HELENA STUDENTS BECOME UM ADVOCATES

MISSOULA--

Two University of Montana students from Helena recently became campus ambassadors when they joined the ranks of the UM Advocates.

After a challenging selection process and a two-credit leadership training seminar, Advocates serve as professional representatives for the University. They guide campus tours, lead orientation projects and staff a wide variety of events throughout the year, including Homecoming, Parents Weekend, UM Days, the Big Sky Career Fair, the International Food Festival, the World's Largest Garage Sale, college fairs, alumni events and community service projects.

New UM Advocates from Helena are Cody Melton, a freshman majoring in business administration, and Mace Wescott, a senior majoring in geography.

UM Advocates began as a traveling speakers bureau with 20 members in 1969. In 2000, the 100-member volunteer organization donated more than 2,500 service hours to the UM campus and the Missoula community.
