Lucille Lucas
ASUM Secretary

Excused: Doug Washington.
WHEREAS, former Governor of Wyoming Stanley K. Hathaway's environmental record has been one of partnership with industry, rampant development of Wyoming's natural resources, and disregard for the impacts of such development on the land and people of Wyoming, and

WHEREAS, under the governorship of Stanley Hathaway, industries have been led to that state; and he has supported efforts to weaken Wyoming's proposed air quality regulations, and has advocated two escape clauses for new industries siting in Wyoming, and

WHEREAS, in 1971 Hathaway proposed a bill that would set up procedures to dam the scenic upper Green River in order to divert water across the state to the coal development areas, and

WHEREAS, Hathaway has favored the selling of federal public lands to private and commercial interests and has in the length of his term leased over one million acres of Wyoming's coal leases, which represents every acre of land owned by the state with a potential for coal, in spite of the fact that the Department of Interior has wisely imposed a moratorium on leasing of federal coal, and

WHEREAS, former Governor Hathaway has been quoted as saying that "man cannot live by clean air or water alone," and in January of 1972 stated that "the importance of mining to Wyoming's economy outweighs possible ecological hazards as far as the state's chief executive is concerned," and

WHEREAS, Hathaway's tenure in office has seen Wyoming transformed from a state famous for its wildlife, wilderness, and wide open space to a state notorious for its coal boom towns, and lax environmental regulations.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Associated Students of the University of Montana that Mr. Hathaway has not proven himself qualified to oversee most of the nation's federal lands including national parks, mineral resources, and public lands, and we adamantly oppose his nomination to the position of Secretary of Interior.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution shall be forwarded to the Honorable Senate Majority Leader, Mike Mansfield, and to the Honorable Senator Lee Metcalf.
