FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

The climax of Montana State University's Homecoming weekend, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 and 2, will be the traditional gridiron battle between the Grizzlies and the University of Idaho Vandals for possession of the Little Brown Stein, slated at 1:30 p. m. Saturday, Oct. 1, on Dornblaser Field.

Advance registrations for the three-day celebration are coming in at a brisk pace from alumni and other Grizzly boosters, according to alumni chairman Charles Johnson, Missoula, and student chairmen Marlys Nelson, Spokane, and Jack Griffith, Missoula. Registrations will also be accepted Friday and Saturday of Homecoming weekend at various campus stations, they noted.

The Silver Anniversary dinner for returning members of the class of 1935, set for 5:30 p. m. at the Florence Hotel, will be a feature of a Friday schedule that includes the coronation of the Homecoming Queen at a singing-on-the-steps at 7:30 p. m., a Law School smoker at 8 p. m. and an Alumni Roundup program in the University Theater at 8:30 p. m. A pregame warm-up is scheduled for 8:30 p. m. at the Missoula Elks Club.

The festivities will continue Saturday, with the Homecoming parade at 9:30 a. m. and the game at 1:30 p. m. highlighting the day's events. Saturday's program also includes two special events for the class of 1910 - a wakeup breakfast at the Florence Hotel at 8 a. m. and the Golden Anniversary dinner at the Lodge at 6:30 p. m.

Also scheduled for Saturday are an alumni-faculty luncheon at 11:30 a. m. and open house at sororities, fraternities and residence halls at 4:30 p. m. A quarterbacks breakfast at 9 a. m. Sunday at the Florence Hotel will wind up Homecoming activities for 1960.
