July 15, 1920

1. The postponed regular monthly meeting was held at 4:10 P.M. at the call of President Sisson, who presided.

2. Members present: Ames, Biernan, Coon, Cox, Elrod, Gardner, Geyer, Graff, Heimer, Jesse, Leyda, Lussky, Merriam, Merrill, Miller, Newman, Phillips, Reinhard, Rowe, Scheuch, Schreiber, Sisson, Smith W. C., Thompson, Underwood, Wallin, Westby.

3. The minutes of the meeting of June 8, 1920, were approved.

4. Moved by Rowe, seconded and adopted that examinations for the summer quarter be given, if desired by the instructor, during the regular class periods.

5. The Registrar announced that the forms for grade reports for the first term of the summer quarter could be obtained at the office on the following Monday, that these reports should be made and filed at the office as early as possible, that the student's class card, with the grade indicated, should also be returned with the grade report sheets and that it was preferable that these reports should be handed personally to the Assistant Registrar.

6. Professor Rowe, director of the summer quarter, stated that there should be no changes from the printed schedule in the schedule of classes for the second term without conference with the Director. He also stated that the registration for the second term would take place from Tuesday, July 20, to Friday, July 23, after which time the late registration fee of $2.00 would be charged by the
