FACULTY ADOPTS RULES TO CORRECT EVIL

Regulations to Be Enforced in All Formal Examinations Including Daily Tests.

As a result of the efforts of two student organizations at the end of the fall quarter to expose the cribbing done during examinations, a list of rules regarding the conduct of examinations has been prepared by the scholarship committee and approved by the faculty. These rules will hold good in any formal examination, whether quarterly or not. The rules are as follows:

1. The instructor or his accredited representative shall be present during the whole examination period.
2. Students writing on the same subject shall be seated in alternate seats.
3. Students shall not bring to the examination room any books, notebooks or papers, except as specifically directed by the instructor.
4. All examinations shall be written on official blue books inspected by the instructor just previous to the examination. (The committee recommends that the University furnish the blue books.)
5. (a) At the end of the examination paper each student shall write the following: "I have neither given nor secured help during this examination," and sign his name.
(b) No paper shall be graded unless it contains this statement.
6. (a) All examination papers must be corrected and graded.
(b) Examination papers shall be held until the end of the quarter for inspection by the students or returned to students at the discretion of the instructor.

No man trying out for the Varsity will be allowed to participate in any of the interclass, or inter-departmental baseball games until the Varsity squad has been chosen. This announcement was given out after practice Wednesday by W. E. Schreiber, who is in complete charge of the coaching of the Varsity baseball team.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Howard and Fred Palen were dinner guests at the A. D. A. house Wednesday evening.

BULLETIN

BIG CROWD AT S. O. S. IN SPITE OF WEATHER

New Football Song, Fight Montana, Is Introduced by Glee Club.

In spite of the cold weather the first Singing On the Steps of the season, which was held Wednesday night in order that Yell King Kane and the Glee club could attend, was one of the largest ever held. It was also the date of the senior "swing-out."

"Fight, Montana," the new football song written by Bill Kane and John Marshall, was introduced by the Glee club. Herb Vitt, captain of the 1920 baseball team, talked on the prospects for the baseball season. He said that a lot of good material had turned out for practice. Mac Gault explained the purpose and aims of the senior honorary society, the Silent Sentinel. Coach Bernie Bierman told what Montana was going to do in track this spring.

Kane announced that as the job of Yell King was one that demanded experience and training, all candidates for the position next year will be given a chance to lead yells at the remaining Singing On the Steps this year.

Painter's Wish That State Buy the Picture for University.

"I spoke to Mr. Paxson about four weeks before his death. It has always been his wish that the state buy 'Custer's Last Stand' and keep it at the University," said F. D. Schwalm, head of the art department.

A Minneapolis millionaire offered E. S. Paxson $25,000 for this picture, but the state was given an opportunity to buy it for $20,000. The picture now hangs in the University library. However, according to Mr. Schwalm, it is very probable that it will be purchased by the Women's Federation of Clubs, and moved to the capitol building at Helena.

Mr. Schwalm says that he would do all in his power to help raise the necessary funds to keep the picture at the University for its historical as well as its artistic value. He has spoken to the faculty of this, but such action has been deemed inadvisable because of greatness of the financial undertaking.

Mr. Paxson had the most complete collection of Indian curios in the county, according to Mr. Schwalm. At one time he refused to sell it to a buyer from the Smithsonian Institute, but, now, unless some one buys the entire collection, it will soon be divided, and lose the unity which makes it so unique.

Mr. Schwalm believes that the Paxson picture and the collection of Indian curios, if they could be secured, would be of untold value to the University in the future.

EDUCATIONAL CRISIS DUE TO LOW FUNDS

LEGISLATURE RECOGNIZES NEEDS OF SCHOOLS

Have Been Unable to Create Finances Beyond Those Raised by State Rate.

The situation at the institutions comprising the University of Montana is caused by the condition of state finances and not because of willingness on the part of state executives to curtail educational funds, says a statement issued today by W. F. Brewer, manager of the University funds campaign.

"Repeatedly during the past ten years the legislature has made appropriations for new buildings," says the statement. "The state board of examiners, because of the condition of the general fund of the state, was obliged in most cases to withhold approval of any expenditures from these appropriations."

"The legislature has recognized the needs of the educational institutions at each session, but they have been unable to create finances beyond the amount raised by the legal state rate. In a statement made a short time ago, Chancellor Elliott of the University of Montana said 'the legislature has always exhibited a favorable attitude towards the higher institutions and has been disposed to make liberal appropriations.'"

The constitution of the state sets the legal rate at 2½ mills for all general state purposes. The educational institutions receive their money from this state general fund. A constitutional provision provides, moreover, that the rate shall drop to 2 mills for all state purposes whenever the state's assessed valuation is above $600,000,000. The valuation is expected to go above that figure this year, although the increased valuation to make it go above that point will be only a small amount. Under such a provision, the state revenue for 1921 will be reduced. State departments and certain state institutions like the penitentiary and the insane asylum, cannot have their funds reduced. It is a foregone conclusion that the educational institutions will bear the loss—as they have been the victim of inadequate state revenues in the past, unless the state votes the two financial measures now proposed to prevent such a crisis.

FOUNDATION ACCEPTS ORBECK'S TRANSLATION

Translation of Ibsen's Play to Be Published by Scandinavian Foundation.

Anders Orbeck, assistant professor of English, has just received word that his translation of Ibsen's "Cataline" has been accepted by the American-Scandinavian foundation and will appear in book form in the near future.

"Cataline" was the first of Ibsen's plays. It was published in 1850. No English translation has ever been made. It is largely blank verse.

The American-Scandinavian foundation is publishing a series of Scandinavian classics in the English translation. H. G. Leach, secretary of the foundation, said that a commendable rival had appeared in the field, but that his work was pronounced inferior to that of Professor Orbeck.

Oscar W. Finkins, professor of literature at the University of Minnesota, and one of the severest and best literary critics of literature, to whom the manuscript was submitted, spoke of it as clear, correct in rhythm and to a creditable degree musical.

MONEY IS AVAILABLE

A last minute check of the A. S. U. M. finances brings the news that there is enough money in the treasury to warrant the sending of a relay team to the Relay Carnival in Seattle. A special meeting of the executive committee will be called Monday night and in all probability the expenditure will be authorized.

UTAH CANCELS PLACE IN TRIANGULAR DEBATE

Efforts Being Made to Arrange Dual Meet Between Idaho and Montana.

Following the cancellation of Utah's part in the triangular debate, efforts are being made to substitute a dual meet between the Idaho and Montana debating teams.

The telegram received by MacPherson Gault, manager of Montana debate team, is as follows: "Failure to secure expected increase in debate budget and other circumstances necessitate cancelling Utah's debates in triangle. Sorry, but no other possibility. Suggest for this year, dual debates between Idaho and Montana and immediate completion for next year. Wiring Idaho. C. L. Menser, Mgr."

Gault is now making an effort to substitute a dual meet between Idaho and Montana for the triangular debate contest, and is awaiting a reply from Idaho in regard to the proposed substitution. In case Idaho accepts, a team to take the side of the negative will be sent to Idaho and the team prepared to debate on the affirmative will be kept to debate against the team sent here by Idaho.

The Montana debate team is being coached by E. L. Freeman and the men who will represent the University, in case Idaho accepts the substitution, are: Negative, George Witter, Paul Smith; affirmative, James Farmer and Matt Pearce.

TUG OF WAR AWARDED FRESHMEN BY COUNCIL

Annual Contest Goes to Frosh First Time in History of University.

The annual freshman-sophomore tug of war was awarded to the freshmen by the Student Council at a meeting held Wednesday, because of the refusal of the sophomores to pull again.

This is the first time in the history of the University that the freshmen have won the tug of war. In the spring of 1915 the pull lasted for two hours and resulted in a draw.

The tug of war was first awarded to the sophomores by default. After a protest by the freshmen as to the way the contest was carried on the Student Council decided that both teams had violated the rules and that there had been no official tug of war. A committee was appointed to set a time for another contest, but the sophomore class refused to pull again, claiming that the first decision of the judges should stand as final.

MUSIC 'N EVERYTHING AT VARSITY VODVIL

OUR SHOW CAN'T BE BEATEN, SAYS ELIAS

With Syncopation, Jazze and Joye and Lots of Girls, and Clothes—Oh, Boy!

"Is everybody goin'?"

"Sure."

"Where?"

"Varsity Vodvil."

"When?"

"Tonight, at the Liberty theater."

Manager Elias Mortimer Patrick Keeley says he stage is set for the best Varsity Vodvil that has ever been given, and when you hear him tell about the program you are led to believe that Pat is not prevaricating.

You will be surprised to see the way Mary X can dance, Elsie Tschudy whistle, or Rex Healy look "black" and the way Ben Stowe can do those barber shop songs way down deep.

The girls of Kappa Alpha Theta and the best looking men in school will make you think you are in the "big league" with the way they present "Fifteen Minutes at Rector's." There will be music, dancing, pretty girls, manly men, stunning gowns and all the pep of a big cabaret. ART LEAGUE APPOINTS MEMORIAL COMMITTEES

F. D. Schwalm, Ruby Jacobson and Mildred Burgess Named at Meeting Wednesday.

A war service memorial committee, comprised of Professor F. D. Schwalm, Ruby Jacobson and Mildred Burgess, was appointed by the Art League at its meeting Wednesday night.

This committee will look into the matter of providing a memorial for Montana University men lost in the war and will support any step in this direction, according to members.

A bronze tablet bearing the names of the University men, supported at either side by a soldier and a sailor, was considered favorably. (This suggestion was made by Lorado Taft, American sculptor, who spoke here last month.)

The proceeds of Mr. Taft's lecture here will be used either to start a scholarship fund to send Montana art students to eastern schools, or to begin an art gallery for the department. "Fall in the Austrian Tyrol," a painting by George Joseph Seiden-heck, an artist of the French school, is the only piece now owned by the department. This was purchased with the proceeds of an Art League costume party of a few years ago.

The Art League also appointed a carnival parade committee and a committee to put on a show for the May fete carnival. Arrangements were made for a sketching class up Deer Creek next Sunday for all league members. The sketchers will leave at 9 o'clock for an all day trip, going as far as Bonner on the car.

THE RELAY TEAM

Varsity life and spirit is running true to form. We are coming back. The last Singing On the Steps cracked the ice and we are looking forward in the last months of the present college year to some real expressions of Varsity spirit unchecked yet controlled by the sense of what is right.

The future in spring athletics is exceptionally bright. The athletic fields are fairly alive with men who are undergoing gruelling toil for the right and privilege of representing the Varsity. They deserve watching and constant support.

The question of sending a relay team to Seattle to take part in the Relay Carnival naturally comes to the front. If the student body sentiment is an indication, Montana will be represented when the gun starts the first lap of one of the greatest relay carnivals in the country. We earnestly wish that the University may be represented. Athletics, when conducted properly, have a tremendous power in bringing an institution to the public notice. Our string of relay sprinters are not world beaters, but we can vouch for a creditable showing. They have the speed, willingness and the fight. Last minute reports as to the exact status of the A. S. U. M. finances are encouraging and it is hoped that enough money will be available without having a tag day. However, it is gratifying to know that the students want Montana to be represented and are willing to stand the expense if necessary. All of us should boom the relay proposition. It is a legitimate undertaking and worth the price.

BEGIN THINKING

May day is nearing and as yet the plans for the carnival and the parade have not been unfolded. Campus events have been coming fast, almost too fast to allow the student administration sufficient time for careful planning. But in spite of the fact that plans for the May festival are still forthcoming, it should not mean that campus organizations must hold their plans. Now is the time for serious preparation for the part you are to play in the May carnival. Begin thinking.

ABER DAY AND ANNABELLE

Deer Folks:
Last Thursday morn dawned calm,
sereen,
The students gamboled on the green
And strove to make the campus cleen
And fill up holes.
I was the very peep of day
I heard the band begin to play
With awful din, like donkey's bray
And noise of shoveling coals.

At that dread sound I hurried out
I thot the world beyond a doubt
Was ended and I jined the rout
That lead to Paradise.
But soon discovered my mistake
For their stood Prexy with a rake
And many profs that daily take
The joy out of our lives.

Beside a fire a guy named Dwite
Waved both his arms with all his mite
And piled up rubbish left and rite
And argued with much vigor.
Tex in a very modest manner
With tent-like hat and chaste bandaner
As inconspicuous as a ripe bananer
I seen upon the diamond.

Inside the barracks work was pressing
And three dishpans of salad dressing
Was made and no effects distressing
From its consumption felt.
The tennis court boss rolled the dirt
Clad in a lovely yellow shirt;
A flower bed in manner pert
Was made by Mis' Van Doosen.

Chow was announced at 12 o'clock
You otta seen the barracks rock
Prof. Rowe thot that a earthquake shock

Had struck our gentle campus.
The men formed lines and marched in first
Them that had hunger pangs the worst
Went in three times, while women
curst
And Alice raged and ranted.

Pat Keeley sat in judgment seat
At 2 p. m. and looked too sweet
And dispersed Justice as was meet
And paddles worked quite furious.

Well, all is past. Good bye, I smell
The dorm hash scorching—Annabelle

BEST COLLEGE STORIES AND POEMS PUBLISHED

Prof. H. G. Merriam, head of the English department, has just received a communication from the Stratford Publishing company of Boston calling his attention to the publication of two books which are made up of the best college poems and short stories. The books are published annually although there was no issue in 1919. They are called "College Anthology" and "The Best College Short Stories."

All manuscripts must be in by May 15, although those submitted last year will be considered for this years edition. It is quite a distinction to have a story or poem accepted for the publications, according to Mr. Merriam, as the best writers of American colleges are contributors and is consequently a long step toward future success.

Mr. Merriam is anxious to see Montana represented this year and wishes to have all contributions handed in to him.

E. O. SISSON TO SPEAK AT NEXT CONVOCATION

The next convocation will be held Thursday, April 22, according to Professor H. G. Merriam, chairman of the committee on public exercises. President Sisson will address the student body.

President Sisson, who spent the winter quarter in California, has had no opportunity to address the student body since his return. Attendance of the whole student body is urged by Professor Merriam.

DEAN JAMESON LEAVES TO VISIT HIGH SCHOOLS

Dean K. W. Jameson left Wednesday for a high school visitation trip through Jefferson and Ruby valleys. She visited Virginia City and Sheridan, where she spoke before the parents' and teachers' association. She will visit the Butte high schools today.

Mrs. Jameson is speaking for the Greater University of Montana, and in behalf of the bond issue campaign.

R. H. RUTLEDGE TALKS AT FORESTRY MEETING

District Forester R. H. Rutledge spoke at the regular meeting of the Forestry club Wednesday night on the public service nature of forestry and the ideals of the public service worker in this line. He also answered many questions of the forestry students regarding the organization and personnel of the United States forest service and its opportunities for the trained forester.

U LIBRARY PURCHASES SEVERAL RARE BOOKS

Several very rare books on Montana history have been obtained by the University Library. These books are bought, for the most part, from second hand book dealers all over the United States.

In the collection is a speech of Thomas H. Benton's concerning the Oregon territory. Mr. Benton was at that time senator from Missouri. Fort Benton was later named for him. "Our Barren Lands" is an account of the country west of the 100th meridian and east of the Sierra Nevadas, written and published by General W. B. Hazen in 1875. "Sketches of Mission Life" is a story of the Oregon territory. It was given to a soldiers' library in a convalescent camp in Virginia after the Civil war. The oldest is a government report concerning the opening of trade with the Indians in what is now Montana. It was published in 1818.

MISS DEXTER SPEAKS BEFORE ART LEAGUE

Class Hears of Dutch, Belgian and Flemish Schools of Art.

Miss Elise Dexter of the modern languages department spoke on Dutch, Flemish and Belgian schools of art before the History and Appreciation of Art class Thursday.

"Art of the Netherlands," explained the speaker, "deals chiefly with peasant pictures, with representations of everyday life." Miss Dexter pointed out how much earlier this development took place in these schools than in other countries. She contrasted with this work the art of Italy which emphasizes the beautiful rather than the realistic. She traced the element of realism in Netherland art from its beginning to its culmination in Rembrandt.

Miss Dexter has travelled abroad and has visited famous art galleries of Europe. This is the second of a series of outside lectures arranged by Professor F. D. Schwalm.

JUDGE M'HATTON GIVES BOOKS TO LAW SCHOOL

About 1500 Volumes Received Here This Week From Butte Man.

A shipment of books amounting to about 1500 volumes was received by the school of law from Judge J. McHatton of Butte this week.

Due to delay in unpacking the exact number of volumes or their precise nature is not known. Judge McHatton also gave the law school enough sectional bookcases to hold the entire set. This last addition raises the number of books in the law library to about 8700 and provides the department with two sets of Montana court records.

BIG ENROLLMENT HERE FOR SUMMER SCHOOL

Plans Made to Keep Both Dorm and Simpkins Barracks Open to Students.

An enrollment of 500 students is expected for the summer school session. The number of students will be large enough to warrant the opening of both Simpkins and Craig halls.

"Prospects for summer school are very good," said Dr. J. P. Rowe, who is the chairman of the summer school committee. "If present appearances are correct we will have 500 students on the campus during the summer months. Plans are being made to have Simpkins and Craig halls open to accommodate the enlarged enrollment. A good many of the regular students are going to stay over in order to make up the work they lost during last year's flu epidemic.

FORESTERS TO LEAVE MAY 1 FOR FLATHEAD

Fifty Students Will Attend Spring Camp, According to Dean Skeels.

About 50 forestry students will attend the annual spring camp of the forest school at Flathead lake. They will leave here April 30 and May 1 and return about May 10 in order to be here for the interscholastic track meet, according to present plans of Dean Dorr Skeels.

Attendance at the spring camp is required of all forestry students who can possibly make the trip as this is a very important part of the curriculum and the faculty of the school considers the chance for field work in various branches of forestry in connection with the regular instruction to be invaluable to the forestry student. The only men who will not make the trip this year are a few who have regular places on the Varsity baseball and track teams.

MONTANA RELAY TEAM SHOWS MUCH PROMISE

Will Go to Seattle If Satisfactory Financial Arrangements Can Be Made.

Montana is going to have a relay team this spring that, if financial matters permit and the team is sent to Seattle, on April 24, will create a lot of competition. This will be the first relay team from Montana to compete in any athletic event in Seattle. The team as it now stands has made the half mile relay in 1:36 and considering the fact that this was done in cold weather in heavy clothing and that Harry Adams was unable to run on account of strained muscles, this time is considered very good. Sullivan, Sterling, Toole, Duffy and Adams make up the relay squad at present, while Spogen has shown speed that may make him a contender. The team will only take part in the four hundred yard and half mile relay events although there will be events up to two miles.

U. S. FORESTER TALKS ON BY-PRODUCT WASTE

Lee Billings Explains Methods by Which Great Loss May Be Avoided.

Lee Billings, assistant U. S. district forester, in charge of the branch of forest products, lectured on the by-products of wood and the utilization of mill waste at the forestry school yesterday morning.

Mr. Billings, who is recognized as an expert in his line, has just returned from several months research work in the forest products laboratories at Madison, Wis. While there he studied especially methods of saving the 25 per cent of a log which is ordinarily lost in sawing it into lumber. Complete utilization of the wood is sought by turning the slabs and sawdust into minor wood products, such as wood pulp and fiber and distilling it in the manufacture of chemicals.

J. F. Preston, chief of forest management at the district office here, lectured to the class in silviculture at the forestry school this morning. He will also lecture to the same class next Monday and Wednesday.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO PATIENTS

President Edward O. Sisson spoke at the state sanitarium for tuberculosis patients at Galen Wednesday night. FOUR MEN AWARDED M ON BASKETBALL TEAM

Larkin, Walterskirchen, Sullivan and Ahern Earn Letters.

Four men on the Varsity basketball team, Captain Gus Larkin, Bill Walterskirchen, Steve Sullivan and Ronald Ahern, were awarded the official M and sweater, according to the decision of the coaches and with the approval of the A. S. U. M. executive committee.

The other four or five men on the basketball squad failed to win their letters because they did not compete in the required number of games or because of violation of training rules.

Sentinel to Be Ready for the Press May 1

The 1920 Sentinel will be ready for the press by May 1, according to Sadie Erickson, editor of the year book.

The book, which was to have been finished by May 15, will be held back until about June 1, by the addition of the Track Meet section. This will be the first time that a section has been devoted to a track meet of the same year.

All the art work has been turned in by the art department and will be sent to the engravers this week.

"Donald Stevens and James Dorsey have been working faithfully on backgrounds for the pages and have turned in some very clever sketches. The art department has also turned in some very creditable work," continued Miss Erickson.

The cover will be of dark brown, mission leather with a gold embossed seal of the University in the right hand corner.

E. B. Howe, manager of the Sentinel, suggests that every student that has not subscribed should do so immediately as the price will be advanced as soon as the book goes to press. He also makes a final appeal for snapshots, as he is very anxious to make the book representative of the campus.

PRACTICE COURT HELD TUESDAY BY STUDENTS

Practice court was held Tuesday evening by the students enrolled in that course.

John Rice, attorney for the state, charged DeWitt Law with arson in the first degree, while Eugene Harpole argued for the defense. Law was charged with having set fire to a house which he had recently sold and had committed the act through spite. He had been forced to sell the house to pay off the mortgage which he was unable to pay when due.

The jury found Law innocent of all charges.

Seventy Dollars Paid For Old School Books

More than $70 was paid by Mr. Campbell, the representative of the college book store at Lincoln, Neb., to students here for their old books, according to Stuart McHaffie, who is manager of the A. S. U. M. store where the sale was held.

Books worth eight to ten dollars were sold for fifty cents or a dollar. The college book store representative travels through the western states purchasing books. These books are sold in wholesale lots to eastern colleges where they are still in usage.

Five per cent of the gross receipts was paid to the A. S. U. M. store.

EIGHT TEAMS COMPETE IN CO-ED TOURNAMENT

Silver Loving Cup Will Be Given to Champions of Woman's Baseball Games.

Eight teams will compete for the silver loving cup which is to be awarded to the winners of the co-ed baseball tournament.

The cup, which was presented by the A. S. U. M. in 1918, was won that year by the Delta Gammas. Last year they had to relinquish it to the Town. The team that wins it for two successive years becomes the permanent holder of the cup.

The competing teams with their captains are: Town, Alice Sheedy; Out-of-Town, Pearl Hefferlin; Craig Hall, Pearl Dagenhart; Alpha Phi, Solvay Anderson. Kappa Kappa Gamma, Olive Dobson; Delta Gamma, Jewel Godfrey; Delta Sigma Chi, Alma Burkhardt; Kappa Alpha Theta, Mary Laux.

FROSH AND LOCAL HIGH TO BATTLE ON CINDERS

Freshman Athletes Have Not Been Turning Out Well for Spring Track Work.

A track meet has been arranged between Missoula High and the University freshmen, but the Frosh track team is yet practically a minus quantity. So far only four or five of the class have turned out and Coach Bierman is wondering where the much-heralded spirit of the class has gone.

A few weeks ago a request was made that all men expecting to go out for football next fall turn out in track suits and keep in good condition. The Frosh are the most reluctant and have turned out less than any other class on the campus. Unless the Freshmen turn out to help their team, the students of Montana will be confronted by the spectacle of a Bruin team being defeated by a high school team.

CADETS GET BREECHES AND RIFLES AT LAST

The long looked for box of breeches consigned to the R. O. T. C., has finally arrived. All men who have not yet received uniforms will have them issued to them immediately. Up to this time, only men who were able to be fitted with the uniforms on hand have received them, and the rest have had to wait.

On Monday the cadets will be given rifles, and drill in the manual of arms will be commenced. The corps has been divided into two companies, and work will be done on a competitive basis.

Plans for the May fete are progressing as they should, according to Margaret Turner, chairman of the May fete committee. Florence Dixon, acting president of the A. S. U. M., which is to have charge of the May day parade, announces that her committee will meet to discuss plans next week.

"I wish every girl who is willing to help sew on May fete costumes would report for work in the women's rest room beginning next Monday," said Florence Faust, chairman of the May fete costume committee.

Costumes for the solo dances, for the witches, the brownies and toads are not yet started. The costumes for the clouds, raindrops, snow flakes and sunbeams were practically completed Aber day. A number of the girls are making their own costumes, according to Miss Faust.

SIDNEY H. COX SPEAKS TO Y. W. C. A. ON BIBLE

Professor Sidney H. Cox of the English department spoke on "The Bible as Literature" at the Y. W. C. A. meeting last Tuesday.

"The Bible is universal literature," he said. "It is made up of the materialistic and spiritualistic and helps to solve great problems. It gives us vicarious experience. It fulfills the functions of literature, that of history, and presents the individual's daily conflicts sympathetically and appreciatively."

Estelle Hanson sang a solo, following the talk. The meeting was in charge of Mae Higgins.
