BILLINGS STUDENT VIES FOR UM HOMECOMING ROYALTY TITLE

MISSOULA –

A Billings student is vying for the title of 2000 Homecoming queen at The University of Montana this week.

Jessica T. Kobos, former UM student-body president and currently the lone student representative on the state Board of Regents, is part of UM’s Homecoming Royalty Court, from which the king and queen will be selected Friday, Oct. 6. The crowning of the pair will take place during the traditional Singing on the Steps celebration beginning at 7 p.m. in front of Main Hall.

The royalty court will ride in the Homecoming Parade Saturday, Oct. 7, and will be introduced during halftime of the Montana Grizzlies vs. Cal State Sacramento Hornets football game, which begins at 1:05 p.m. in Washington-Grizzly Stadium. This year’s Homecoming theme is the University’s new slogan, “The Discovery Continues.”

Kobos is a senior majoring in political science at UM. A graduate of Billings Central Catholic High School, she is the daughter of Michael and Rebecca Kobos.
