BITTERROOT VALLEY STUDENTS NAMED ACADEMIC PEER ADVISERS AT UM

MISSOULA--

Four Bitterroot Valley students at The University of Montana-Missoula have been selected to serve as University College academic peer advisers for the 1998-99 school year.

Academic peer advisers are selected through an application and interview process. Students chosen possess exceptional leadership, communication and interpersonal skills. Peer advisers are high-achieving and self-motivated students.

Over the course of the year, peer advisers are responsible for advising fellow college students in regard to course selection, general education and major requirements, and resource information.

Area students who will serve as peer advisers are:

- Selina Johnson of Corvallis, a junior majoring in elementary education. She is the daughter of Douglas and Rhonda Johnson.
- Michael Kuni of Stevensville, a sophomore majoring in business administration. He is the son of Jon Kuni and Pat Pooleg.
- Natalie Meuchel of Hamilton, a sophomore majoring in English and secondary education. She is the daughter of Rod and Valli Meuchel.
- Lisa Strack of Stevensville, a senior majoring in English. Strack is the daughter of Robert and Joyce Strack.
