Bonner
Scholarship

Grades of first year students for both semesters will be reported as usual by letters. The office will indicate to instructors the names of first year students in their class and instructors shall designate the relative scholarship rank of these students in each class by numbering them 1, 2, 3, etc. giving comments on these rankings in the case of the first three in rank. These grades and ranks shall be the basis for award of the Bonner Scholarship by the committee deciding the matter, but among several of rank meriting the scholarship the committee shall give the students' financial situation and the conditions under which the work has been done consideration.

To be an eligible competitor each student must be a regular student and have earned at least 28 semester hours in this University during the year of competition, and must not have obtained more than 12 hours of university credit in this or any other institution of similar rank prior to the year of competition.
