LEADERSHIP LUNCHEON BRINGS ALUMNI TO CAMPUS

MISSOULA-

University of Montana alumni will share the secrets of their professional success with current UM students at an upcoming Ask-An-Alum Career Leadership Luncheon.

Students are invited to attend the luncheon, which takes place from noon to 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 20, in the University Center. There is no charge to attend but space is limited and reservations are required. Call 243-4795 by Sept. 18 to reserve a spot.

The luncheon will include an alumni panel discussion of how UM leadership experiences -- such as internships, volunteer work and employment -- can help prepare students for the working world.

Panelists include Thomas Swenson, president of Montana Business Capital; Colleen Rudio, marketing director of Junkermier, Clark, Campanella, Stevens; Realtor John Herring; and Sheila Callahan, general manager of KMSO Mountain FM.

Alumni who are interested in participating in future luncheons may call Sarah Raymond at 243-6150 for more information. Luncheons are scheduled for October, November, February, March and April.

Ask-An-Alum Career Leadership Luncheons are sponsored by UM's Center for Leadership Development and the Office of Career Services.
