AREA FOOTBALL HERO APPEARING IN SATELLITE GAME

MISSOULA, Mont. —

Sophomore wide receiver Etu Molden of Sacramento, Calif., has become an impact player at The University of Montana in Missoula. He can be seen Saturday, Nov. 20, when the 8-2 Grizzlies take on their arch-rivals, the Montana State University Bobcats of Bozeman, at 12:05 p.m. Mountain Standard Time.

Area fans may watch the game at a 1999 Montana Power Classic Griz/Cat Satellite Party, to be held at McGee's, 5623 Sunrise Blvd., in Sacramento.

On Nov. 6 against Cal Poly, Molden reeled in a game-high eight catches for 61 yards. His one-handed grab in the end zone with 2:55 left in the game gave UM a 28-14 lead. His performance resulted in him being named UM's Big Sky Player of the Week nominee.

The Nov. 20 football game will be the 99th meeting of the Grizzlies and the Bobcats. A win would give the Grizzlies the Big Sky Conference title and an automatic playoff berth.
