BILLINGS-AREA STUDENTS CHOSEN AS UM PEER ADVISERS

MISSOULA—

A group of University of Montana—Missoula students has been selected to help peers find their way on campus. These students will serve as University College academic peer advisers for the 1997-98 school year.

Billings students chosen as peer advisers are Billie Fischer, a junior in social work; Ashley Young, a junior in psychology; Julianna Osborne, a freshman in biology; Kevin Kolendich, a sophomore in microbiology; Sarah Hill, a freshman studying chemistry and pre-med; and Mark Malsbury, a freshman in business.

Other area students serving as peer advisers next academic year are Jennifer Eckert of Red Lodge, a senior in communication studies, and Curtis Alexander of Park City, who is pursuing a doctorate in pharmacy.

Academic peer advisers are selected through an application and interview process. Students who are selected possess exceptional leadership, communication and interpersonal skills.

Over the course of the year, peer advisers are responsible for advising fellow college students about course selection, general education and major requirements, and resource information.
