Mrs.
Dixon <sup>HHL</sup> The President suggested the appropriateness of a Faculty expression of thanks to Mrs. W. W. Dixon of Washington, D. C. for her gift of $5,000 and her late husband's Law Library for the new Law Department. Professor Aber submitted the following letter which was unanimously adopted:

"The Faculty of the University of Montana desires to thank you for the generous and timely gifts, which did so much toward securing the establishment of the Law Department.

"The names of yourself and your distinguished husband will ever be held in honored remembrance by the University as benefactors of this department, and a lasting memorial of your gifts will be provided by the existence of the 'W. W. Dixon Memorial Library'."

The President proposed Faculty regulations applicable to the establishment of the Department of Law. Moved by Book, and seconded, that the statement as read by the President be adopted. The
