GALLUP STUDENT HONORED AT UM RECEPTION

MISSOULA--

A Gallup, N.M., student was among those recognized at a reception held recently for American Indians in the Graduate School and School of Law at The University of Montana.

LaDonna Carlisle was honored for her academic achievements at the annual reception, which took place in the Davidson Honors College lounge.

William Old Chief, Blackfeet Tribal Council chairman, was the guest speaker. Other guests included Carol Meyers, director of the Missoula Indian Center; Janet Robideau, project director of Indian People's Action; UM President George Dennison; faculty and staff; and friends and family members.

Carlisle, a member of the Navajo Nation, is pursuing a master of science degree in natural resource management. She earned a bachelor of science degree in biology in 1997 and a bachelor of applied science degree in 1998, both from New Mexico State University. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Carlisle of Gallup.

Forty-five Indian students are enrolled in The University of Montana's graduate and law programs.
