TRACK MEET WILL BE GREATEST EVER

So Says Dr. R. H. Jesse, Chairman of Interscholastic Committee.

The nineteenth Interscholastic meet will probably be the most successful ever staged by the University in the opinion of Dr. R. H. Jesse, chairman of the Interscholastic committee. Members of the committee, assisted by students, have placed everything in readiness for the 500 or more visitors.

The high schools throughout the state have displayed an unusual amount of interest in the meet this year. Several high schools which are not accredited, applied for entrance but were turned down in accordance with a University ruling. Havre, Thompson Falls, Columbus and Whitehall failed to send in their track entries on time and will not send contestants. Thompson Falls and Stanford also failed to enter their declaimers on time.

Rooms for the contestants have been arranged for. Cars will be at the depot to take the visitors to their lodgings. The band will play at noon down town on both Thursday and Friday in addition to playing at the meet.

Varnell to Speak.

It is announced as probable that George Varnell, starter, will address the student body and visitors Wednesday on "How the Interscholastic meet looks from the Outside." His talk may be followed with one by Dr. Jesse on the appearance of the track meet from the inside.

The committee from the chamber of commerce is still selling tickets down town. Student tickets are on sale at the student store at $2 each. The total price of the meet is $3.25 if each event is paid for singly. And the cost of the three main events, two afternoons of track contests, and the play and awarding of medals is $2.25. The $2 ticket entitles the bearer to admission to the track contests, the play, and the debates and declamatory contests. Season tickets will be on sale up to Thursday noon.

The preliminary declamation contest will take place at 9:30 Thursday morning. The boys will be divided into two sections and the girls into four. The boys will speak in the Natural Science auditorium and the library, room 203. The girls will speak in the library, rooms 206, 204, 205 and 207. The finals between three boys and eight girls will be held in the high school auditorium Thursday night. No admission will be charged for the preliminaries.

The debate will be held Wednesday evening at the high school auditorium. The list of debaters and the towns they represent follow:

Shelby: Warren Evans; Lawrence Dike; Scobey, Ray Clark, Lyle Bucklin; Laurel: John Spencer, Coileta Knitz; Roundup: Lillian Bell, Dorothy Chaffin.

Y. W. C. A. BOOTH TO VEND TOOTH FREEZERS AND POP

The University Y. W. C. A. has received from Dr. R. H. Jesse permission to sell refreshments during track meet. This means that they are the only ones who will have that privilege. They will have a booth open during the days of the meet and will also sell in the bleachers. Pop, candy, ice-cream, Eskimo pies, and hot-dogs will be sold.

Russia still holds to the stand that she will not comply with the terms set forth at the Genoa conference.

CAST OF "CLARENCE" TO LEAVE THURSDAY

Comedy Presented Last Fall Is Revived for State Tour Under Alexander Dean.

The cast of "Clarence," the Booth Tarkington comedy being produced by the Masquers on tour, will leave Friday for a trip covering nine cities in the state. The following schedule has been arranged: May 11, Deer Lodge; May 12, Galen; May 13, Dillon; May 15, Anaconda; May 16, Great Falls; May 17, Helena; May 18, Livingston; May 19, Whitehall; May 20, Butte.

Three changes have been made in the original cast which played "Clarence" during the fall quarter. Raymond Murphy, who appeared in the huge company production of "The Piper," produced in April, will play the part of Mr. Wheeler, originally taken by Lawrence Myers. The part of Mrs. Wheeler, acted last fall by Helen Gregory, will be taken by Mary Fleming. Mrs. Mathilda Borgen, a member of the executive staff of the Masquers for the past season, will play Della, last year portrayed by Katherine Roach.

The cast is as follows: Clarence, Eugene Finch; Mr. Wheeler, Ray Murphy; Bobby Wheeler, Harold Reynolds; Hubert Stem, Russell Niles; Cora Wheeler, Helen Ramsey; Mrs. Wheeler, Mary Fleming; Violet Pinney, Virginia Yegey; Della, Mrs. Mathilda Borgen.

Bill Hughes, who is stage manager of the production, Mrs. Mathilda Borgen, as chaperon, and Alexander Dean, director, will accompany the players.

While "Clarence" tours the state, another company of the Masquers presents a revival of the A. E. Thomas farce-comedy, "Her Husband's Wife," which was produced last year. The play was first staged at Orchard Homes Saturday, May 6, and will be produced for the second time at the high school auditorium Friday, May 12. The Glee club and the Varsity quartet will be a feature of the evening's program.

ROGER DEENEY ELECTED PRESIDENT OF C. S. A.

Plans for Coming Year Discussed at Meeting Sunday.

Roger Deeney was elected president of the Catholic Student association at the monthly meeting and breakfast held Sunday morning in the St. Anthony parish house. Margaret Keough was elected vice president, Katherine Small secretary and Bill O'Neill treasurer.

Mary X. McCarthy, retiring president, spoke on the plans for next year, when a reception will be held for the new Catholic students. A smoker will be given for the Catholic men at the beginning of the fall term, and an afternoon party for the Catholic girls, and then a dance will be given for them all the following week.

VOTE ON CHANGES IN STORE CONSTITUTION

Proposed Amendments to Be Voted Upon at Special Convocation.

There will be a meeting of all members of the Associated Students store (this includes faculty members and all regularly registered students) in the auditorium of University hall at 11 a. m. May 16, 1922, in connection with the A. S. U. M. convocation, for the purpose of voting on the amendments to the By-Laws, which have been regularly proposed by the Board of Directors.

Voting on the proposed amendments to the Associated Students store will be one of the matters brought up at the A. S. U. M. convocation May 16.

Only two changes are to be made in the constitution, both governing the auditing of the books of the corporation. In Section 10 of Article 3, a slight change will be made, while an entire new article will be submitted for approval.

Section 10 of Article 3 reads at the present time as follows:

"The board of directors shall have authority to organize and regulate its own organization for the transaction of its business. Provided, however, that the board have a president, a secretary and a treasurer, the three of whom shall act as auditors of the books of the corporation." The proposed change calls for the striking out of the phrase, "the three of whom shall act as auditors of the books of the corporation."

The proposed article reads as follows:

"The executive head of the State University of Montana shall be permitted to appoint an auditor to make audits and inventories of the books and property of the Associated Students' Store, a copy of the audit to be furnished to the board of directors. Such auditor shall have access to the books and property to the extent necessary for this purpose. The board of directors is hereby empowered to make such independent inventories and audits as it sees fit."

ELLSWORTH TO LECTURE AT HIGH SCHOOL TONIGHT

Author and Lecturer Will Talk on Experience as Publisher.

William Webster Ellsworth, author, lecturer and publisher, will lecture tonight at the high school auditorium on the subject, "Forty Years of Publishing." Mr. Ellsworth is the fourth in a series of poets and authors who have lectured during the year and who have been brought here by the State University.

Mr. Ellsworth was for 40 years with the Century Publishing company as editor and publisher. He is the author of several books, among them "A Golden Age of Authors." His lecture will deal largely with personal reminiscence and anecdote in which the literary men of the present age figure.

"The Writing Game" was the subject of a lecture by Mr. Ellsworth given this morning at 11 o'clock in Convocation hall. The joys and sorrows of authorship, together with stories of the great writers of his acquaintance, was the substance of his lecture.

HIGH SCHOOL BUILDS LETTERS ON JUMBO

A number of Missoula high school students effectively emblazoned their M. H. S. on the side of Mount Jumbo Sunday morning with rocks and white-wash in anticipation of the coming Interscholastic meet. It is rumored, however, that there is a movement among the Butte supporters to make a raid on the letters and change them in color and design to conform with the desires of the Mining city. Missoula students declare they will resist any such attempt to the last man, and have established parties to watch the letters each night.

ALL STUDENTS SHOULD MEET VISITORS-NAGLE

Especially Emphasized That Students Meet Visitors From Home Towns.

The student body as a whole is urged by officials to be on hand to meet high school track contestants at the trains today and tomorrow. A number of the county clubs have failed to function, and students must be at the trains to receive the visitors regardless of whether they are connected with the clubs which are supposed to be at the depots if the contestants are to be taken care of properly, according to an announcement by Ray Nagle, who is in charge.

Officials are especially emphasizing the fact that students should meet high school visitors from their home towns. Lists of the contestants and the time of their arrival are posted in Main hall and in the entrance to the library.

"Each student owes it to the University to see that the contestants are properly cared for," Ray Nagle said yesterday. "Students should be at the trains to meet the visitors. Tom Spaulding and Mrs. Sedman will be at the depot. Mr. Spaulding will give information as to the lodging places for the men and Mrs. Sedman for the women. The Bear Paws will have cars at the depot to transport the visitors to the hotels."

Arrival Slips Issued.

The chairmen of the county clubs have been issued slips announcing the names of the contestants and the time of their arrival. Committees have been named by these chairmen to meet the contestants from different town. In cases where no chairmen were elected it is up to the chairmen of the districts in which those counties belong to meet the visitors or to appoint others to meet them. District chairmen will be excused from classes if the classes interfere with their work today and tomorrow. For excuses the chairmen must see Tom Spaulding.

Contestants began arriving this morning. The bulk of them will come tomorrow night.

VARSITY SONGSTERS RETURN FROM SHORT FLATHEAD TRIP

The Glee club returned from a trip through the Flathead country Sunday night. During the trip the club sang at Ronan, Kalispell, Columbia Falls, St. Ignatius, and Arlee. At each of these places there were large audiences, especially at Kalispell where over 150 people were turned away because the house was overcrowded.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the senior class this afternoon at 5 o'clock sharp. K. McKOIN, Pres.

MONTANA WINS FROM VANDALS IN OPENER

Idaho Bites Dust, 8-2—Mt. St. Charles Loses Saturday, 16-4.

The old Wrecking Crew is at it again! The Vandals were smothered at Moscow yesterday afternoon in a volley of swats by the Grizzly maulers, and Montana won its first game of the conference, 8 to 2.

Higbee did wonderful work in the box, allowing the Idaho club wielders but four hits, while he and his teammates slammed out 11 safe bingles.

Three errors helped to swell the total of Montana runs. The Grizzlies, too, played loosely at times, making six errors.

The teams play this afternoon. Marineau will occupy the box for Idaho. It is not known whether Perk or Bill Johnston will do the hurling for Montana.

After the game today the team leaves for Spokane, where a two-game series with Gonzaga is to be played. The team will wind up its invasion of the west with two games at Seattle. These games will probably decide the conference championship.

The box score of yesterday's game is as follows:

	R.	H.	E.
Montana	8	11	6
Idaho	2	4	3

Batteries: Montana, Higbee and Murphy; Idaho, Snow and Fox.

The game Saturday with the Mt. St. Charles aggregation was a slow affair, interesting only because of the chance it gave the fans to see their team in action before the trip to Moscow, Spokane and Seattle. Higbee started with a long three-bagger to left field in the first inning. Kibble followed with a double, Dayliss and Spencer got on, and scored on Kershner's hot single. Barry banged out a home run, Keene and Johnston singled, Kibble got on through an error, and Murphy singled. Before three Grizzlies had been put out, six runs had been counted for Montana.

From then on it was only a question of how many scores the Grizzlies could pile up. Homeruns by Dayliss and Murphy brought yeas from the rooters.

Bill Johnston pitched the first five innings of the game for Montana. Spencer went in for the sixth inning, and Higbee shot 'em over for the remainder of the game.

FORESTRY CLUB WILL REVIVE ANNUAL BANQUET THIS MONTH

The annual Foresters' banquet will be held the latter part of this month according to the decision of the club. This was decided at the last meeting held Wednesday night. This is the first year since the war that the Foresters have observed the custom of an annual banquet.

Charles Joy, president of the Forestry club, appointed W. E. Fry, Sexto Larayo and Charles Nicholas to act as a committee in the arrangements for the banquet.

It is expected that a number of the prominent members of the forestry service from this district will be present at the affair. There will, in addition to several talks, be a variety of feature numbers on the program.

The purpose of the banquet is a general get-together farewell for the graduating students.

THIS IS YOUR PART.

Again we call the attention of Montana students to the fact that co-operation is needed in the work to make the nineteenth Interscholastic meet a success.

University officials, and alumni, have been working earnestly during the last two months to have everything in readiness for the event. Much time has been spent in giving the meet publicity over the state, as well as making plans for the accommodation of the visitors. The preparatory work is the hardest work of all, and is given very little consideration by those who are not so closely connected with it. The working out of details takes time, and although not especially hard, is annoying.

Now that plans are complete, personnel is needed to carry them out. If every student will do his part in entertaining—will take it upon himself to act as guide, information bureau, campus policeman and reception committee, he will save the meet officials much work.

Campus organizations should hold their social functions when such entertainment does not conflict with any University event connected with the meet. The high school students come as guests of the University, and nothing should interfere with their attending University events. Members of organizations however, can aid greatly in helping them to attend or take part in the festivities. Make them understand that you yourself are interested in the University's welfare, and this will instill in them the right spirit at the start.

Show them around. Mix with them. Make them enjoy their stay as much as possible, but do it entirely from a University standpoint.

OH, THAT BOARDWALK!

Almost two weeks have passed since Aber day and only five board lengths of the new boardwalk from the northwest entrance to the campus to New Science hall have been nailed in place. The remainder of the walk looks as if a cyclone had struck it. There has been plenty of time to nail down several boardwalks since Aber day but apparently the one in charge of this work does not have the inclination to look after it.

At first we thought the tardiness might be due to an oversight, but when it was found that some slight attempt had been made to put the walk in condition, that excuse vanished. It appears that it is just plain neglect.

If this had been attended to at the proper time, it would have only taken a few hours to complete the work of the crew which labored an entire day. As it is, it will take considerably more time and effort. And if it is not done immediately, it will be a beautiful sight to show the high school visitors during the latter part of the week.

Yale and Harvard Universities will each send three men to take part in a tennis tournament with an Oxford-Cambridge sextette on July 17 and 18. The men will sail on July 4.

The Colorado Aggie student paper is now delivered to its subscribers by a special carrier. This plan came into effect when the paper became a bi-weekly publication.

A Girls' Riding club has been organized at Denver University.

Whitman College will hold its first track meet of the season with Gonzaga, May 13, at Spokane. This will be the first meet ever held between the two colleges.

May day will be celebrated at Denver University on May 19.

Freshmen at the University of Wisconsin recently voted to wear green caps voluntarily, as a mark of distinction rather than a badge of humility. This vote was passed after the sophomores had decided to abolish hazing.

Waitapu, the Whitman junior annual, will appear on May 20, according to Leland Upton, editor.

A new school of commerce building is to be built at Denver University in the near future.

Yale will soon begin the supervision of the making of 100 reels of motion pictures depicting the important phases of American history. The production of the films has been entrusted to the Chronicles of America Picture corporation, which has been organized for that purpose.

A moonlight excursion on Lake Washington will be one of the events of the senior commencement at Washington this year. The excursion will take place June 17.

Columbia is entitled to the distinction of having the largest student body this spring quarter in the history of the world. It has an enrollment of 31,000 students.

Permission to continue publication for the remainder of the college year was granted to the Sun Dodger by the faculty publications committee at the University of Washington last week. This decision was made after action had been taken by the committee to suspend publication of the magazine on the ground that it had gone too far.

JOHNSTON ADVISES ASPIRING LAWYERS

W. M. Johnston, an attorney at law of the firm of Johnston, Coleman and Johnston of Billings, spoke to the students of the law school at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Mr. Johnston's talk was chiefly in the way of advice to young men entering law, in which he pointed out some of the common errors made. In the main his advice was along the line of pointing out to the students that success in the practice of law depends almost entirely upon steady application to work and always being on the job. He gave the ordinary ethical advice that the man who succeeds is the man in whom the community places the most confidence and stated that this is true in every community. Mr. Johnston also told of several of his own experiences when first entering upon the study of law.

This is one of a series of lectures that is being given to the students of the law school during the year by prominent attorneys of the state.

The laundry question is dirty anyway you look at it, they send them back C. O. D.

The Grist

"The mills of the gods turn slowly, but they grind exceeding fine."

Gob Sez:

The man from Pony should at least know the first rudiments of running.

Casey's Little Brother.

The sun was slowly sinking o'er the mountains in the west
And the race would be deciding, just what school was rated best.
The runners lined up on the mark, the starter yelled "Get set."
But the runners all were nervous, and for the gun did fret.

But two there were among them, who were worried not at all,
And on these two contestants, the home towns bet their all.

The same two men were rivals, from the small towns up the line,
Mudville and little Bingville had been rivals for quite a time.

From the days of old time baseball, when Casey stood at bat
And hearkened to the multitude, then grinned and doffed his hat.

So Sol Perkins would run for Bingville, and strive to win the meet,
With "Baseball" Casey's brother, from Mudville, hard to beat.

Well, the starter yelled, "get ready," and then he yelled, "get set."
When the roar of his toy cannon, well, it's echoing 'round there yet.

The pace at first was easy, for the miler for position feels,
And Mudville sought out second place, with Bingville at his heels.

'Bout fifteen runners made the start, and all had vowed to place,
But they knew before they started that it sure would be some race.

And meanwhile back in Mudville, by the phone in the general store
A crowd began to gather, that each moment swelled to more.

But back again to racing, with Casey's brother running well,
Two quarters of the mile had passed the crowd began to yell.

And Sol from Bingville hears the noise, and with Casey at his heels, Opens up another notch, and the guy in first place yields.

And now they reach the quarter post, the gun barks "One more lap."
With Bing and Mudville neck to neck, the race would be no snap.

For Sol had trained all winter, and Casey'd followed suit,
And though they'd both showed lots of speed, they had a lot for boot.

Now the crowd begins to roar, the quarter's just half done,
And a guy up in the bleachers chirps, "Just look at them birds run."

Well, Casey crowds poor Bingville hard, and now he takes the lead,
The tape is looming close ahead, they show a burst of speed.

With Mudville leading by a yard, but Bingville past him slipped,
For Casey struck a clinker, and thus poor Mudville tripped.

There's a phone in the town of Mudville,
On the wall in the general store,
The phone that brought the bitter news,
That Mudville's heartstrings tore.

That poem took some space, but then it covers a mile.

Our Girl.

She says with the advent of spring she notices that the co-eds are using the lawn Mo'er.

The Royal Order of Kerosene Burners.

As far as he can see the meet means the opportunity for the guy from this town and the bird from down the tracks to meet and get lit.

WILL APPEAL DECISION OF FRATERNITY COUNCIL

Interpretation of "Letter Man" Rule May Cancel Victory in Basketball.

Sigma Chi fraternity will appeal to a faculty board the decision of the interfraternity council in canceling the victory won last season in basketball because of having played a letter man, it was announced today by members of the fraternity.

The faculty board of appeal is composed of Dean C. W. Leaphart, Dean A. L. Stone, Dr. J. X. Newman, Professor P. C. Phillips and Professor E. L. Freeman. The date for hearing the case has not yet been set.

The specific offense charged is that Sigma Chi played Larry Meyers, a letter man from George Washington University in violation of the interfraternity ruling barring "letter men."

The action of the council occurred at a special meeting Friday evening and followed the barring of Kenneth Simmons, a Yale letter man, and member of the Phi Delta Theta tennis team, at a meeting Friday afternoon when the letter man rule was interpreted to mean any man "who had won his letter in collegiate competition."

It is claimed by the Sigma Chis that at the time Meyers played no such interpretation of the rule had been made and that the action of the council is retroactive. Others insist that the rule is plain and that the words "letter man" need no further qualification to include men who have won their letters at other institutions.

S-I-N-G

S. O. S. to Be Held Next Thursday.

"We are going to have the first S. O. S. of the spring, Thursday evening," said Yell King Hughes yesterday. "Of course, that is making allowance for good weather."

Mr. Hughes stated that he wants a large attendance, not only because it is the first S. O. S. held in the spring, but to make it more impressive to the track meet contestants and visitors.

"Those students who have decided to run for the office of Yell King will be called upon to lead yells at this meeting," he said.

WOMEN VOTE TODAY ON W. S. G. A. CANDIDATES

W. S. G. A. elections are being held today in Main hall from 9 to 4 o'clock. The primary elections were held in April and the following members of the organization were nominated for the offices: Mary X. McCarthy, Irma Stark and Florence Sanden for president; Solvay Andresen, Catherine Hauck and Catherine Small for vice president; Rita Jahreis and Doris Gally for secretary; Helen Newman, Genevieve Petzoldt and Eleanor Fergus for treasurer.

Tonight at 8:30 all the women enrolled in the University and faculty women will meet in Main hall auditorium to prepare for the inaugural ceremony which will take place on the oval at 8:30.

This is the first time that a celebration of this kind has taken place in honor of the new officers, but it is expected that it will become a tradition, according to Lillian Christensen, the president of W. S. G. A.

The nature of the ceremony has been kept a secret from everyone except those actually taking part in it. The University band has been secured to furnish the music, and the girls' Glee club to lead in the singing.

LAWYERS ARE GRANTED PETITION TO NATIONAL

A charter of Phi Delta Phi, international legal fraternity, has been granted to Pi Delta Alpha, local law fraternity, according to a telegram received Saturday afternoon from Indianapolis, at which place the Phi Delta Phi convention was held on May 5 and 6. Installation will take place in the near future.

Active members of Pi Delta Alpha are: Raymond Nagle, William Jameson, Thomas Colton, Jack Southwick, David Smith, Paul Smith, Edward L.
Platt, Eugene Harpole, W. K. Brown,
Keith Brown, Donovan Worden, Alva
Rees, Clyde Murphy, Brice Toole, Vilder Popham, Lloyd Swords, George Howard, and Leo Stewart. There are also 45 alumni members.

his home in Helena.

SPORT SPARKS

Larry Higbee is certainly going good this season. He let Idaho down yesterday with four hits.

And Idaho, while not a terrible slugging outfit, is not a gang of toothpick wielders when it comes to batting.

The Vandals broke even with Whitman, and smothered W. S. C. so badly that the Gem State rooters began to get a bit cocky.

But they shouldn't be now. Nor tomorrow, either.

Perk has a lot to worry about on this trip. There are two injured men who must take their places in the lineup every game. Jimmy Murphy spiked himself in the game with Mt. St.
Charles, and Joe Kershner split a finger in a game here last week on the City league diamond. And, worse than either of these accidents, Perk twisted an ankle, which has bothered him before, at the plate Saturday evening in the game between the Rochester and the Highlanders.

The Wrecking Crew is on the job again this year. Witness what they did to Idaho yesterday, not to speak of what the Mountaineers suffered here Saturday afternoon.

We actually felt sorry for Keane and Commers, the Mt. St. Charles pitchers.

Bob Egan surely didn't waste any time skipping through the 440-yard dash. His time was 52. That's cutting it down toward the world's record time.

Six men at the station Sunday to see the team off—wonderful spirit!
Let's pep it up a little, at least, when they return from Seattle.

ALPHA PHI TEAM WINS BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

Coming up from behind in a contest that was anybody's game until the sixth inning, Alpha Phi defeated Delta Gamma in baseball 30 to 17 yesterday winning the inter-organization tournament championship.

The game was the most exciting of the tournament series, and both teams at times played good ball. Delta Gamma took the lead in their half of the first inning, bringing in 7 runs to 2 for Alpha Phi, and kept the lead until the fourth when Alpha Phi got 8 runs and Delta Gamma failed to score. In the fifth Delta Gamma scored 3 runs, regaining the lead.

In the sixth inning Alpha Phi drove home nine runs, giving her a lead which Delta Gamma could not overcome. But three batters faced Sol Andresen, Alpha Phi pitcher, in this and the seventh innings. Quick work on the part of Gretchen Muckler, catcher for Alpha Phi, retired two and Sol fanned the third. Delta Gamma failed to score in her half of the seventh, while Alpha Phi got five runs, making the final score 30 to 17.

Doris Haviland and Audrey Burt, batteries for Delta Gamma, played a good game. Marion Carver, short stop, fielded her position well and got three runs for her team.

The Alpha Phi team played well as a whole with Gretchen Muckler, Sol Andresen and Beulah Trotter doing especially good work.

By winning the tournament this year
Alpha Phi retains the silver cup awarded by the A. S. U. M. for the first time last year, and won by them at that time. The cup is a five-year one to be awarded permanently to the team winning it three times.

INSPECTING OFFICER PRAISES LOCAL UNIT

Colonel Falls Will Inspect
State College Unit
This Week.

"This is my first visit to the Reserve Officers Training Corps at the University of Montana and I am agreeably surprised and pleased," declared Colonel Moor N. Falls of the Ninth Corps area, after formal inspection of the local unit yesterday morning on Dornblaser field.

"Lieutenant Colonel Ralph B. Lister of the Infantry school at Fort Benning, Ga., and Major Stewart A. Howard of the infantry in the adjutant general department at Scofield Barracks, Honolulu, H. T., are taking great interest in the work at Montana State University and I now realize just why," continued Colonel Fall. "You have a wonderful place, good, clean cut and worthwhile.

Good Showing.

"The men in the local unit remind me much of the personnel of the old First Montana, with whom I had the pleasure of serving alongside in the Philippines back in '99."

Colonel Falls leaves Missoula for the state college at Bozeman this week where he will hold inspection of the R. O. T. C. unit there. Later he will inspect the Utah unit. He will then visit Nevada.

Colonel Falls visited Missoula first 20 years ago. He has always taken much interest in Montana and expressed the desire that he could arrange his plans so that he could visit Montana State University twice each year.

No Cut in R. O. T. C.

In reference to the rumors that the R. O. T. C. units would be affected by the regular army cut Colonel Falls said that both houses of the United States congress were back of training of this caliber for university and college students and that no cut is predicted.

Opinion, he said, seemed to favor the compulsory military training for first year students.

Before leaving for a visit at Fort Missoula, Colonel Falls stated that the R. O. T. C. here would receive anything necessary in the line of equipment to carry on the work.

The inspection was held at 11 o'clock this morning and after passing in review, competitive drill was carried on for the remainder of the hour. A ranking will be made after a completion of the tour of inspection and the three colleges whose units make the best showing will be given a title of honor, entitling each member of the unit to wear a gold star on the left sleeve.

RHODES APPLICATIONS WILL LEAVE FRIDAY

Those students who are seriously considering applying for a Rhodes scholarship should hand their names to the committee in charge, composed of Dr. R. H. Jesse, W. E. Schreiber and Professor J. E. Kirkwood. This should be attended to as soon as possible as the choice of four candidates must be in the hands of the state board of education on October 7.

From these four candidates and the candidates from all the other state schools one will be selected who will receive the scholarship which is awarded every two years.

Professor Bishop of the Bishop school of dancing gave a demonstration for the women at Craig hall last week. The demonstration included both ballroom and aesthetic dancing. Mr. Bishop also demonstrated the Apache waltz, the Argentine tango and other similar dances.

IDA BENJAMIN WINS MEMORIAL CONTEST

Adalouie McAllister and Gladys Robinson Take Second and Third in Joyce Memorial.

"Frozen Flowers," a short story written by Miss Ida Benjamin, a senior in the University, won first place in the Annie Lewis Joyce memorial contest. From the decisions of the 10 judges of which eight are members of the English faculty and two of the journalism faculty, Miss Benjamin's story received five firsts, two seconds and a fourth. The story appeared in the November issue of The Frontier. Those who wish to read the story may obtain the November issue at the library.

Second place goes to Miss Adalouie McAllister, a senior, for her verse "From the Hillside." This verse will appear in the May Frontier. Miss Gladys Robinson, a junior, took third place with a sketch entitled "Morning."

"While the story is on a theme that has been much used and the means of developing it are not fresh, the character of Mrs. Sperry has been imaginatively understood and presented, the action, as well as the existing conditions spring from character. The background and setting are genuine. The reader emotionally justifies Mrs. Sperry's actions and yet does not too harshly condemn her. The story has social as well as individual significance," said Professor H. G. Merriam, head of the English department.

In criticism of Miss McAllister's verse Mr. Merriam said, "It is colorful, fragrant, simple in expression, homely in sentiment and of some human significance in thought. The last stanza, with its flouting of the ominous warning of nature under the very urge of nature itself is all too human. The reader is in sympathy with the rebellion. The versification is imperfect, in the first stanza the second line has a shortened rhythm, and in the second stanza the third line contains a shortened rhythm. The second line of the first stanza is rather hackneyed. But the lyric quality is strong and the sentiment human."

Of Miss Robinson's sketch Professor Merriam said, "It expresses the 'on-goingness' of life and a person's quiet acceptance of one of life's facts, death. There is a fine economy of words in the expression that gives poignancy to the sketch. The writer knows a great deal more about the persons and the situation than she writes down; hence there is a weightiness given to the incident."

The May issue of The Frontier, containing both the verse and the sketch which took second and third places, will be out Thursday morning.
