HUMOR HITS UM IN TIME FOR HALLOWEEN

MISSOULA-

Sinister night creatures will be out in force and evil will lurk in the shadows when The University of Montana Department of Drama/Dance presents "Dracula (or) the Musical Mania from Transylvania" this Halloween.

Ten evening performances will kick off with a costume contest Thursday, Oct. 31. Other shows are scheduled for Nov. 1-4 and Nov. 7-11. All performances begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Masquer Theatre of UM's Performing Arts and Radio/Television Center.

Jac Alder and Larry O'Dwyer's new rendition of Bram Stoker's classic tale adds song, spoof and hilarity to the familiar legend. Dr. Seward's beautiful but vapid daughter, Lucy, has fallen ill with a mysterious affliction. Perhaps the condition comes from living adjacent to her father's lunatic asylum, or maybe she's allergic to her excitable fiancé, John Harker. Or it might have something to do with a new neighbor – the tall, dark and handsome Count Dracula.

Tickets are $5 and are available from the box office in the PARTV Center or by calling 243-4581 between 11:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.
