboratory.

An art exhibit will be conducted Charter day by Delta Phi Delta in the art lab, according to the plans of a committee headed by Florence Faust. A similar display was held last year in connection with the Charter day exercises and the studio was crowded with interested visitors. Past and present work of those in the department will be shown.

Delta Phi Delta also plans a continual exhibit of a few pieces each week of work now being done by art students. It is hoped in this way to promote speed in production and interest in the work and to increase the number of pieces done.

A BEGINNING

"Anyhow," said the optimist, "we have made the Fourth of July safe and sane."

"Yes," replied the pessimist, "but there are three hundred and sixty-four other days in the year still to be looked after."—Washington Star.
