APPOINT COMMITTEE FOR INTERSCHOLASTIC

Bulletins for Meet are Mailed to the High Schools; Pennants are Requested.

Committees have been appointed to manage the Twentieth Annual Interscholastic track meet which will be held in Missoula from May 8 to 12. Dr. J. P. Rowe has been named as chairman, and Dr. R. H. Jesse vice-chairman. The other committees are: W. E. Schreiber, athletics and general manager; Dr. M. J. Elrod, transportation; T. C. Spaulding, entertainment of men; Mrs. Harriet Sedman, entertainment of women; J. W. Howard, declamation; and A. S. Merrill, publicity and program.

Bulletins announcing the meet were mailed Saturday to 100 high schools which are expected to compete. The schools have been requested to send their pennants, which will be displayed on Higgins avenue, at the contests and the final night when awards are made.

The first interscholastic track meet was held in 1904. Hiram Conibear, who came here from the University of Chicago where he was a trainer for Coach Stagg, was the original proponent of the idea. Coach Conibear developed the football team that beat the Aggies 79-0, and as crew coach at the University of Washington developed the Conibear stroke which Yale is using since seeing the merits of the stroke at Poughkeepsie last summer.

PHARMACY SCHOOL COULD SUPPLY SCHOOL MEDICINE

Dean Mollet Says Student Dispensers Make Remedies for Ailments.

"Some day in the future the Montana school of pharmacy will furnish the health service with a big percentage of the ordinary medicines and pills that are used by the students," said Dean Mollet of the pharmacy school, yesterday. "To date, the class in dispensing under faculty supervision has furnished the service with several hundred remedies for minor ailments.

"At the present time the school is not equipped to handle all the needs of the health service, and as the University has not as yet a school physician to make out the necessary drug prescription it cannot supply all the medicines used by the health department. Many of the larger universities in the country, including Minnesota, Washington, Iowa, depend on their pharmacy schools for all the medicines used by the health department. Each year the health service could be saved a large expenditure if our school was equipped to handle the situation."

MISS OKEY VISITS HERE.

Dr. Ruth Okey, acting head of the home economics department at the University of California, spent Saturday on the campus.

During the day she had a conference with President Clapp regarding the position of professor of home economics at this school.

It meets the first, third and fifth Thursdays of each month from October to May, inclusive. The general topic in the course is the study of mankind.

President Clapp will lead the discussion at the first meeting next quarter which will be at 7:30 p. m., March 29th, room 208 in the Natural Science building. The subject will be "Mind in the Making" by Robinson.

The Montana club of Northwestern university held its first luncheon this year at the North Shore hotel Friday, March 9. At this meeting, Thora Martin of Great Falls was elected secretary-treasurer to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Agnes Spillum of Butte, who graduated in January. President Tom Gonser of Great Falls discussed plans for a joint dance of the Missouri and Montana clubs.

Those present at the luncheon were: Richard Hart, Floyd Wergeland, Tom Gonser, James Cockrill, Robert Sproat, and Thora Martin, all of Great Falls; Grace Homan of Malta, Christine Hilger of Lewistown, Elizabeth Walker of Anaconda, Michael Sullivan of Butte, Joseph Cline, Clark Face and Jesse Painter of Whitehall and Fred Sternagel of Hall.

RADCLIFF-MILLER NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED SATURDAY NOON

Mrs. Faye Radcliff and J. Earle (Burley) Miller were married Saturday morning at the home of Mrs. Harriet Sedman, dean of women.

Mrs. Miller is secretary to the dean of women, and Mr. Miller is professor of history at the University.

FRITZ LEIBER TELLS OF WORK IN SHAKESPEARE

"My favorite role? I'm afraid I can't tell you," said Fritz Leiber, the Shakespearian actor, Monday. "I like them all. At different times I like to play different ones. In some moods Petruchio appeals to me, at other Hamlet, and so on."

The Shakespearian plays that seem to appeal to people most are the ones which are most commonly read, according to the actor. Hamlet, The Merchant of Venice, Julius Caesar, and Macbeth are most popular. Othello does not go so well, although Mr. Leiber says he is able to use effective lighting and that the play can be presented as convincingly as Hamlet.

"Shakespeare's plays are classics, not because they are old, but because they are true to all life," asserted Mr. Leiber. "Any play which does not apply to a specific situation but covers life in any time is a classic and will always survive. However, most of the plays written ten or fifteen years ago do not survive. That is because they were applicable only in those situations."

"I try to make my presentation of these Shakespearian plays as natural as if Shakespeare himself were doing it. There has been too much shouting and overdone effects in most attempts."

He does not think that there has been a revival of interest in Shakespearian drama. It is simply that the public will go to see a good play if they know it is going to be well presented. Proof of this he finds in the many failures of attempts to put on Shakespeare's plays.

WILMA

Dear Doc:

I didn't give you the wrong dope on "MIGHTY LAK" A ROSE," did I, Doc? Wasn't she a pip? I'll say she was.

Saw Virginia leading Ronnie out about 11 p. m. His eyes were so red he couldn't see. Come to find out, Sam and Mac had got Virginia to swear off Ronnie for the rest of Lent, so he hadn't been crying at the picture at all.

You know what I told you once that I wasn't ever going to lie to you about any of our pictures, and, take it from me, I never will. Well Doc, this Jack Holt picture "WHITE SATAN SLEEPS," we got coming next Thursday for three days, is just a good picture, plenty of action and excitement and good enough to be featured at any house except the Wilma (you know how 'tis), but the moneyed part of our program for this change is Buster Keaton's latest two-reeler, "THE FROZEN NORTH," and it's a scream from start to finish, Doc, far and away the best comedy he ever made. You're sure to laugh your head off, so get Myrtle and come on, Heinie.

P. S. And, Doc, the D. C.'s tell me they're coming to the 7:30 show Saturday, so if you happen to be there and hear something that sounds like a steam calliope don't be alarmed as you will know it's only Helen and Sally laughing.

WOMEN'S NEW DORMITORY GIVEN FINAL INSPECTION

Work on Men's Building is Nearing Completion.

Final inspection is being made of the women's dormitory on the work under the general contract, which means that this building is considered finished by the general contractor. It will take several days to make this inspection, and probably several days more for the contractor to do the numerous little patching jobs always left over at the end of the work.

The plumbing and heating and electrical contractors are not yet ready to have their work gone over, but it is understood that they will be ready in a short time.

Another month should put the men's dormitory at the stage where the women's is at the present. The work in the men's now consists of painting and setting trim, and paneling the dining room in fir.

GRIZZLY RIFLE TEAM BEATS COLORADO A. C.

The R. O. T. C. rifle team defeated the Colorado Agricultural college cadets in an indoor match by a margin of 523 points, Saturday. The total scores were 2925 against 2402.

From time to time the team will shoot the various ranges again this week to count in a match with the University of Nebraska cadets. Carl Beall, captain of the team, requests members to watch the bulletin board for announcement of schedule and possible changes in lineup.

MISS WHITCOMB LEAVES FOR WASHINGTON, D. C. MARCH 26

Miss Emeline Whitcomb, head of the department of home economics, is leaving the University March 26, for Washington, D. C., where she will take up her work with the Bureau of Education, which is under the Department of the Interior. Miss Whitcomb's work will be of an advisory nature. On April 17 she will speak at Atlanta, Georgia, to the State Home Economics association.

She expects to stop one day in Chicago and will be in Washington on Easter. Her work will begin April 2. "I go very reluctantly," said Miss Whitcomb, in speaking of leaving. "I have spent five years and four summer school terms here and am an old timer. I have enjoyed my work here in the University of Montana and am happy to have had the privilege of being here. It is with regret that I go."

A large audience attended the recital given by students of the school of music Sunday afternoon in the auditorium.

Violin solos were given by Bernice MacKeen, Hildegard Weisberg, and Marion Ferguson. Mary Fleming, Russell Stark, Gladys Price and Gertrude Hassler sang. Jean Cowan, Joseph Dunham, and Mary Ryburn played piano solos. Mrs. DeLoss Smith was accompanist.

ALPHA PHI AND KAPPA ARE VODVIL WINNERS

Show is Highly Praised by Critics; Judges Find it Hard to Make Decisions.

Two packed houses greeted the annual presentation of Varsity Vodvil held at the Liberty theater last Friday night. Kappa Kappa Gamma presenting a well polished act "In Ferno" won the loving cup for the best full stage act, while Alpha Phi in "Campus" won the front stage cup. The managerial staff in a statement given out yesterday, place the proceeds for the performance at approximately $500. Due to the fact that all bills are not in yet, a detailed report cannot be given.

High Class Show.

The general consensus of opinion places the show this year as the best ever staged. Each act was a credit to the performers and worthy of a place on a professional circuit. Judges stated that the uniform merit of the acts necessarily made the decisions very close.

Kappa Alpha Theta opened the show with a chorus of busy bakers who shortly demonstrated their ability by bringing in a second chorus of their finished product complete from jelly roll to angel food. Clever dancing featured the act.

Roger Deeney representing Phi Delta Theta next delighted the audience with his "Pouring Out O' a Wee Bit of Scotch." Although it was poured out in notes and dialect rather than glasses, no whit of it was wasted.

D. A. V. MEETING IS HELD AT UNION HALL SATURDAY

Problems of the Vocational Students are Discussed.

More than 90 federal vocational students attended the meeting held Saturday night in Union hall under the auspices of the D. A. V.

Mr. Dickensheets, who is chief of co-operating and rehabilitation, addressed the meeting and spoke on the workings of the Veterans Bureau.

Lief Fredericks, chief of training, spoke on training problems and explained the training program outlined for the coming year. Many men have had complaints and those who presented their claims received recommendations from Mr. Fredericks regarding the adjudication of their individual claims.

Following the settlement of claims the meeting was opened for general discussion and training problems of many individuals were discussed.

MRS. CLAPP ENTERTAINS.

The majors of the Home Economics department were guests of President and Mrs. Clapp at a Saint Patrick's party Saturday evening. After dinner, Mrs. Clapp entertained with Irish folk lore stories and music and President Clapp sang two Gallic songs. Dr. Ruth Okey, acting chairman of the department of Home Economics at the University of California, was a special guest.

ALPHA PHI AND KAPPA ARE VODYIL WINNERS

Deeney responded to several encores.

Iota Nu produced an uproar with a collection of the characters of funny-paperdom. Andy Gump, represented by Howard Doggett, and son Chester, represented by Stanley Dohrman, vied hard for honors with Gus Wilcox as Uncle Walt in uncommonly well costumed array.

"Campusstry," by Alpha Phi, drew much applause with its clever telephone chorus and realism of its astronomy class. The duet by the Misses Andersen and Galvin drew much applause.

"The Gem of the Nile," presented by Alpha Delta Alpha, burlesqued a love affair of Caesar and Cleopatra. Neil McKain as Caesar, and Thomas Mathews as Tumulty, Caesar's secretary, featured the act. Ancient history was flavored with the modern wheezes.

Joe Sweeney and Ralph Stowe representing Sigma Chi entertained with 15 minutes of blackface song and patter.

The deck of a ship at sea furnished the scene of the colorful pirate chorus of Delta Gamma. The caste rules of pirates made even ho-boes unsafe.

Alpha Tau Omega members as Sons of Orpheus produced a program of orchestral numbers, interspersed with a whistling solo and a violin offering, that would have done credit to any program.

The prize winning act presented by Kappa Kappa Gamma concluded the evening's performance with an "In Ferno" that by virtue of its probable realism might well have been entitled "something to think about." A red glow blazed over the devil jury onto the red, bat decorated walls, while Satan took each mortal to task. A well trained chorus gave good support to many able soloists. Helen Newman taking a comedy part, and Kathleen Andrus in a bowery dance, were the particular stars.

Splash!

And the Soph-Frosh Tug-of-War Is Postponed.

We all agree that ice water is a luxury—sometimes, but then it should be used for drink only. Furthermore, we feel that ice water baths are non-essential for the welfare of one's health. It is therefore, our opinion, that someone was mightily lucky that the soph-frosh tug-of-war was postponed indefinitely.

Some say it was on account of lack of water in the slough. Others say it was a truce, that the Irish wanted to observe St. Patrick's Day. But we know why. Listen—ice water is always ice water and the balmy days are coming.

FIVE PAPERS SUBMITTED.

Five students have submitted manuscripts for the Aber oratorical contest. They are: Grover Johnson, Kenneth Simmons, Einar Stromnes, George Boldt, and Matt Pearce. The papers are being considered by the judges at present.

The High Diving Contests Are Over

THE days of seeing how fast you can chase a shaving cream cap down the drain pipe are past. For here is a cap that can't get lost. It's hinged on. Think what a lot of minutes it will save. No matter how carelessly you handle your shaving apparatus, the cap is on to stay.

With a convenience like this cap you might be tempted to use Williams' Shaving Cream whether you cared much for the cream or not. But once you use Williams' you'll like it as well as you do the cap. For Williams' breaks all records for fast softening of the beard. And more, it is good for the skin—soothes it, keeps it in good condition always.

Test a tube of Williams' by judging it on every point you can think of—speed, lather, comfort. See if you don't think it's noticeably better.

Notice the hinged cap. You can't lose it—and the tube hangs up!

Teaching Engineering—a Real Man's Work

"Why are you satisfied to spend your days here when you might be doing bigger and more remunerative work with us?" The speaker was the Vice President of a big corporation, and he was addressing a great chemist.

The man to whom he spoke looked from his study window out over a well-loved campus for several moments before he replied. Finally his answer came, "I guess it's because I am more interested in helping to make men than I would be in just making things."

This thing of building men is one of the most fascinating vocations known. The pleasure that grows out of watching men develop, out of seeing them make effective use of the fundamentals that have been so carefully given them to use—it is doubtful if there can be any pleasure much deeper or more satisfying.

The teacher honors himself in the usefulness of his students. And the teacher of engineering, especially. His laboratory and his materials are in the minds of men. He shows them the right and constructive use of the senses and the memory in securing and storing information. He trains the judgment and the will to analyze and to decide. Little by little he develops the will to do, the ability to turn decision into accomplishment, the quality that always marks the successful engineer, who is a man who gets things done.

Westinghouse, and every engineering business, must acknowledge a deep obligation to those teachers whose training and interest have been an inspiration and a sure foundation for the individual successes that are constantly being recorded. And nothing that men or events may do can deprive the teacher of his rightful share of such triumphs!
