RUBENSTEIN AND
PAUL KOCHANSKI
TO APPEAR JAN. 7VIOLINIST AND PIANIST ARE FIRST OF CONCERT SERIESBoth Musicians Are World-Famous—
Were Engaged Through Efforts of Dean DeLoss Smith

Paul Kochanski, violinist, and Arthur Rubenstein, pianist, will appear at the Liberty theater January 7 on the initial program of the Concert Series of three numbers. Both musicians are world-famous and it is largely through the efforts of Dean DeLoss Smith that they have been engaged.

The great critic, James Gibbons Huneker, has said in describing Rubenstein's performance: "Finger velocity and a staccato, brilliant, incisive with a splendid left hand, are undeniable qualities coupled with a sweet singing touch and a musical temperament; traits sufficient to equip half a dozen pianists."

Mr. Rubenstein has been described as both a giant and a poet of the piano, a dreamer and a doer of mighty pianistic deeds. He is probably one of our greatest interpreters, as he is said to grasp the poetic conceptions that underlie the impressionistic pictures of the music.

Kochanski was invited to this country by Walter Damrosch, being engaged as the assisting artist for a special New York concert of the New York Symphony orchestra. His success was electrical, immediately causing a demand for his services for five additional Metropolitan appearances in recital and with orchestra within the following five weeks.

The Cincinnati Enquirer said of Kochanski: "His tone is wonderfully pure and his playing is marked by a clarity that all violinists do not possess. But what is more, for which the gods be praised, he has a non-skid technique and a G string that vibrates without metallic rasping."

The program follows:

1. Sonate A-major.....Cesar Franck
Allegretto ben moderato
Allegro
Recitativo—Fantasia
Allegretto poco mosso
Messrs. Kochanski and Rubenstein.
2. Concerto—A minor.... Vivaldi-Nachez

MASTERS GOES TO JAPAN
TO WORK ON NEWSPAPER

George E. Masters, who graduated from the University of Montana in 1922, sailed December 7, for a three-year stay in Japan. He expects to supply several midwestern papers with feature material from the Orient while his main work will be with the Japan Advertiser, an American paper published in Tokyo.

He took passage on the S. S. President Wilson with the intention of stopping at Honolulu. From there he will go to Yokohama and he expects to arrive about December 24. He will then go by way of train to Tokyo to take up his duties on the staff of the Japan Advertiser.

Masters is accompanied by two other newspaper men, one of whom was the Tokio and Pekin correspondent for the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The other is a college chum who entered the Missouri school of journalism at the same time as did Masters.

YWCA pledges are due now and should be paid before the Christmas vacation, either to Miss Gwinn or at the telephone booth.

COACHES SHOW INTEREST IN COMING CONFERENCE

Many Letters Coming In From High School Mentors Who Will Attend Dec. 31 to Jan. 2

High school coaches of Montana are showing much interest in the three-day coaches' conference, which will be held at the State University, December 31 to January 2. Coach Stewart has been receiving two answers a day, on the average, to the invitations he sent the coaches to attend the meet. He has not the figures for the total number of high schools heard from, but a large representation is expected.

The meet will be devoted to discussions of coaching methods, basketball rules and plays. Coach Stewart expects to use the Varsity basketball squad during the conference to demonstrate various plays that will be discussed at the meeting.

The dates, December 31 to January 2, were chosen by the Athletic department in order to give all the coaches a chance to attend the meet. No fee will be charged for the instruction at the meet.

Montana scholastic coaches met last fall, August 31 to September 2, at the University for the purpose of discussing and reviewing football coaching methods and plays. This conference proved so successful it was decided to hold the pre-season basketball conference during the holidays.

LAWYERS' SCUFFLE TO BE SCENE OF HILARITY

The Barristers' ball, the annual dance given by the lawyers, will be held tonight at the Winter Garden.

Lounges, floor lamps and rugs have been placed in the hall, and balloons have been strung from the ceiling. These balloons will be let down at 11:30. Late permission has been given for the dance, which will begin at 9 and end at 1. The committee has arranged to have a street car at Donohue's corner at 1 o'clock to take care of the dancers. President C. H. Clapp, Mrs. Clapp, Dean C. W. Leabhart, Chancellor Melvin Brannon, Mrs. Brannon, and the law school faculty will chaperone the dance. Sheridan's six-piece orchestra will furnish the music, and will play for 15 dances, no extras.

W.S.C. MAKING PLANS FOR WINTER CARNIVAL

Washington State College, Dec. 13.—(P.I.N.S.)—While the snow is still holding off in Cougarville, the weather is growing cold rapidly and plans are being made for the winter sports for which Washington State is noted. Dean O. L. Waller, acting president, has announced that plans have been made for a permanent skating rink which can be flooded when necessary, and that work on it would be started soon.

Agitation for a winter sports carnival for this year has been started on the campus. Such a carnival was planned for last year but could not be held on account of poor weather. Plans last year included skiing, coasting, skating, tobogganing, and other winter sports.

HIGH JINX PLANS
SET SAYS HUGHES

Stubs of Theater Tickets Will Grant Admittance to Dance

All plans for Hi-Jinx have been prepared by the committee and, according to Bill Hughes, when the curtain goes up Saturday night at 7:15, the spectators may prepare themselves to see the best Hi Jinx program ever presented.

"A very successful rehearsal was held last night," said Hughes, "which smoothed out all the rough spots and put the cast into first class shape. We're going to put on a real program and give no one cause to resort to the customary practice of throwing stale fruit or other forms of ammunition."

The tickets which have been on sale in Main hall can now be purchased at the Wilma theater. Prices are a dollar, 75 cents and 50 cents. All seats are reserved and seat checks will be good for admission to the dance in Harmony hall after the Hi Jinx program.

HI-JINX IS OLD TRADITION

Although not listed under the traditions of the State University Hi-Jinx is one of the oldest of them. Professors who are quite a tradition in themselves when asked concerning its start said: "Hi-Jinx—oh, they were having it before my day. It was an established precedent when I came here." Red Allen said that it first started in '14 or '15 but it is proved that it went back even before his day.

In 1906 the University band gave a show which they called on "All Nations Show." Each man in the band represented by his dress one of the nations of the world. The next year the Glee club took charge of a show for convocation. This took the form of a skit razzing the faculty and a few prominent members of the student body. Nineteen hundred and eight saw the beginning of our modern Hi-Jinx in a vaudeville which was put on by the different classes. December 17 of the fall of 1909 saw the women of the University, under the leadership of the dean of women, Mary Stewart, putting on the show which is so familiar to the students of today. Both students and faculty were razzed then as now, perhaps more cleverly and again perhaps not so well.

The next year, 1910, the men offered to put on the show, and the custom of alternating in producing Hi-Jinx was begun.

Only Twenty-four Wearers of the Coveted 'M' on Montana's Campus

But 24 lettermen grace the Montana campus. This includes the 16 new football "M" men. "The luckiest guys in school," some of us are prone to believe. "Can't give those birds any credit just because they are athletically inclined," we say. "Why should we look up to a man just because he is a born athlete?"

Anyone who has done any thinking on the matter knows that the above line of hop is all wrong. The 24 men are responsible to a great extent for the athletic success of the University, which is no small task in itself. They spend hours every day perfecting themselves in team play, going through the same old grind, night after night, working till they are ready to drop, while the fellow who wants to take all credit away from them spends his afternoons lying on his shoulder-blades in an easy chair idly smoking cigarettes.

The University has not had so few lettermen in a long time, and at first glance the figures seem rather discouraging to Montana athletics. However, a brief review of the facts shows that several lettermen have won "Ms" in more than one sport. This puts an entirely different aspect on things.

The football lettermen are: G. Dahlberg, O. Dahlberg, Maudlin, Meagher, Moe, Hyde, Shaffer, B. Plummer, Johnson, T. Plummer, Sugrue, Christie, Ilman, Griffin, Silvernale and Taylor.

Sixteen men have made letters in football. The list of basketball lettermen adds but two new names to this list, as the two Dahlbergs, who are basketball men, also made their letters in football. Badgley and McDonald are the other two lettermen in basketball. A study of the Montana track team brings forth no

ARTISTS WILL DANCE
EARLY NEXT QUARTER

"The Art League ball, the first University dance to be given after the holidays, promises to be one of the big dances of the year," stated Josephine Modlin, president of the Art league, yesterday. "Unique decorations which will be appropriate in the Winter Garden, solo dances and moonlight waltzes will feature the dance." Sheridan's five-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

HAVE NO SUPERVISION
IN ENGLISH COLLEGES

Are No Debate and Athletic Coaches or Any Faculty Supervisors,
Says Freeman

"English universities have no athletic coaches, no YWCA or YMCA secretaries, no faculty supervisors for literary magazines or newspapers, no debate coaches, no dramatic coaches," stated Professor E. L. Freeman in an interview yesterday. "All of these activities go on with surprising virility under student direction."

"There is a great deal of variety in the academic methods, as there is in everything else English, but there are no grade curves, no quizzes, no yellow slips, and in the older universities, even no class attendance records. There are, however, severe final examinations. On the results of these the students are ranked, with various 'honour' degrees. Oxford is the only university, I believe, that is still using the tutorial method to a great extent. In the newer universities like London, where there are many more students in proportion to the number on the staff, and many more students from the lower classes, more frequent examinations are held and attendance on classes is more or less compulsory. Practically all the work done in classes is by the lecture method. But a student does not attend half as many lectures as American students do. The ordinary course in the English university curriculum is for but one or two hours a week. Most of the staff members lecture from four to six times a week. This arrangement gives the students time for a good deal of reading. It was my impression that the average London University senior had read at least twice as much in general fields as I had by the end of my college career."

NOTICE.

After this week there will be no YWCA meetings until next quarter.

FORMAL OPENING WELL ATTENDED BY VISITORS

The formal opening of the residence halls Tuesday evening was well attended. This was the first opportunity that has been given the people of Missoula to inspect the two new residence halls.

The guests were received at the west entrance of North hall. They were greeted there by Chancellor and Mrs. Melvin Brannon, Dr. C. H. Clapp, Mrs. Harriet Sedman, Miss Grace Mountcastle, and Miss Anna Beckwith. The guests were conducted through the building and given an opportunity to inspect the different floors, including the dining room and kitchen.

From North hall they were directed to Craig hall, where they were given an opportunity to inspect these buildings. A receiving line consisting of Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Elrod, Miss Carrie MacLay, Miss Edna Geiger, and Dr. Daughters, welcomed the guests.

At South hall the guests were received by Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Jesse, Miss Inez Bozarth, J. B. Speer, and Charles Nickolaus, and were conducted through the building by some of the residents of the hall.

Punch was served to the guests at South hall. An orchestra furnished music for the guests at North hall.

AGGY MARKSMEN ACCEPT
UNIVERSITY'S CHALLENGE

Montana State College has accepted the challenge of the ROTC rifle team, according to Captain Jack W. Howard who is coach of the men's team. The match will be shot January 19, a week after the University of Minnesota shoot. Two other matches have been scheduled, one with the University of Oregon, February 16, and the University of Nebraska, March 15.

"The progress of the co-eds is as well as can be expected," said Major G. L. Smith. Two more matches have been arranged with the University of Washington, March 1 and Washington State College on the same date. No answers have been received to the other challenges sent out. Altogether the girls have seven matches scheduled, commencing February 16.

CHANCELLOR BRANNON

Chancellor M. Brannon of the Greater University of Montana, has been a campus visitor during the week.

While in Missoula the chancellor was present at the formal opening of the residence halls. He also addressed several faculty and student groups.

HEALTH CONDITION IS GOOD
AT UNIVERSITY THIS QUARTERFew Cases of Contagious Diseases
Appear on University Campus

"Health conditions at the University as a whole have been very good this quarter," announced Mrs. A. F. LeClaire, University nurse, yesterday.

Mrs. LeClaire stated that there have been very few cases of contagious disease, these being almost all scarlet fever cases. However, there are no new developments along that line at present.

In addition, there have been several cases of grippe and severe colds, but the policy has been to remove students suffering with colds to the hospital.

HALL ELECTED CAPTAIN OF WHITMAN TEAM

Whitman College, Dec. 12.—(P.I.N.S.)—Frank Hall, for the past two years star fullback of the varsity, and substitute for Morris on the 1921 eleven, was elected captain of the 1924 team at a meeting of this year's 14 letter men held last week.

Sixteen varsity football men were granted letters and 16 freshmen were awarded numerals at a meeting of the athletic board yesterday afternoon.

Those to receive letters were: B. Plummer, Shaffer, Hyde, Maudlin, Meagher, O. Dahlberg, G. Dahlberg, O. K. Moe, Taylor, Silvernale, Ilman, T. Plummer, Johnson, Christie, Sugrue and Griffin.

Shaffer, Maudlin, G. Dahlberg, Silvernale, T. Plummer, Johnson, and Christie have all made letters previous to this season. These men all had very successful seasons and lived up to all that was expected of them. Their gridiron prowess is known to all. The new men, however, deserve much credit also.

Ben Plummer, at center, came through gallantly when called upon to play center when Shaffer was hurt in midseason. His passing was almost faultless, and he played a whale of a game in the other departments.

"Cammy" Meagher, at tackle, was perhaps the hardest fighter on the Grizzly line. He went at top speed all the time and when he smacked 'em they remembered it. He made a berth on the all-state team. Nuf sed.

Oscar Dahlberg's work at end could hardly be improved upon. They just couldn't go 'round him. He also made the all-state eleven.

Little need be said about the work of Ted Ilman. The big fellow couldn't be stopped and his great driving power sent him through the opposition for long gains time after time. He was picked for all-state fullback.

Sugrue and Griffin, backfield men, played high class ball whenever they were in there. Griffin was a hard boy to stop when he went plunging through the line and Pat kept the opposing ends plenty worried.

Taylor and Moe, linesmen, could always be depended upon when sent into the game.

The fresh football men to receive numerals are: Crimmins, Kelly, Place, Ritter, Sweet, Levine, DeVeber, Burrell, Kain, Cogswell, Fletcher, H. Varney, Schell, Thompson, Coyle and Cochran.

This is the crew of warriors who hung up the northwest championship. Why say more?

FRATERNITIES LIMITED TO SIX DANCES YEARLY

If the recommendation of the Pan-Hellenic and Interfraternity councils receives the approval of the deans' conference the controversy over the limitation of the fraternity social calendar will come to a close. The recommendation on the part of the two councils is a result of an inquiry as to why the dean's conference advised that a stipulated number of dances be initiated by the fraternities themselves rather than an arbitrary ruling by the conference.

The recommendation of the joint action of the two governing groups of the fraternities is as follows: "Be it resolved: That the Pan-Hellenic and Inter-Fraternity Councils officially designate for the fraternities at the University of Montana the limited number of six (6) dances for the school year of 1923-24; it being understood that the fireside is a separate function from the dance and not included in this limitation."

The decision as to the number of dances to be given by each fraternity for the year 1923-24 is a result of the advice of the dean of women which stipulated six as a justifiable number.

The Women and Hi-Jinx

TOMORROW night the men of the University present Hi-Jinx. Those in charge of the affair have made a conscientious effort to raise Hi-Jinx out of the rut into which it has fallen. They have attempted to make it a real entertainment instead of a rough-house. They have tried to make it a show of talent and humor; not the usual insult to the opposite sex.

However, they do not pretend to eliminate the rivalry between the sexes in the production of Hi-Jinx. In the past, the competition has usually taken place the night of the show. The audience has attempted, by hissing, hooting and yelling, to drown out the efforts of those on the stage. As a result, whatever merit the shows have had, has been lost and the Hi-Jinx custom has come to a stage where it either must undergo a radical change or be done away with altogether. As it falls to the men to produce Hi-Jinx this year, on them lies the responsibility of putting on a show of sufficient merit to warrant the continuance of Hi-Jinx as a tradition.

The women of the University also have a responsibility in making Hi-Jinx a lasting tradition. They can either make or break the effort to make Hi-Jinx a show worth while. Of course they can try to justify an attempt to break up the show this year on the grounds that the men spoiled their show last year. That would be a very logical excuse if they do not intend to help put Hi-Jinx on a higher level. It lies with them to make the Hi-Jinx tradition a fiasco or help raise the whole affair to a higher plane.

The last four Hi-Jinx productions have been marked by hysterics on the part of the women, near-fights on the part of the men, and poor sportsmanship on the part of both; all of which has been the cause of much comment on the University from townspeople and other outsiders who have witnessed the spectacles.

This year must mark the passing of the old vocal and vegetable remonstrance from the audience, or it will mark the passing of Hi-Jinx. The affair can easily be raised to a higher standing if both genders will confine competition to the stage and make it a question of who can put on the better show; not one of who can raise the worse rough-house.

A Lay-Off

BECAUSE members of the Kaimin staff, like other students of the University, feel an approaching injustice—in fact, several approaching injustices, they have unanimously decided to leave the campus in utter darkness in regard to the news of the inside and outside world by making this the last edition of the Kaimin until after the Christmas vacation.

Since the opening of school this fall the Kaimin editorial staff has openly advocated a policy of study. In the first issue it told the students to begin hitting the ball. Since then it has advised the student body on how to get grades by honest effort instead of "playing the prof," on how to come back after receiving yellow slips, and in general has given much valuable advice on scholastic endeavor, which, if followed, should put the entire student body in the upper four per cent on Doc Jesse's grade chart.

In its characteristic spirit of self-sacrifice, the Kaimin staff has rendered this invaluable service to University students at the expense of its own studies. As the staff wishes to return to the University next quarter and offer much more valuable advice on the proper methods of educating one's self, it has begun to feel a certain curiosity as to the contents of several high-priced textbooks which, so far, have received very little attention. Hence the lull before the battle.

Hoping to see you after Christmas, we are, etc.—

Annabelle

Visits the Laundry

Dear Maw:

Last night I was most royally fed Down at the Sigma Chi's mud shed, 'Cause Benny Plummer lately said I must come down and eat. Young Benny called around for me About a quarter after three, Then until six, both he and me, Walked around the avenues.

Well, just at six we came back to The stucco house; the whole Sig crew Had just got in—were hungry, too. You'd ought to heard them yell for supper.

A howling, yelling, hungry mob, They'd make a crier leave his job, You'd ought to hear some of them sob When supper wasn't ready.

They've got a nice big chapter hall With lots of photos on the wall, I think the pictures were of all The 'lumni since '07. And then they had a Chinese god Ted Plummer swiped from Chinese sod, And really, Maw, it looks as odd As this guy, Marvin Riley.

Well, after they had filled me full Of propaganda,—"shot the bull"— Buster Tarbox starts to pull Me into where the cats were served. They sat me down next to this guy They call Judge Stark, and honest, I Didn't know a Sigma Chi Could be as nice as he was.

Judge Stark politely puts a bun Upon my plate when I had none, And said he was from Livingston When I asked him where he got his manners. But Judge was better than the rest, He didn't spill soup on his chest, Or badly spot his brand new vest Like little Eugene Myers did.

And after they had served us pie, Ralph Christie throws his head up high And sings "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," The brothers joining in. And Ron McDonnell threw his head Up in the air when he had fed,

And starts in talking; Walker said McDonnell was permanent toastmaster.

But Maw, at that, the grub was swell, Your loving daughter, ANNABELLE.

DIRTY SOCKS can't be clean.

It Pays to Pay Cash

The saving of the difference between "cash prices" and "charge" or "credit prices" is enough to turn the tide of affairs in many families that today are bordering on despair.

Every business man knows the advantages that are to be had in cash transactions.

The J. C. Penney Company sells for cash and thus always has the money to pay cash for its purchases. Large savings are thus obtained.

Buying for less, we sell for less, and, as is seen, your cash purchases here save you many dollars in the course of a year.

ROTC ENROLLMENT SHOWS GREAT GAIN

Cadet Units of Country Show Increase of Ten Thousand in Past Year

"The initial enrollment in the 97 infantry units, senior division, ROTC, for the academic year 1922-23 was 42,286. This is an increase of 10,117 over the academic year 1921-22 and it is expected that there will be a further increase during the fiscal year." This from a bulletin sent out by Ninth corps area headquarters to all professors of military science and tactics in the corps area.

"Most of the schools and colleges in the Ninth corps area are infantry units because the enrollment is not large enough to train men for the other branches of the service," said Major G. L. Smith. "Montana is an infantry unit with 219 freshmen enrolled in the basic course and 88 sophomores. There are 13 juniors and 10 seniors taking the advanced course giving Montana a total of 330 men taking infantry training. This is the largest enrollment the local unit has ever had," continued Major Smith.

"An increasing number of graduates of infantry ROTC units are entering the officers' reserve corps as second lieutenants of infantry. In the year 1922, 1,231 graduates were approved for appointment as second lieutenants, O. R. C., or given certificates of eligibility to be exchanged for commissions when they become of age. Definite information as to the exact number that will be commissioned during 1923 has not yet been received but preliminary reports indicate a gain of approximately 300 over the previous year," continued the bulletin.

"Of the 18 colleges having ROTC units, the University of California has the largest enrollment with 1,984 taking military. The University of Washington is second and the University of Oregon is third. Montana is tenth in total enrollment," Major Smith said in explaining the bulletin.

He continued, "As a whole the enrollment in the ROTC this year is very encouraging. The first year advanced course shows a substantial increase. We professors of military science and tactics are urged to make every effort to increase our enrollment, with suitable young men in the advanced course."

WHITMAN STUDENTS SEND PETITION TO WASHINGTON

Would Have Government Take Stand on European Affairs

Whitman College, Dec. 13.—(P.I.N.S.)—Sending a petition to the United States senators from Washington the students in economics, at the instigation of Professor W. E. Leonard, expressed their desire to see a definite stand taken by the government in regard to European affairs.

"Dirty Socks" Will Be Made Supplement To Hi-Jinx Showing

The Barefoot Boys and the Knights of the Garter, two of the lesser-known prominent organizations on the campus, will supplement the Hi-Jinx entertainment in Dirty Socks Saturday evening, it became known yesterday. Leaders of the organizations, however, refused yesterday to divulge their plans, but declared Dirty Socks would be something such as never before set foot in the Wilma theater.

"As Knights of the Garter," a prominent student who has circled the oval several times, says "We are fitting supporters of this laudable enterprise. We wish to emphasize in the strongest manner that Dirty Socks will not be a take-off."

The Barefoot Boys promise rare fun and many merry quips to those who attend the show. "I wish to say," one said yesterday, "that Dirty Socks can stand without any outside support. The organization back of it—and it is quite a ways back—is a select one, picked from men who declare they will never die with their boots on."

Hi-Jinx leaders announced yesterday that despite the Dirty Socks entertainment, there would be no change in prices.

Arrangements have been made to take the squad on sight-seeing tours during their stay in Honolulu. They will return by way of San Francisco.

NOTICE D. A. V.

There will be no meeting tonight because of Saturday examinations and other "all-university" functions.

DEAN STONE WILL SPEAK AT OPEN FORUM SATURDAY

Dean Stone of the school of journalism will speak on "The Freedom of the Press" at the open forum to be held Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock in the University Congregational church.

This is the fourth open forum to be held this year. There will be four more to be held later in the year. R. L. Mathewes, chairman of the open forum committee, states that while the meetings have been well attended, the committee is especially interested in having more University students present.

The speaker at the open forum talks about 45 minutes. At the close of his speech open discussion of the subject follows.

The open forum has no church affiliations.

UNIVERSITY STAMP QUOTA NOT FILLED

Sales of tuberculosis stamps are progressing rapidly, according to Miss Mary Laux, in charge of the sale. The faculty and members of the different halls and houses have been solicited. To fill its quota each fraternity house must buy three dollars' worth, the girls' halls ten dollars' and the men's hall fifteen dollars' worth. The amount for each hall was figured in relation to the number of residents.

The whole University quota was $100. To fill this $40 more of stamps must be turned in as sold before the end of the week as only $60 has been checked in so far. The money from these sales goes into a fund for caring for people afflicted with tuberculosis.

All girls who are selling these seals are asked to check in to Miss Laux before Friday night.

YWCA GIVES PARTY FOR NEEDY KIDDIES

Christmas gifts for the poor children of Missoula will be received by the YWCA at any time. A large red box was placed in front of the door in Main hall yesterday morning, and students are urged to donate one toy and one useful gift for children under 10 years of age.

The University branch of the YWCA will give a Christmas party for children tomorrow afternoon in the forestry library from three until five. Names of needy children have been secured from teachers of the primary grades in schools throughout the city, and these children will be taken to the party in cars. After games have been played and a lunch served the gifts will be distributed by Santa Claus.

"We need co-operation on the part of the student body," stated Maude Gwinn, social secretary of the YWCA. "Bring your contributions and help some child have a Merry Christmas."

NOTICE, LUTHERANS.

You are invited to take communion at the St. Paul's Lutheran church, corner of Brooks and Grand streets, near the high school, Sunday, December 16, at 11 o'clock.

DINING ROOMS TO CLOSE FOR YULETIDE VACATION

"The dining rooms at North hall, South hall and Craig hall will close Friday, Dec. 21," stated Miss Inez Bozarth, director of the residence halls yesterday.

"Girls remaining during the Christmas holidays may retain their rooms, however," Miss Grace Mountcastle, social director of North and Craig halls, will be in charge during the holidays.

Tuesday evening there will be a social get-together in North hall for the residents, which will close the hall's social activities until after the holidays. According to Miss Mountcastle, many new social events have been planned for next quarter. The affairs are conducted under the guidance of the "hostess committee," composed of 19 girls meeting every week to discuss social etiquette.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of all committee men for the Foresters' annual ball in the library of the forestry building Friday afternoon, Dec. 14, at 4 o'clock.

SAM F. HARRIS,
General Chairman.
