PRESS RELEASE

June 3, 1964

STATEMENT OF SENATOR ~~MILLS~~ (MONTANA) COPY

Maurcen and I are deeply grateful for this expression of confidence on the part of the people of Montana.

Beyond personal feelings, I would note that the primaries were contested in a forthright fashion but without personal vindictiveness or bitterness. Therefore, the elections were above all else a victory for public responsibility and a tribute to the good sense of the people of the state. I ask my own party to close ranks now and to join with all Montanans to conduct the coming campaign with responsibility, understanding, and decency.
