FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The deadline for registering for Montana State University's Arts Tour to New York City is Oct. 31, according to Joseph Mussulman of the MSU music faculty, one of three tour leaders.

Between their arrival in New York Dec. 15 and their return to Missoula Dec. 24, tour members will visit art museums and attend concerts, ballet, musical comedy shows, drama and opera. Tour members will be accompanied by Firman H. Brown Jr., chairman of the Drama Department; James Leedy, art historian, and Mussulman, director of choral organizations.

The cost of the tour, $380, will include round-trip air fare from Missoula, lodging in New York, seven evening meals, theater and concert tickets and transportation to and from scheduled events, Mussulman said.

The tour is open to anyone interested in the arts and registrants may arrange to receive university credit, Mussulman explained. Oct. 31 is the deadline for registration, he stressed.
