be attached to the grade for each quarter save the last of the course when recorded.

'(c) Continuous courses giving completed credit. Such courses may be given in any quarter of the year and should be designated by the same number for the entire course. The letters a, b, and c, should be attached to the number to designate the work of each quarter, but "n" should not be attached to the grade recorded for any quarter. When a component part of the course is given in the summer quarter, it should be designated thus: S 11b, etc. '
