4. Upon presentation by the Secretary of old business, a motion was adopted that the election of the committee provided for in the previous regular meeting be held after disposition of other business.

*Welfare
Committee*

The President stated that it was his understanding that the new Welfare Committee superceded the original committee, and that the functions of the new committee would be those assigned by the Faculty at its meetings on March 11, 1919, and March 9, 1920, and such other functions as might be assigned to it later. No objection being made, it was so ordered.

5. The Secretary announced that reports of unsatisfactory scholarship were due at 9:00 A. M. Monday, April 19th.

6. Petitions from the following students were received:

Swearingen, T. G., that his restricted elective requirement in History or Economics be reduced from nine to six credits. Recommended by the Committee on Admission and Registration. Approved.

Scherck, George., to substitute credits in other subjects for required language other than English. Recommended by the Committee on Admission and Registration. A motion was made and seconded to approve the petition. Motion lost.

7. The Secretary stated for the information of the Faculty that the Committee on Admission and Registration had informally approved a proposal that seniors accepted as candidates for graduation at the end of the summer quarter be permitted to wear academic costume and march to commencement exercises with the graduates. The President stated that this procedure would be followed if there was no objection by the faculty, and none was made at this time.

8. The Secretary reported that the following new course had been approved by the University Curriculum

12. Rules for conducting of examinations, recommended by Scholarship Committee:

- I. All examinations shall be conducted in uniform manner according to the following rules:
 1. The instructor or his accredited representative shall be present during the whole examination period.
 2. Students writing on the same subject shall be seated in alternate seats.

3. Students shall not bring to the examination room any books, note-books or papers, except as specifically directed by the instructor.

4. All examinations shall be written on official blue books inspected by the instructor just previous to the examination. (The committee recommends that the university furnish the blue books.)

5. a. At the end of the examination paper each student shall write the following: "I have neither given nor secured help during this examination," and sign his name.

b. No paper shall be graded unless it contains this statement.

6. a. All examination papers must be corrected and graded.

b. Examination papers shall be held until the end of the quarter for inspection by students or returned to students at the discretion of the instructor.

II. All regularly scheduled examinations shall be held only at the times specified by the schedule committee.

Moved and seconded to amend by striking out clauses I5ab. Motion was lost.

Moved and seconded to postpone action on the recommendation until the next regular meeting of the Faculty, and that the members of the Faculty be requested to send to the Committee suggestions not later than April 20th. Motion adopted.

14. A motion to proceed to the election of the members of the committee referred to in Section 4 (above) was adopted.

Motion was made, seconded, and adopted that each member vote for five persons, that ballots which contained more or less than five be not counted, that the ten highest in the first ballot be voted on in the next ballot, and that the majority in any ballot should elect.

*Welfare
Committee*

The chairman appointed the following tellers: Lennes, Orbeck, Phillips.

In response to an inquiry, the President ruled that regulations of the faculty concerning eligibility for voting should govern in this election. A motion was then adopted that all members of the faculty be permitted to vote in this election.

The President asked that the members of the faculty in preparing their ballots follow the provisions of the action providing for the committee, and place the names of three professors and two assistant professors on their ballots.

A motion was adopted that the rank of associate professor be counted for the purpose of this election as the rank of professor.

The faculty then proceeded to cast ballots, and the tellers announced the election on the first ballot of the following persons as members of the committee: Professors Scheuch, Daughters, Lennes and Assistant Professors Buckhous and Graff.

15. There being no further business before the faculty, the meeting adjourned.

J. S. Sisson
