SCHREIBER PLANS COACHING COURSE

Tutelage in Various Branches of Athletics to Be Offered in Summer Session.

FOR HIGH SCHOOL MENTORS

First Work of This Nature to Be Offered in Northwest; Bierman to Assist.

The first summer school for athletic coaches to be held in the northwest will be established by Professor W. E. Schreiber of the physical education department this year. Mr. Schreiber stated that the courses will be primarily for high school coaches and teachers, but it is also open to any person who can fulfill the qualifications for entrance to the regular summer school session of the University. The course will cover a period of six weeks, starting with the opening of the 1920 summer school session.

The work of the first coaching course in the history of the University is planned almost entirely from the standpoint of high school athletics and will consist of both theory and practice in the following courses: football, baseball basketball and track athletics. A separate course in conditioning and training of athletics will be given in connection with the above work. Mr. Bierman, coach of football, basketball and track, will assist Physical Director Schreiber in the summer school for athletic coaches.

Mr. Schreiber, director of the department of physical education, has had 17 years of experience as an athlete.

F. W. BREWER OF M. S. C. HERE ON BOND ISSUE

Publicity Manager States People of State Are Showing Favor Toward Project.

Professor F. W. Brewer of Bozeman is in Missoula working in the interest of the proposed $5,000,000 bond issue to finance improvements for the various educational institutions of the greater University of Montana. The issue is receiving favorable attention all over the state, according to Mr. Brewer, who is the head of the English department at the State college and in charge of the publicity campaign for the bond issue.

Professor Brewer is here conferring with the officials of the University to formulate plans for the organization of the state-wide campaign for the $5,000,000 bond issue for buildings at the state educational institutions. A tax of a mill and a half to support the four units of the University of Montana will also be championed.

For many years Professor Brewer has been connected with the State College at Bozeman. During the war he offered his services to the Y. M. C. A. and was stationed at Camp Lewis with the 91st division. Later he was sent to France, where he served till the war was over.

Professor Brewer's daughter, Gertrude, is a freshman in the school of journalism and a reporter on The Kaimin.

Press Club Banquet Next Saturday Night

Plans are nearly complete for the annual press club banquet, which will be held Saturday night. This will be the second gridiron dinner given by the University press club.

The pledges of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism society, and some of the journalism freshmen will put on the stunts under the direction of Prof. W. E. Christenson. The Incinerator, a miniature newspaper of campus scandal, will be one of the features of the dinner. Seymour Gorsline and Edward Rosendorf will edit the sheet.

The place for holding the banquet has not yet been decided.

MEN'S DORM TO CLOSE ACCORDING TO DIRECTOR

Spaulding Announces That Simpkins Hall Will Suspend March 27.

Simpkin's hall dormitory will suspend operations on March 27, according to an announcement made yesterday by Prof. T. C. Spaulding, faculty director of the dormitory. This announcement was made following a conference with Chancellor E. C. Elliott. Director Spaulding recommended the closing of the men's dormitory, in view of the fact that maintenance costs were increasing too rapidly and because of the decreased attendance which is normally to be expected during the spring quarter. According to present plans, the dormitory will close one week after the completion of the winter quarter, to prevent any inconveniences to the short course rangers, whose schooling ends at that time. In all probability Simpkin's Hall will be reopened during the first six weeks session of the summer quarter, as it is expected that the summer enrollment will reach a record mark. The dormitory will open again at the beginning of the 1920 term.

FORESTERS' ANNUAL HOP RIVALS FORMER YEARS

The forest school lived up to its reputation of putting on the liveliest annual hop held in the University, when it staged the big foresters' ball Monday night.

The dance was held in the University gymnasium, which was artistically decorated in evergreens for the occasion. The building was packed with roughly clad foresters, hoboes, clowns and cowboys. The co-eds were also attired in various kinds of outdoor apparel.

Music was furnished by Sheridan's five piece orchestra. A real forester's dinner was served in Simpkin's hall at 10:30. Contrary to previous practice all shooting irons were collected at the door in order to prevent accidents from blank shells.

The patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Polleys, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rutledge, professors and mesdames R. R. Fenska, C. E. Farmer, H. H. Lansing, N. S. Lennes, W. E. Schreiber, Dorr Skeels and T. C. Spaulding.

GONZAGA DEFEATED BY GRIZZLY SQUAD

TURKS LOSE LISTLESS CONTEST 30 TO 10

McKain Unable to Start Game Because of Injury to Foot; Joy and Straw Play.

Grizzlies 30, Gonzaga 10. This was the result of the Gonzaga-Bruin basketball game, played Saturday night in the gymnasium. It was the slowest and most uninteresting game put up by the Grizzly squad this season. The Varsity lacked pep and at no stage of the contest was the game taken seriously by either team.

The first score of the contest was made by Captain Larkin, when he found the basket from the sidelines. The playing was slow and with Gonzaga tired from a week's invasion of the state, the Grizzlies were able to score at will. Olsen and Ahern, who were playing center in place of McKain were the bright stars. Five minutes before the end of the first half Joy was substituted for Larkin and scored from under the basket before the close of the half. Lee substituted for Gehres, who showed up well for Gonzaga while in the game. The half ended 21 to 5 in favor of the Varsity.

The second half was the weakest exhibition of basketball seen on the Varsity court for many moons. Both teams played as if they wanted the game over. Straw replaced Ahern and Malloy took Corkery's place for Gonzaga a few minutes after the second half began. Montana scored nine points in this half, most of which were made by Olsen. Malloy found the basket for the Turks who managed to make five points in this half.

The box score follows:
Montana 30 Gonzaga 10
Larkin Gehres
Left Forward
Olsen Corkery
Right Forward
Ahern Murry
Center
Walterskirchen Crowley
Left Guard
Sullivan Kearney
Right Guard
Substitutions — Montana, Joy for Larkin, Straw for Ahern; Gonzaga, Lee for Gehres, Malloy for Corkery, Conway for Lee.

Field throws—Larkin, 3; Olsen, 4; Ahern, 3; Walterskirchen, 2; Sullivan, 1; Joy, 1. Gonzaga, Gehres, 2; Crowley, 1; Malloy, 1.

Foul throws—Montana, Olense, 2; Gonzaga, Malloy, 2.

Officials — Referee, Duncan; umpire, Varner; timekeeper, Henry Turner.

Streit, Now at Oxford, Sees Former U Student

Clarence Streit, winner of the 1919 Rhodes scholarship, writes that while at Oxford he saw Bruce Hopper, 1915 Montana graduate. Hopper is attending Exeter at Oxford.

Hopper was the winner of the Joyce memorial essay contest in 1913 and the winner of the 1914 Buckley oratorical contest. During the war, Hopper served as a lieutenant in the aviation branch of the army, winning considerable distinction in overseas duty.

Grizzly Yearlings Vanquish Farmer Infants 16 to 12

Fighting all the way the Grizzly Cubs vanquished the Aggie Frosh in the first of the two-game series 16 to 12. The contest was rough, close guarding by both sides holding down the score. The Cubs will leave the Farmer town tonight after the game, arriving home early tomorrow morning.

The Grizzly yearlings arrived in Bozeman about six hours before the game, stiff and tired from the long train ride. The afternoon was spent trying to relieve the effects of the journey. Although not in the best shape physically, the fighting spirit of the young Bruins brought victory.

Assistant Professor H. Lansing of the Forestry school has charge of the Cubs and wired that with a good night's rest the yearlings will again return victorious tonight.

"Let's Go, Montana" is the word sent to the Grizzly Cubs by University students.

FLU SITUATION BETTER ON UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

Fifteen Light Cases in U Hospital to Be Out by Last of Week.

The flu situation on the campus is steadily improving with only 15 light cases in the University hospital. By the end of the week all patients will be out of the hospital unless some more new ones are brought in.

Following is a list of the people that are now there: Lucy Haley, assistant librarian; Ruth Charles, Dorothy Phelps, Ann Nohl, Helen Rudd, Helen Combo, Phyllis Bower and Ruth Hamilton. Among the men are Harry Jardin, Daniel McGeehan, Charles McDonald, Bernard Hendricks, John Reese and Humphrey Owen, assistant professor in the biology department.

CALIFORNIA BALL TEAM MAY PLAY BRUIN NINE

The latest baseball prospect is one received through unofficial source that the University of California is trying to arrange a game with Montana to take place sometime in May. The University of California is to make a trip east to play Harvard and evidently is going to fill in the return trip with games with different college teams. The information comes from Massey McCullough of Missoula, to whom a letter was sent by the management of the native son aggregation.

When asked if Montana would consider this game, Coach Schreiber was doubtful of the advisability of taking on the orange men. The Varsity has a long baseball schedule planned for this spring. The financial consideration is another obstacle. There is a possibility that the matter can be arranged and if so, Montana will have the opportunity to see the Bruins in action against one of the best teams of the coast.

U CELEBRATES 25TH BIRTHDAY

Lieut. Governor McDowell Delivers Principal Address at Morning Convocation.

SPORTS IN AFTERNOON

School of Music Offers Musical Program Tonight in University Hall.

A holiday has been declared for today in honor of the signing of the University charter in 1895. No classes met after 10:10 today. A continuous program, starting with a convocation and ending with a concert by the faculty of the University school of music was arranged by the committee for the entertainment of the students, faculty and people of Missoula.

Lieutenant Governor W. W. McDowell was the principal speaker of the convocation. His subject was "Education and Ideals of 1920." Other speakers were Chancellor E. C. Elliott, Professor M. J. Elrod, in place of Acting President F. C. Scheuch, D. D. Richards, '12, and Mac Gault, '20.

The choral society opened the convocation with two songs, "Deep River" and "Dig My Grave." This is the first time they have appeared before the student body. They were under the direction of Dean DeLoss Smith.

The afternoon program is under the direction of Pat Keeley. A committee consisting of Tom Busha, Professor E. J. Freeman, and Mary Farrell prepared the program.

The first event of the afternoon is the basketball game between the faculty and the Varsity.

GERMAN REINSTATEMENT AWAITS COUNCIL EDICT

Elliott Says Action of Defense Council Necessary to Resume Suspended Courses.

German courses will not be reinstated in the University until the State Council of Defense remands its order, which states that the study of German shall be discontinued in all educational institutions in the state until the council issues further instructions, according to Chancellor E. C. Elliott.

The State Council of Defense may be dissolved by the governor of the state, but up to the present time he has not dissolved it, and for that reason arrangements cannot be made in the University for teaching German until some word is received from the council or the governor.

The Kaimin's Exchange Has Allegheny Paper

The latest addition to The Kaimin's exchange list is the Campus, the official organ of Allegheny College at Meadville, Pa. The Campus has been published since 1887, and sought The Kaimin as a desirable addition to its western papers. The paper makes a more extended journey than any other now received at The Kaimin office.

CHARTER DAY

Today marks another milestone in the growth of our University. A quarter of a century has passed, since by legislative act, Montana took the responsibility of fostering and developing a state university. And like the life of a man or a woman, or anything that grows, our State University has taken advantage of her twenty-five years of existence, and has developed to creditable proportions. The University has pushed steadily ahead, often in the face of difficulties, but persevering always until the present position of recognition was realized.

Charter day, this year, has a double significance to most of us. We have always revered the day as the greatest occasion of the year. Loyalty to the University has been the watchword, and at this time, that loyalty assumes vitality and becomes charged with greater force and activity, when we realize that our University is about to enter a new era, which we hope, will be the golden period of her existence. Loyalty to your University. We will do well if we erect monuments to our loyalty, by swinging in solidly behind the campaign for a better University. Our loyalty must be dynamic. The two financial measures now pending offer an excellent opportunity to use the spirit of loyalty and it is up to every student meet the test. Our enterprise will meet with success. It must, and the outward expressions of support by all students will determine the degree of success.

AN ADDITION TO THE KNITTING LEAGUE

Montana has many splendid traditions which are distinctive of Montana. But Montana has traditions also which are worth while because they are not peculiar to Montana alone. They draw their greatest worth from the fact that they are the traditions of the American universities. They are valuable only if Montana follows closely to the established form.

Of the first kind of traditions are the Singing on the Steps, Aber day and the like. Of the second kind, membership on a varsity team is a good example. We may make any changes we like in the tradition of Singing On the Steps. Such changes might even improve the custom. But if, in the award of letters on varsity teams, we depart far from the customs of American universities, we shall cheapen the letter. Suppose, for instance, we awarded letters in football to co-eds who show good spirit in their rooting on the side lines.

Of the second kind, too, would be the senior honor society, should one be formed. The name "senior honor society" means something to every college man. It is that fact more than any other which would make the bid of such a society, a true award. It is that fact which would make it an "honor."

In spite of the fact that for some time, we have been interested in the question of senior honor societies and have investigated cases in many colleges and universities, we have never yet heard of a senior honor society which elects both men and women. Personally, we believe that this is right.

But right or wrong, is beside the question. The fact remains that this is the case. The question which the Student Council must decide is whether Montana will have a senior honor society which elects only men, or whether Montana will have some hybrid organization which shall bid men and women. The first would mean something to every college man the member meets, throughout life. The second would mean absolutely nothing off the confines of the campus.

We have no objection to the women of the University forming an honor society if they are dissatisfied with Penetralia, their present one. But we do object to the women's representatives on the Student Council delaying the work for the senior honor society.

But the women are not entirely to blame in this matter. They are but two of the Student Council. And while we admire the gallantry of the gentlemen on the Council we are forced to question the statesmanship which delays this important work upon mere feminine whims.

We believe that a senior honor society will do much for Montana. It will accomplish most, if it is inaugurated early enough this year to be to some degree established before the end of the year. If we are to have some curious cross between a senior society and a ladies' sewing circle, the dilly-dally methods of the Council are justified.

—S. E. G.

Time moves rapidly. The petitions regarding the two financial measures must be in the hands of the secretary of state by April. These petitions need 16,000 signatures. Get busy and see them signed.

Student Forum

350 PER CENT DEFICIENT

The basketball shooters from Gonzaga came last Friday and were overwhelmingly trounced by the superiority of our fighting, yet crippled Grizzlies. But to the citizens of Missoula and the sick students who were unable to attend the game, the result might just as well have been a defeat in so far as the silence of the evening remained unbroken by the absence of the beautiful chimes which upon all varsity victories fill the air with tones of sweetness, and our hearts with unrelenting pride. A sacred tradition has been broken, an indelible mark or imprint on the freshman's scroll of fame has tarnished the tissues of the illuminous class of '23. A good beginning does not mean a good ending. The reputation of a class is only established after they have performed promptly, patriotically, and faithfully the sacred traditions with which they are entrusted. From the beginning of the school year until its close, the honor and dignity of the freshman class is at stake—it is balanced on one side by the sacred traditions which the University entrusts with them, and on the other side by the waste of exertion in PEP which causes the downward pressure. Weigh yourself! What have you done this year to uphold the dignity of your class, and the honor and love of your University? Keep the jarring results in the dark. Bow your green caps with your 350 deficient brothers—the balance is not in your favor. What will the future unfold to this deplorable condition? Will the frosh wake up—or will they die? We are wondering what they are thinking of just now? M. S.

Executive Committee Meets Wednesday Night

Joe Townsend, president of the A. S. U. M., has called a meeting of the executive committee for Wednesday evening. The committee will discuss the Sentinel and make further preparations for A. S. U. M. night. In accordance with the recent faculty order, a program of A. S. U. M. night must be presented for censorship. President Townsend hopes to be able to publish a detailed account of these meetings in the future, since the student body should be accurately informed of the proceedings of the executive committee.

MEMBERS OF C. S. A.

On Tuesday, February 17, in room 17 of the library building, Rev. John J. Ford, S. J., a professor at Mt. St. Michael's seminary, Spokane, will speak at the University under the auspices of the Catholic Students' association. His theme will be "Materialism vs. Immortality."

Since this is the first of the series of lenten lectures to be given under the auspices of the students' association, it is hoped that the students will show their co-operation by being present. The lecture will begin promptly at 7 o'clock and close at 7:45, and will, therefore, not interfere with the concert. The public is cordially invited.

Convocation in Charge of Y. W. C. A. Workers

Convocation this week will be in charge of the Y. W. C. A. girls in the native costumes of the countries in which the Y. W. works. They will present folk dances. Miss Lucille Leyda has charge of the demonstration.

Thursday afternoon an exhibition of basketry, relics and handwork will be shown in the Y. W. C. A. hut. At this time sandwiches will be sold to raise proceeds to go toward the upkeep of the association in Japan.

FUSON ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

Reynold Fuson, a senior in the University, is at St. Patrick's hospital with a slight attack of pneumonia. Reports from the hospital state that he is improving rapidly.

NO LIBERTY BELL HERE

It was reported on the campus this week that the bell in the University hall tower was cracked, but the rumor was discovered false. Richard Kessler, engineer, and a Kaimin reporter examined the bell Monday afternoon and found it to be intact.

MANY STUDENTS FAILED TO HAVE PICTURES TAKEN

Year Book Will Not Contain Pictures of Many Who Lingered Too Long.

Only about 500 of the 800 students in the University have had their pictures taken for the Sentinel, according to the records of the Showell studio. The time allotted ended Monday.

This means that the 1920 Sentinel will be minus 300 pictures of University students. The Sentinel staff had hoped to have every student's picture between the Sentinel covers. According to Eck Mosby, manager of the Sentinel, no more time can be extended. Mr. Showell, the photographer, will be too busy finishing pictures which have been taken to be interrupted by late comers.

"If the students haven't the pep to go down and have their pictures taken they can't expect Mr. Showell to extend the time any longer," said Mosby.

NEW SUITS MIRROR THE DAY'S FASHIONS AT DONOHUE'S

For such a season as this, in which the suit will be more than usually popular for general wear, the arrival of the advanced modes this early in the season was exceptionally fortunate, because of its wealth of the best. The influence of the orient will be noticeable in the lavish use of colorful embroideries on many of the suits. Simplicity of line and trimming is equally good choice.

GRIZZLY HOOPSTERS READY FOR FARMERS

Team Conditioning for Two-game Series With Aggies in Bozeman Next Week.

The basketball team rested Monday to allow the Foresters the use of the gym, which they were decorating for their annual hop. The rest of the week, however, will be spent in hard preparation for the four-game trip which the team will start on February 25. The Varsity hoopsters are to play the Mines on the 25th, the Aggies on the 26th and 27th, and will finish the tour with Wesleyan on the 28th at Helena.

The basketball season ends with the Idaho games here March 4 and 5. These last two games were put forward a day in order to convenience the Gem Staters, who are making a long trip to include the Mines and the Utah Aggies.

The men are rapidly recovering from their mid-season illnesses and will be in good shape to do battle when they start basket-filling with the Mines and Aggies. Gussie Larkin's arm, though still sore, is rounding into shape. McKain, who was kept out of the Gonzaga game because of a badly infected foot, will soon be able to resume his position at center. Jeff Olsen's hand, though sore will not prevent him from tossing the ball when the Varsity stacks up against their opponents. It is fully expected that with all the men in top shape, the Aggies can be beaten.

MISSOULA CREDIT MAN LECTURES ACCOUNTANTS

Commercial Club to Hold First Annual Dance Next Friday Night.

The Commercial club will hold its first annual dance next Friday night. The place has not been definitely decided but probably the Elks' hall will be obtained for the occasion. Every member of the club is invited to come and to bring a friend.

The executive committee of the Commercial club is working on a plan whereby students interested in certain phases of business organization will be allowed to inspect minutely the systems employed in the largest offices in the city. The business men in Missoula are showing considerable interest in this plan and promise to furnish all the aid they can in this line.

J. H. Inch, head of the credit department of the Missoula Mercantile Co., spoke to the class in credits and collections on Tuesday morning. Mr. Inch gave the class the advantages of his many years' experience in the credit field. He also exhibited forms and blanks in use in this department at the M. M. Co.

Mr. Inch spoke under the auspices of the Commercial club.

MONTANA GRADUATE GOES TO ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

A. Y. Finkelnburg, who received his B. A. in 1917, passed through Missoula Friday. Mr. Finkelnburg was on his way to the University of Illinois, where he will spend part of his time as student assistant and the remainder of the time studying to receive his M. A. degree. After his graduation in 1917 Mr. Finkelnburg was over seas for about two years.

There was a sufficient number of items at the Co-ed formal to fill this column. But what's in a name?

We will get the art classes to illustrate what we mean. It's beyond us.

Montana defeated Gonzaga for the second time this season. Although the Turks came second, they were in the game all the time. Geheres did excellent work for the visitors, while Larkin and Olsen played good ball for the Grizzlies.

Ronnie Ahern played the pivot position of Neil McKain, who has withdrawn from school. McKain was signed up with the Pittsburg Pirates last summer and expects to be called for spring training soon.

The foresters held their "lumber-jack ball" last night and the days of '49 were as quiet as a bootleggers' meeting in comparison. So far as we have been able to find out there were no deaths.

Rumors Wanted—Aggies.

Bernie Bierman, coach of the Grizzlies, has handed in his resignation. Gossip says he intends coaching up on a homestead somewhere in Minnesota.—The Weekly Exponent, Bozeman.

There must have been a meeting of the old women's athletic club, composed entirely of Aggie football players, who heard that Bernie was going to resign. Then talk came up about trying to get him to come down to the farmer town. It's close resemblance to a homestead caused some of the old women to refer to it as such.

Wouldn't a man be getting away big if he went to every formal his dress suit attended?—U. of W. Daily.

He'd be getting away fast in some cases. Say, for instance, his coat went to one and his trousers to another.

Basketball is 28 years old this season. Quite a game for one so young.

The Cubs have gone over to Bozeman to play the Aggie frosh.

From that we would take it that they have recovered from the football game.

This Charter day means more than the birthday of the University. In the face of the bond issue the feeling that there is to be a greater University is present with the knowledge that Montana lived 25 successful years.

"Some column," said the sightseer, as he gazed on the Washington monument.

MISS CORBIN STILL ILL

Miss Frances Corbin, professor in the English department, has been seriously ill with influenza for the past three weeks. The last report is that she is much better but is still confined to her apartments. Miss Corbin will not meet her classes for some time. Arrangements for handling her classes will be made by the Craig hall department.

Kappas Defeated By Town Quintet in Fast Contest

	W.	L.	Pct.
Kappa Alpha Theta.....	7	1	875
Town	7	1	875
Craig Hall	6	2	750
Kappa Kappa Gamma..	6	2	750
Alpha Phi	3	5	375
Delta Sigma Chi	3	5	375
Out of Town	3	5	375
Delta Gamma	1	7	125
Cottage	0	8	000

Losing to Town by a score of 48 to 42, in a fast game Friday, Kappa was eliminated as a possible winner of the co-ed basketball tournament. Theta and Town are tied for first place, while Kappa and Craig Hall are tied for second.

The same afternoon Delta Sigma Chi lost to Out of Town by a score of 34 to 29.

The first half of the Kappa vs. Town game ended a tie. At the beginning of the second half Alma Burkhart, playing a splendid game for Town, made four baskets, giving Town a good lead. The Kappas rallied and the basket shooting of Helen Newman brought up their score.

Alma Burkhart and Helen Newman were the stars of the game. The latter made 32 of the Kappas 42 points, besides playing the floor well. Ann Wilson played a good game as guard. The strong point of the Town team was their teamwork. Close guarding on the part of Lois Showell was a feature of the game.

Friday Theta will play Town to decide first place and Kappa and Craig hall will play for second. Both Theta and Town have lost one game. Earlier in the tournament Town won from Theta by three baskets, but lost to Craig Hall in a close game, while Theta defeated Craig hall.

Lineups for the games were as follows: Town: F. Faust, center; L. Christensen, A. Burkhart, forwards; S. Andresen and L. Showell, guards.

Kappa: E. Whiteside, center; O. Dobson, H. Newman, forwards; A. Wilson and E. Bates, guards.

Out of Town: F. Rock, center; B. Pearsall, E. Sterling, forwards; M. Spellman and H. Gleason, guards.

Delta Sigma Chi: O. Gudmundsen, center; G. Gudmundsen, H. Bensen, forwards; E. Thompson and I. Hoem, guards.

ARTISTS HOLD CLASS SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Art Fraternity Holds First Meeting to Begin Oil Painting Work.

The first Saturday afternoon painting class for Delta Phi Delta members under the supervision of Professor F. D. Schwalm, has accomplished its purpose. Six were present last Saturday, most of whom were undertaking their first work in oil. Vera Burkhart posed during the three-hour session. Miss Josephine Hansen, art supervisor of the Missoula schools, was one of the workers.

Materials for these classes valued at several hundred dollars, have just arrived from Chicago and work will be continuous from now on.

Kappa Alpha Theta entertained Miss M. G. Buickhouse, Miss Ruby Jacobson, Miss Elise Dexter and Miss E. Robinson at dinner Wednesday evening.

W. JOHNSON NOMINATED SOLICITOR BY WILSON

Wayne Johnson of New York, a former University of Montana student, has been nominated by President Wilson as solicitor of internal revenue.

Mr. Johnson was very prominent in student and political circles during his stay in the University. He was the leading factor in the organization of the University of Montana Woodrow Wilson club in 1912 and a leader in the campaign that fall.

After leaving Montana he held a confidential position under President Wilson in Washington.

During the war Johnson served as a captain of artillery in France and later as liaison officer at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

FOUR STUDENTS ENTER ABER ORATORY CONTEST

May Not Be Held Unless More Enter Soon, Says Merriam.

Dr. H. G. Merriam, head of the English department and chairman of the committee in charge of the Aber memorial oratorical contest, announced Monday that only four students up to date had signified their intention of entering the contest.

The plans were that unless there were at least four good orations the contest would not be held. Those wishing to enter the contest may still do so by seeing some member of the committee, which consists of Mr. Merriam, chairman, Dean A. L. Stone of the school of journalism and Acting President F. C. Scheuch. The date for the contest is March 19.

William Feure, a student at Creighton university, is in Missoula visiting Kenneth Murphy, '23.

RENTED DRESS SUITS DECORATE CO-ED HOP FRIDAY AT THE ELITE

The city's "Soup and Fish" were mobilized for the fifth annual co-ed ball last Friday night and in spite of sore necks from the unaccustomed hard boiled collars and painful feet from borrowed dancing pumps, the fortunate men in attendance was unanimous in declaring it the most brilliant event of the Varsity society calendar this year.

The ball was held in the Elite hall, which was tastefully festooned with red and white streamers and red hearts suspended from the ceiling. Sheridan's five piece orchestra furnished the music for the dance which was concluded at 1 o'clock in the morning.

The first co-ed formal was held in 1916, as a leap year affair, and the women seemed so well pleased with the idea of keeping the men in suspense until the night before that they decided to make the dance an annual affair.

A great deal of the success of the dance was due to chairman Jewel Godfrey and the following committees appointed: Program, Florence Faust, chairman, Neva Rutledge, and Ruby Jacobson; decoration, Helen Little, chairman, Elsie Thompson, and Ruth Cavin; finance, Gertrude Clark; refreshments, Ethlyn Broadwater, chairman, Dorothy Moore and Dorothy Ropes.

SCHREIBER LAYS PLANS FOR COACHING COURSE

letic coach and director. He is a Wisconsin graduate and player on the famous football and baseball teams of 1900 and 1901 under Phil King. After graduation Mr. Schreiber was in charge of physical training work at the Pratt Institute of Brooklyn for six years. He coached football and baseball and his teams were very successful in New York state intercollegiate athletics.

Oklahoma A. and M. college obtained the services of Mr. Schreiber for the next five years. While at Oklahoma Schreiber was in charge of athletics and coached the football, basketball and baseball teams. From Oklahoma Director Schreiber went to Wisconsin State Normal at White-water. Here he was physical director for five years.

While at Wisconsin Normal Director Schreiber developed two state basketball championship teams, three football championship teams and four baseball championship teams. He won 19 out of 21 football contests and lost one game out of 25 diamond contests. Mr. Schreiber left Wisconsin to become physical director of the University in 1918.

Mr. Bierman, who will assist Mr. Schreiber, is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, where he captained the famous championship football team of 1915. He was a letter man in three sports, football, basketball and track. Bierman's football experiences was learned under the famous Dr. Williams, of Minnesota shift fame. Coach Bierman at one time coached the Butte high school team and so is familiar with athletic conditions in Montana high schools. He has directed coaching of the University football, basketball and track teams.

No other college or university in the northwest offers a course of this kind and the University of Montana offers for the first time the opportunity to study athletics under experienced and competent men. The University hopes that enough high school coaches will apply for admission to the summer school for athletic coaches to make the course under Physical Director Schreiber and Coach Bierman possible.

Following is the schedule for the work:

Football: One hour practice daily under Coach Bierman; one hour of theory daily under Director Schreiber.

Basketball: One hour of practice daily under Coach Bierman; and three hours of theory per week under Director Schreiber.

Baseball: One hour of practice daily and one hour of theory daily under Coach Bierman.

Conditioning: One hour daily under Director Schreiber.

WORK PROGRESSING

Good progress is being made in the work of the local R. O. T. C. Instruction in the handling of the army rifle has been given and target practice was started some time ago. The men have been divided into two competitive companies A and B, the former being captained by Pat Keeley and the latter by Dorrance Roysden. Uniforms and equipment have been ordered and actual drill will be started as soon as weather permits.

ulty and the seniors. Maurice Dietrich is captain of the faculty team. Men who will probably play on the team are John Suchy, E. L. Freeman, B. W. Bierman, J. C. Blankenagle, and Maurice Dietrich. It has not been announced what positions these men will play. The senior team will be made up of John Patterson, captain, Henry Ruppel, Herbert Vitt, Gussie Scherck, Shorty Whistler. This lineup will probably not play the entire game.

A second basketball game between the Varsity and the self-styled "super varsity" will be played. The lineup for the varsity will be Ahern, center; Olsen and Joy forwards, Sullivan and Walterskirchen, guards. The super varsity is captained by Cort Howard. Other members of the team will probably be Spogen, Elliott, Adams, Carver and Lynch.

A co-ed game between two all star teams will also be played. The members of one squad will be Alma Burk hart, forward, Florence Faust, forwards, Lillian Quast, center, Lois Showell and Lillian Goff, guards, Bonna Pearsall, sub. The lineup for the other team will be Virginia McAuliffe and Helen Newman, forwards; Eunice Whiteside, center, Fern Se right and Ann Wilson, guards, and Lillian Christenson, sub.

The dancing class under the direction of Miss Lucille Leyda, will give two dances, "The Soldiers Hornpipe" and "The Children's Mad Dance."

There will be two wrestling matches. The first one will be between Dwight Carver and Earl Berry, and the second between Harold Garrett and Edward O'Hare.

The faculty of the State University School of Music will give a concert in the evening.

The speakers of the convocation will be entertained at a luncheon at Simpkins hall.

MIRROR OF FASHION CRACKS UNDER STRESS OF ARDUOUS EVENING

He was all dolled up—hair parted in the middle and slicked down both sides. The pomade had worked fine that evening and the copper, silver and gold skull cap had done the rest; it was wonderful hair. The 1-16 inch of air-cushion flour hid the signs of the birth place of a beard. Of course, that single ply collar cut a little, but what of that—he could stand it for her, and besides he had to look as though he was used to wearing those kind of collars, even if his buddies wore a half size smaller. And that tie! All the brothers though he tied that bow himself—but he foxed 'em all and Barney's has one less of those already tied, guaranteed to fit ties.

It was sure lucky that grandfather bought a dress suit to get married in—cause it just fit nifty—except, of course the coat resembled a lucanus cervus (commonly and vulgarly known as a beetle) and grandpa was short and bow-legged. Otherwise, the suit was fine, that is, the pockets fit and the buttons were all the same size. But it sure got his sense of humor—why didn't they make those button holes for those buttons. He could see that they appreciated a joke, even in the best of society. The pumps were a little too small, but he knew big feet looked a whole lot better in small pumps. It would be hard to move around in the outfit, but he had often seen moving pictures of just how they did it at a formal dance. It would be easy to stand around with a smile and say a lot of clever things when he was introduced to the girl with the lotsa lotsa grin. It would also be comparatively easy to sneak out under a palm tree and take a few drags from the camel. This being a social lion was going to agree with him—he knew it.

She called for him and he acted as natural as any fish would in an airplane. And could she help but admire the stately poise the collar kept his chin in. Of course, the taxi was the kind he always rode to and from classes in and he felt right at home. He was glad he was going.

He came back. Poor fellow. The freshmen on each side of him were doing their best to console him. "Sure, mentholatum was good for sore spots due to rubbing of ultra-starched linen. Yes, bathe them in hot water for about an hour and the soreness will leave so one can walk on them. Of course, the collar cut deep enough around the neck to be seen—but wrap it up, people will think you have only the tonsillitis. And as soon as you get your back out of that coat, you can bend it after a few tries."

As soon as someone grabbed the nifty done-up-in-a-box-tie and another pelled the collar off his neck, he managed to gasp, "The smile didn't work; I couldn't think of a clever thing to say and they didn't give me a chance to sneak out for a smoke. As soon as one dance was over another of the sisters was there to take the place of the one before. Don't wake me for my 8 o'clock class tomorrow or for church next Sunday." With that he sunk into his brothers' arms and was carried up to Siberia and placed between the woolen.

Moral: They don't make pennies with two heads.

Homer Rock, former Gonzaga basketball man, spent Saturday and Sunday in Missoula. He came here to see the game between Montana and Gonzaga.

Mrs. M. A. Cromwell, who has been visiting her daughter Ann for the past month, returned to her home in Winnet Saturday.

Dwight Carver spent the week-end at his home in Florence.
