HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS AND SENIORS INVITED TO UM DAYS

MISSOULA--

Although this year's UM Days at The University of Montana-Missoula coincides with Halloween, high school students won't have to trick or treat to get the goods on getting into and succeeding in college.

They will, however, get a free ticket to a Grizzly football game.

UM Days, the University's annual open house for high school juniors and seniors and their parents, will take place from 8 to 11:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 31, followed by the Grizzlies Big Sky Conference game against the Idaho State Bengals at 12:05 p.m.

Like Halloween, college can seem a little scary sometimes. But UM Days' selection of workshops, a student panel discussion and tours of campus and residence halls aims to make higher education less spooky.

UM Days will offer a cornucopia of information on everything from academic programs and career choices to honors offerings and foreign exchange opportunities. Bare-bones information on things like financial aid, residence life and student activities also will be available.

If all that knowledge doesn't chase away the hobgoblins, surely the Montana Griz can.

UM Days' participants will receive one complimentary pass to that afternoon's football game, while their parents can purchase tickets at the special reduced rate of $7. The game takes place in Washington-Grizzly stadium on the UM campus.

The deadline to register for UM Days is Thursday, Oct. 29. Registration forms are available at Montana high schools or by contacting Admissions & New Student Services at 1(800) 462-8636 or admiss@selway.umt.edu.

Upon receipt of registration, UM will send confirmation and additional program details.
