6-1-1999

Mansfield Center presents public forum on Tiananmen Square

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

NEWS RELEASE

June 1, 1999

Contact: Philip West, director, Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center, 243-2988.

MANSFIELD CENTER PRESENTS PUBLIC FORUM ON TIANANMEN SQUARE

MISSOULA--

"Tiananmen: A 10-Year Perspective" will be the subject of a public forum presented on Friday, June 4, by the Mansfield Center at The University of Montana.

The forum will take place from 7 to 9 p.m. in Gallagher Building Room L14.

Presentations will include:

- "Chinese Student Movements in Historical Perspective," by Philip West, Mansfield Professor and director of the Mansfield Center.

- "Reflections on China and Human Rights," by Regents Professor Paul Lauren.

- "A June 4th Balance Sheet: Hidden Costs," by visiting Mansfield Professor Li Fengru.

- "The Effects of Tiananmen on Sino-American Relations," by Steven Levine, Mansfield Professor of Asia Pacific Studies.

For more information, call the Mansfield Center at 243-2988.

###

PS
Local
Tiana.rl