OPTIONAL MEAL PLAN - UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

A.) Students have requested an optional meal purchase plan accommodating 2 desires held by some students:

1.) The desire to be absent from Campus on week-ends.
2.) The desire not to attend the Breakfast meal.

B.) Our recommended options are:

1.) 20 Meals Per Week (Excluding the Sunday evening meal)
   Same as previously offered and accommodating the students who prefer to take the majority of meals on Campus.

2.) 15 Meal Plan (Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner, Monday through Friday) accommodating the student planning to be absent on week-ends.

3.) 10 Meal Plan (Lunch and Dinner only, Monday through Friday) accommodating the student not wishing to eat Breakfast.

4.) Occasional "Extra" Meal
   An occasional extra meal may be purchased at a discount price at the Food Service Office by those students holding a validated optional meal pass. The optional meal pass must be presented to obtain the discount price.

C.) Other qualifications to the use of the optional meal plan:

1.) All Residence Hall students must select one plan, either "A", "B" OR "C".

2.) Resident students must contract for a minimum number of meals for the entire Term. A resident may not go from a 20 Meal Plan to a 15 or 10 during the Academic Term. A resident may, however, go from a 10 Meal Plan to a 15 or from a 15 to a 20 during the Academic Term.

3.) Meal passes are non-transferable.

D.) It is anticipated that additional complication will arise in administering the optional meal plan. Some of which are as follows:
OPTIONAL MEAL PLAN - UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

1.) Issue of three different types of meal pass cards depending on meal option chosen.

2.) Increased meal pilferage. It is recommended that we assess a $3.50 administration fee plus the cost of the meal to any student participating in the mis-use of a Food Service meal pass.

3.) Increased supervision of the line checking procedure.

OPTIONAL MEAL PLAN FINANCES

All costs are reflected in the following areas:

Bonds: All resident students should pay, pro-rata, the annual per student share of Bond costs, regardless of the meal plan selected.

Food: Students opting for fewer meals will have a larger percentage of meal attendance and therefore should assume a higher per day Food cost.

Labor: Labor costs per meal should remain the same regardless of the meal plan selected. Perhaps the student opting for fewer meals should be required to pay their fair share of annual "Fixed Labor" costs (administration, management, supervisors, clerks, secretary). However, it is felt that adding these "fixed" labor costs to the charges for optional meals would have little significance.

Overhead: (Repairs, maintenance, laundry, china replacement - all other operating costs).

Should be computed same as Bonds.

I. Bonds:

1972-73 Bond Commitment $450,825.27 + average # student boarders 2275 = $198.16 per student per year. $198.16 * 230 feeding days per year = $0.8617 per student per day.

The Bond holders were led to believe that all dorm students would share and share alike in meeting the Bond Commitments. Therefore all resident students should pay 100% of their share of bonds.

1.) Plan "A" 20 Meals Per Week

Bond payment remains same as budgeted $ .8617 per student per day.
OPTIONAL MEAL PLAN - STATE OF MONTANA

2.) Plan "B" 15 Meals Per Week (B-L-D, M-F)

Fall Term 1972 # days Monday-Friday = 63 days
Winter Term 1973 # days Monday-Friday = 54 days
Spring Term 1973 # days Monday-Friday = 53 days

Bond Commitment per student per year = $198.16 / 170 days = $1.1656 per student per day.

3.) Plan "C" 10 Meals Per Week (L-D, M-F)

Same as Plan "B" - $1.1656 per student per day.

II.) Food:

1972-73 Food Budget $543,584.00 + average # student boarders 2275 = $238.49 per student per year. $238.49 + 230 feeding days per year = $1.0369 per student per day, or:

Breakfast (20%) Lunch (30%) Dinner (50%) Total (100%)
$ .2073 $ .3112 $ .5186 $1.0372

1.) Plan "A" 20 Meals Per Week

Food cost remains same as budgeted, $1.0372 per student per day.

2.) Plan "B" 15 Meals Per Week (B-L-D-, M-F)

With the optional plan, the percentage of meal attendance will be greater, due to the fact that the students will be allowed to select certain meals only.

If no written request is received by the Dean's Office within the 10-day period, the disciplinary action imposed by the Dean's Office shall become effective and such action shall be final and not subject to further hearing and appeal. Within five days after the conclusion of the hearing, the Court shall render its decision. The decision shall be made by majority vote and the Chairman shall have a vote in all cases. The decision shall contain a finding as to guilt or innocence and a brief statement of the reasons for the decision. Upon a finding of guilt the Court may impose any disciplinary action specified by this code in Article II, Section 2. Copies of the Court's findings, decision and the disciplinary action imposed, if any, shall be furnished promptly to the student, the President of the University, and the Dean's Office.

ARTICLE VIII. Failure to Appear. A student who fails or refuses to appear at a hearing before the Student Court at the time and place scheduled shall be considered to have waived his right to be heard by the Student Court. However, the Student Court is authorized to hear the evidence from those present, to review the charges, and to make such investigations as it may deem necessary. In such cases of failure or refusal to appear, the Student Court is further authorized to decide the guilt or innocence of the student and upon a finding of guilt to impose any disciplinary action specified by this code in Section 2 (b). Such decision shall not be subject to appeal. However, for good cause, the Student Court may extend the time and reschedule the hearing to enable the student to respond to the charges.

ARTICLE IX. Living Unit Courts.

Section 1. Each living unit may establish a court.

Section 2. The members of the living unit court shall be selected according to procedures established by the living unit's constitution or by-laws.

Section 3. Living unit courts shall have authority to hear and decide all cases involving charges of student violation of living unit regulations. Cases may be referred to the living unit by the living unit administrative office or by the Dean of Students.

Section 4. If a violation of a living unit regulation is also a violation of a University regulation, the living unit court may refer the case to the Dean of Students to be handled in accordance with the procedures described in this code.

Section 5. Upon a finding of guilt, the living unit court may issue a written reprimand; may deny the student specified privileges within the living unit; may order termination of the student's University housing contract and require him to move out of the living unit within 30 days; or order restitution as defined in Article II, Section 2 (d). The above sanctions may be imposed by the administrative officer in charge of the living unit if the student elects to have his case handled by the living unit administrative officer.
Section 6. Any decision of the living unit court or the administrative officer of a living unit resulting in the denial of privileges, termination of the student's University housing contract, or an order of restitution may be appealed to the University Student Court by a written, signed request for a hearing in accordance with the procedure provided in Article VI, Section 2 (b) of this code.

Dear Fellow Student Consumer:

Since Ralph Nader's expose of the automobile industry in the 60's there has risen a growing concern for consumer rights and a need for protection of these rights. More people are reading Consumer Reports, and organizations such as Consumer Federation of America and CEPA (Consumer Education and Protection Association) have come into being. President Kennedy began the practice of appointing a special assistant on consumer affairs to advise him, and his successors have continued the practice.

Meanwhile, the American college student was still being subjected to fraud and deception by door-to-door salesmen, auto repairmen, ads for summer jobs overseas, do-it-at-home schemes, and rip-offs by their landlords. Only recently have students realized the need to organize to protect themselves.

During the last year we at Kansas State have established a Consumer Relations Board under the Student Governing Association, and we are proud to say that this consumer protection agency has saved our students over $45,000 in its first year of existence. So pleased were we with the initial results that we published a booklet entitled "University Consumer Protection" which describes the organization and its procedures. Now, five of the six state schools of higher learning in Kansas have a consumer protection agency. And more than 200 universities and colleges across the nation have bought the booklet.

We have received so many follow-up letters from students at colleges and universities that we see a desire for unity and a statement of direction for student consumer protection agencies.

We have, therefore, planned the 1st NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON STUDENT CONSUMER ACTION, May 3-6. Speakers of national prominence in the area of consumer affairs have been invited to participate in the conference. And all of them have accepted. We are asking that you also participate, assuming that you are interested in being a part of this historic event and having a say about the direction of student consumer protection policy.

We would appreciate hearing from you by the 21st of April as there is a limited amount of free housing available. We are asking that each school limit its delegation to three unless special arrangements are made. These should be representatives who can effectively represent your school, participate at the different workshops, and assist you in taking action on your campus. Enclosed is a brochure listing some of the objectives of the conference, the speakers and the workshops planned.
