Course Description

The Music of Ireland: Traditional and Contemporary is designed as an introductory-level survey of instrumental and vocal music, along with dance, presented within (and without) the cultural history of the country, and communities of the Irish diaspora in Europe and North America. Using historical field recordings, along with university and private collections, the course will feature the celebrated musicians, authors, poets, and artists of the past and present. As this folk art has so deeply influenced the contemporary ‘classical’ world of composition, representative works drawn from today’s ‘concert’ literature will also play an important role. Guest artists and lecturers from Ireland and the United States, including members of the immediate university community and performers from across Montana, are invited to perform and share their personal experiences and artistic insight with students in classroom and concert hall settings.

Grading: Students will be evaluated on four criteria:

- Attendance in class and at scheduled lectures and concerts; remember: missing one evening is equal to missing 3 class meetings!
- Participation in class discussion
- In-class presentation of short research projects (see nota bene below)
- Weekly quizzes on reading assignments (see NB below)
- Required Listening: FITM CD All Tracks

Nota Bene: Students should prepare for quizzes on reading assignments as listed for each class meeting. It is best to read ahead, allowing time for review of musical terms, vernacular, historical ‘markers’ (significant dates), performer names and instruments. Keeping a notebook would be very useful during personal reading sessions and in class meetings. In-class presentations will be scheduled following the first class meeting.

Óró, Sé Do Bheatha ‘Bhaile! “Oro, Welcome Home!”

- Written by Padraig Pearse, one of the leaders of the Irish Rebellion of 1916, “Oro, Welcome Home” was an invitation to all the Irishmen in Europe who were fighting for the British Empire and the freedom of small nations to come home and tackle the ancient foe on their own little island. (The Irish Song Book, Clancy Brothers & Tommy Makem, Oak Publications 1979)

Chorus:

Óró, Sé Do Bheatha ‘Bhaile! (x3)
Oh-ro, shay dhu vah-ha wal-yeh!

Anois ar theacht an tsamhraidh.
Ah-nish er hockth on thou-rig
