GRIZZLY-VANDAL SNARL LAST CHANCE FOR MANY

Opportunity to See Basketball Contest and Get Formal Date.

Friday and Saturday nights will be the last times this season that the students of Montana will have the opportunity to see the Grizzly basketball team in action. They will tangle with the fast University of Idaho quintet, conquerors of the powerful University of Oregon hoopsters that are present leaders of both the Pacific Coast and Northwest conferences.

Coach Stewart will be compelled, because of the loss of Illman and Baney, to send in a team that has met only one opponent since the setback, defeating the School of Mines 46 to 12. The newly arranged team has been working hard in preparation for the series with the Vandals, having played a series of three games with the torrid Frosh team.

Officers in charge of the Co-ed Formal take this opportunity to ask all men that haven't dates to the affair of affairs and want to attend the function to appear in dress suits, ready to jump right into the fray at a minute's notice or when some girl asks them to come along. During the half the men in dress suits each will be given a number and will march around in front of the section held by the girls. As they march by the girls will call out the number of the fellow that she will take to the wrestle. For example, when girl in section calls out 21, man wearing number 21 will fall out and look over the one that shouted. There will be a fine imposed on the man that after once looking jumps back into line.

The girls are cautioned not to holler the numbers of the basketball players on the visiting team. It might cause a panic and the Idaho fellows might get a false impression of the girls enrolled in the University of Montana.

Should the Grizzlies break even in the series with the Vandals it would be a feather in their cap, as the Idaho team is rated as one of the strongest in the west. Coach Matthews has several stellar hoop men on his team this season. Fitzke is slated for a berth on the All-Northwest and possibly a position on the All-Coast team.

Coach Stewart will probably send in the following men against the Vandal aggregation: Badgley and G. Dahlberg, forwards; Carney, center; O. Dahlberg and Tanner, guards.

Coach Matthews will, from all indications, use the lineup that sent down the University of Oregon team to its first defeat of the year: Penwell and Stivers, forwards; Fitzke, center; Hillman and Telford, guards.

EVAN TO THROW CROAK FOR FROGS IN CIRCLE

The University French club, Cercle du Chevalier de la Verendrye, will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m. in the library of the Forestry building.

Evan Reynolds '26, who worked on the production of "Scaramouche" last summer, will describe the way the picture was produced. There will also be a musical program. All interested are invited.

GET IN LINE

All members of the senior class who are going to order senior cards, graduation announcements, caps and gowns, are urged to see Ralph Neil, Richard Crandall, Otis Benson, Ruth Doherty, Florence Sanden, or Persis Matthews as soon as possible. The order will be placed at an early date for the announcements and cards and it is desired to know how many will order gowns.

RALPH NEIL,
Senior Class President.

HEED YE, FROSH!

No more can you travel unguarded to the polished floor frolic in that $19.79 Tuxedo. He who does will suffer the agonies of the ridiculed. Barrels will be placed at the doors of all University hog wrestles for the youngsters appearing in claw hammers, and soups and fish and the waiter's outfit will be sold at public auction for the benefit of the Tanans.

You freshmen are also warned to take your seats when attending convocation in that section which may be as near heaven as you will ever get. It has been the tradition that the yearling class occupy the gallery.

Take heed!

HAM AND EGGERS FOOL VARSITY VODVIL JUDGES

The acts of Kappa Alpha Theta, Omega Xi, Alpha Chi Omega, Sigma Alpha, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu and Delta Gamma were selected for Varsity Vodvil at the tryouts held in the Wilma theater last Saturday morning. These acts, in the above order, will be presented at the Varsity Vodvil show Saturday night, March 1. Roger Williams, H. S. White, Dean Harriet Sedman and A. S. Langmans were judges.

"The acts presented this year, while not as numerous, were of a higher caliber than last year," said Manager Jim Hughes. "We are planning a big bally-hoo parade for Saturday afternoon. This will include one or two of the acts. The show this year, from all indications, is to be bigger and better than that of last year."

Singing, orchestra numbers, dancing, burlesques, melodramas and fashions will be some of the features of the program. There will be two performances this year, one at 7:15 and one at 9:15 p. m. The prices will be 55 cents, 75 cents and $1.10.

WEATHER

The Sentinel's weather forecast for tomorrow:

Sudden rise in temperature in, about and around the administrative offices. Dopists would attribute this to the publication of this paper.

The region of North hall will be fair and cooler. Owing to the merry-go-round tendencies of the elements governing the climate about the nurse's office any forecast would be impossible.

However, this bureau only attempts to record possible changes in the weather, not predict earthquakes.

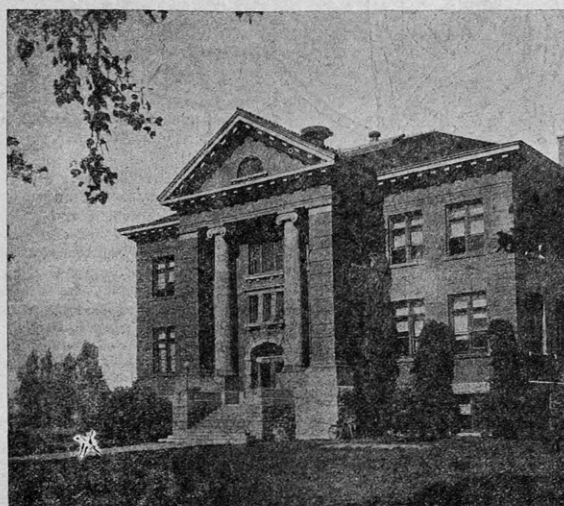

If anybody, somewhere else, reads this line, will he or she kindly wire ticket and expense money to this bureau. A change of climate is predicted for the pledges of Sigma Delta Chi.

Wonder if they have weather bureaus in China where Dicky Underwood is holding out?

HE BEAT WIFE FOR YEARS NOW HE'S BEATING A HARP

For years, Miss Takes on the campus, happened. People were bent over and run-down. There were constant aches and pains in the back. There was a constant nagging and fretfulness. One of the victims, Miss Grabbah Pinh, of 342 Bendover Place, Woosgar, Ill., has sent us the following testimonial unsolicited.

Gentlemen: For years I suffered. When I came down to track meet, I could hardly walk and there was no one to meet me. Oftentimes I was forced to remain at home over the week-end as there was no one to get a date for me or could. The only time a man noticed me was when I cut the campus. Then the wicked Bear Paws would rush out and try to club me to death. I was caused untold miseries.

But since taking on "Tanau" I have felt much better. The exercise of paddling-swinging has worked wonders.

Yours for the she-bears,

GRABBAH.

GLEE CLUB GETS TONSILS SUNBURNED

Smith's Pills Prevent Dainty
Organs from Peeling—
DeLoss Saves Day

After having made a successful tour over the state the Glee Club entertained a packed house at the Wilma theater last Saturday night.

The club is well trained and sang well together. Chester Watson was the only soloist. Miss Bernice Berry, piano accompanist for the club, was heartily applauded for her two numbers from LaForge and MacDowell.

The club this year carried several features. The best of these was Frank Alden in his burlesque of Annabelle. He kept the house laughing the entire time he was on the stage and was ably assisted by Vernon Jackish.

The saxophone quartet made a hit with its harmony and its new pieces, and its imitation of the Aggie band. DeLoss Smith was unable to appear.

William Edgington gave a soft shoe dance.

The program ended with the club singing "College Chums."

Those interested in the boxing and wrestling tournament will please turn in their names to Midge Griffiths not later than Monday, March 8.

NEWSPAPERS BUNK ITALY WON WAR

"Do not believe all that you read in the news reports of the newspapers nor all that is written in the text books concerning the Balkan troubles, for in many instances these stories are false and misleading," said Dr. Charles Upson Clark to the students of the University at a special convocation which was held in the auditorium yesterday morning.

"Conditions in Europe are much better than they were a year ago. In the Balkan territory, where wars are apt to start over-night because of the great mixture in race, religion and interests, there has been a decided improvement during the year. They have not been laboring under a general war and the outlook is brighter than it has been for many years."

"The simplest way to keep in touch with actual conditions in the Balkans is to watch the rate of money exchange and compare it with the exchange of a year ago," continued Mr. Clark.

"Germany also has taken great strides in the general direction of a stable currency. They now have three classes of money that are worth their face values, but a shortage of small currency puts the merchants and bankers in embarrassing positions at times."

The latter half of the hour was devoted by Dr. Clark to the work of Mussolini in Italy. He reviewed the Italian situation from the days before the World war to the present time and gave the Italian premier a great deal of credit for the mastery with which he has handled the government during his dictatorship.

He said: "The belief that Mussolini came from the ranks of the common laboring class is without foundation. The Italian prime minister labored only so that he might receive a normal education. He has reduced the number of strike days in the domain enormously and has fired thousands of government employees from office. He has ruled with an iron hand during his dictatorship. Now in a few months he is to call a public election to see if the Italian people are supporting him."

"The Italians claim that they won the war. Some say that they should have taken the German side in the early stages of the war and thus they would have saved much life and property for humanity. They were on the fence and

ANOTHER PUZZLE!

Is Montana a member of the Pacific Coast conference? Yes and no. From all indications it appears that we are not. Coach Stewart says that we are a member, and a very active member, but Mr. Laport of the University of Southern California says not. Now the Oregon Aggies got their fur up because they feared they would be far behind at the end of the season. The Huskies have been taking 'em all in. No wonder Oregon got mad.

Here's the low-down: The University of Montana is barred, figuratively speaking, as a contender this season in the Pacific Coast conference championship. In fewer words, we lost none and won none, but still we have played three games and have one more to play. All this is a result of a ruling by Mr. Laport, which resulted from a protest filed by the Oregon school and based on the claim that Montana was late in entering the conference and because of the comparatively small number of games played by Montana. (Now ain't that too bad, Agnes?)

Here's the catch. This ruckus brings about a tie in the present status of the race for first place in the northern division of the conference. The University of Oregon, Oregon Aggies and the University of Washington are in a deadlock for first honors.

GID AND GROVER TO JAW AT UTAH

George Boldt of Helena and Grover Johnson of Missoula will represent the university against Utah university in debate Wednesday night in the auditorium of Main hall. The proposition that the Montana men will affirm is: "Resolved, that the United States should enter the World Court under the provisions of the Harding plan."

Professor Colvin of the law school will act as chairman. Reverend John Hahn and Professor G. H. Ketcham have been chosen as two of the judges. The third judge will be announced later. The speakers will be given 15 minutes in which to deliver their arguments and seven minutes will be allotted for rebuttal.

This contest is the second leg of the triangular debate in which Montana won a unanimous decision at Moscow over the University of Idaho last Thursday.

do not know if they would join with or against France. Their claim is that had they allied themselves with Germany they could have put in a decisive blow even before England took the part of the French and by so doing they would probably have ended the affair before the world was engaged. Italy had as great a property damage as did France and lost more men. They do not feel that they were given a fair shake at the Versailles meet. But they claim that they were responsible for the winning of the war and to back up their statement they have the words of Ludendorff, who gives the credit of the German defeat to the Italians on the southern front."

Dr. Clark gave a brief summary of the trials that are facing the peoples of Turkey, Greece, Rumania, Bulgaria, and Jugoslavia. He bases his statements from observation in the countries named during the years that have followed the war. Last year Mr. Clark spoke before the students on the same subject.

Dr. Clark was the principal speaker at a luncheon given by the Missoula University club at the Shepard hotel yesterday noon. Last night he addressed the public at the University auditorium.

Battles for Hour With Enraged
Amazons—Breath Comes in Short Pants.

Bleeding at the mouth, eyes dilated, panting like a porpoise, his Pinchley suit ripped to shreds and his lace samples scattered over an area of forty square rods, Abimelech Bogardus of Paris, Ill., was found yesterday in a dying condition in one of Tom Swearingen's moats, where he had crawled for safety.

Last night Bill Bones, night watchman of the campus, was startled by shrieks and cries and other low moaning noises issuing from a redoubt near the Law school and upon investigation discovered the torn and mutilated form of a victim of foul play. Pursing his lips he blew a loud penetrating blast that rent the air for miles around. Aid came quickly in the form of Janitor Sparks, Dean Kessler and Forest C. Flora, a pharmacy student, who had been working late over his treatise on "The Macaroni Plant, Its Uses and Applications." With the aid of these stalwart fellows, Watchman Bones removed the inert body of the victim of foul play to the heating plant where he was quickly warmed and revived. Upon coming to he told the following story:

"I had just made several calls in the university district, taking orders for my 'Siberian Wear-Ever Lace,' when I discovered that I was out of order-blanks. I repaired over to the campus store and after purchasing some, started to stroll negligently over the acreage.

"Suddenly from the bushes, trees and parapets, there swarmed a bevy of females that surrounded me, shouting, 'Lemme at 'im,' 'Give him to me,' 'He's mine!'"

"They fell upon me, each one claiming that I belonged to her. At first I was perplexed, then I was vexed and then I was wrecked. I was pushed, kicked, scratched, ripped, torn, beaten and pounded before I found out what it was about. Then as I was about to pass out they fell away, saying, 'I don't want him—he's got blonde hair.' Several remarked that my feet were big and then the whole group left me, saying, 'We can't take him to the Co-ed Formal anyhow—he's too run down looking now.'"

"Staggering to my feet, I started across the campus beautiful in quest of aid. Suddenly I felt myself falling and was precipitated into one of your hospitable ditches. Then all went black."

Such is the testimony of this innocent victim of the co-eds in their reckless attempts to get dates for the Co-ed Formal. The miscreants of this outrage have not been found, but local officials are working on the case and expect to unearth a clue within twenty-four hours.

Mr. Bogardus left for his home in Paris yesterday afternoon. He intends to return to his wife and three little children and stated that he would apply for a different territory.

A PUZZLE A DAY

If 14 men got yellow slips and three of them were bow-legged, who is going to take Dean Sedman to the coming rattle?

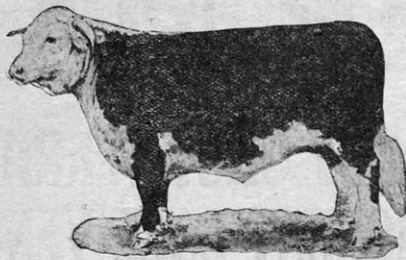

Yesterday's Answer

If 1,000 students deposit ten dollars with the University and the interest paid to the ASUM fund, at five per cent, the standing of the Montana teams would be increased $500.

UNIVERSITY MORALS AND GUM CHEWING

Has it ever occurred to you, dear reader, of the detrimental effects of the nauseating habit of gum chewing, so easily contracted when young yet so hard to rid one's self of when old and toothless? Think of the many divorces it has caused. Hubby is annoyed at night while he is reading his paper by the crackling and munching of a cud of BLACK JOHN. Professors put students down for a flunk when they find a wad of gum used for a book-mark.

DO YOU KNOW that one out of every ten pairs of fallen arches is caused from gum chewing?

DO YOU KNOW that three out of every four cases of appendicitis come from this slovenly practice?

DO YOU KNOW that only three out of every sixty co-eds know how to chew the rubbery weed like ladies?

DO YOU KNOW that the energy expended on one package of gum would run a Ford five miles, a horse and buggy eleven miles and a mother and a perambulator fourteen miles?

DO YOU KNOW that the annual energy expended in gum chewing would light the United States and Montana, dig another Panama Canal, build five more pyramids, and quiet one interfraternity council?

DO YOU KNOW that Caesar broke a date with Cleo for the Co-ed Formal because she chewed gum?

After perusing and laboring strenuously to compile the above statistics, conformed to Doc. Jesse's sliding scale of efficiency and confirmed by Dean Speer and Janitor Sparks, we drawn the following logical conclusions: Birds of a feather shouldn't throw stones.

SHE WAS KING TUT'S HEIR

Are you infatuated with any of the "Bloodthirsty Amazons"? Are you fond of having your new shoes trampled into an unrecognizable mass?

Do you enjoy being shoved around a splintered floor?

Are you fond of the nerve-racking squeaks made by a blattering jazz band?

Do you get a kick out of drinking watered cider?

Do you love to shove a boxcar around the hall?

Are you easily entertained by cute stories of how baby sister swallowed brother's dice?

Do you enjoy having the only Tux that you will ever have, almost torn from your body?

Do you like to pretend that you are having a good time when you are bored to tears?

Are you fond of explaining why you wanted to smoke at the end of the dance?

Do you like to have your pockets crammed full of cosmetics, until you look like a scarecrow in a mild hurricane?

Have you got your bid to the Co-ed Formal?

FRECKLES OR MEASLES?

This is a picture of popular young lady, co-ed and student of the University, who has been the subject of a great and interesting controversy. Nurse said she had the measles. The doctor said it was freckles. Nurse put her to bed. Doctor said no use, can't cure 'em. Stayed in bed a week. Still has 'em. Freckles we mean.

THEATERS

The statements and opinions in this column do not represent the opinions of this paper. They are not nearly strong enough.

THE WILMA

"When a Man's a Man" and a woman's a woman we're sure of a thrill.

Henry Turner, correspondent in the famous "Dear Doc" case, said of the picture late last night:

"It is a wonder. You must see it."

THE RIALTO

What do movie audiences want now? We give them that domain of "the devil," the print shop, starring Wesley Barry. In "The Printer's Devil," Wesley sure does his stuff. It is a classic of the screen and worthy of this coming star.

Guy Haselton, the man who refused a date to the Co-ed Formal, said of the picture late last night:

"It is a wonder. You must see it."

AT THE LIBERTY

"The Hunchback of Notre Dame" is making a line-plunge here.

Bill Symons, formerly bull-cook at the Tavern, said of the picture late last night:

"It is a wonder. You must see it."

RIGHTO!

"It's the little things of life that tell," said the fair young lady as she dragged her small brother from underneath the sofa.

Miss Ann Reeves of Helena, who withdrew from the University during this quarter, has accepted a position with one of the banking institutions of Helena. Miss Reeves was employed by the Veterans' bureau as stenographer while she was attending the University.

ANY NIGHT THROUGH A NORTH HALL WINDOW

This charming group sketched by the Sentinel class in news gathering. Anyone wishing to test the authenticity of the drawing need only to gaze gently but firmly in the direction of the fourth window from the end on the side of North Hall, exactly at seven minutes to eleven. This is a secret. The Sentinel reporter noticed the crowd standing over on the sidewalk, and walking over, discovered the absorbing scene.

beauty, beauty itself. Her pink limbs were drawn up as if in defense. Her eyes had the vacant, staring look of a hunted creature.

Letter from Beatrice Yellowslip to Loving Mother.

Dear Mother:

I do not know just what you want me to say to you; in fact, neither do I know just what I want to say.

Three months ago I would have been very sure of exactly the kind of a story to tell you, but now, mother dear, I am a little hazy about it. All of which makes me feel, after all, perhaps, that alibis are very silly things to give.

Your letter came to me at a time when I was very mixed up in my mind about the whole subject, of which there seems to be some doubt.

Oh you should have heard what she

HOPE TO SETTLE THE LEAKY NATIONS' ROW

Miles O'Connor, Livingston, and Einar Stromnes, Grass Range, left yesterday morning for a five-day discussion with the Aggie rag-chewing duet. Their growl is the World Court. Points that will suffer from the invasion are: Whitehall, Monday; Billings, Tuesday; Laurel, Wednesday; Big Timber, Thursday; Bozeman, Friday.

Professor Freeman, forensic coach, will join the boys at Billings and go through with them till the close of the Laurel struggle. The bodies that are to be the subjects of the orators will be called upon to give the decision excepting in the final argument when judges will be called in to settle the dispute. The university men do not want this country to enter Mr. Harding's court.

The way to get the finest shave

The Hinge-Cap is a sure way of identifying Williams Shaving Cream. And Williams, besides giving you the convenient Hinge-Cap, will improve your shave in three ways:

First, the lather is heavier and holds the moisture in against the beard. Quicker and more thorough softening of the beard results. Second, the razor glides more easily through the Williams-softened beard because Williams lather lubricates the skin. Lastly, an ingredient in Williams keeps the skin in good condition no matter how heavy your beard por how frequently you shave. In addition, you'll enjoy Williams because it is a pure, natural white cream without coloring matter of any kind. Ask for it.

In anticipation of the coming baseball season Ken Simmons and King Tut Burtness have consulted prominent "gland" specialists, in an attempt to regain their wandering vitality. This column suggests that they go to the local cemetery and seek a set or two of new arms and eyes.

That reminds us. Last year while the pill tossers were on their western tour, I think it was at Pullman, this one is told on Burtness. An ideal day. During warm up, as the sweat was rolling from the brows of the future will bees, Burtness found great difficulty in heaving the sphere from his corner to Nigger Dickson; the soup bone failed its master. At the start of the second, Tut knocked down a cripple and followed with a feeble attempt to push the pill to the first sack. After an intermittent flight, a bound, and a bounce the ball reached the first sack but the runner was there waiting. A crowd, floated slowly over the diamond, and banked idly in the direction of the third sack. A voice from the bleachers was heard to remark, "My God, bo, it's a buzzard and he's smelling that arm of yours."

HISTORIC PICTURES DISCOVERED

These rare old prints were loaned to the Sentinel for this edition by Doctor Elrod, who treasures them as the only existing examples of the University Colored as she was. Twenty years ago when the old slough near the VanBuren street bridge was the approved bathing resort of the city, these damsels were wont to disport themselves in this risqué manner—sometimes, even, when men crossed the bridge. The Sentinel wishes to call attention to the contrast with the miserable pittance of cloth now afforded our bathing girls. High cost of war or living or soap must have brought about the change.

Whether to wear a swallow-tail or tux is the problem which agitates the Stanford Glee club at present. Forty-two members have full dress outfits, 21 have tuxedos, and 14 have neither.

Columbia.

A big explosion occurred at Columbia university recently, where 50 students narrowly escaped death when a compressed air tank in the basement of Harvermeyer hall exploded, hurling machinery through the walls and breaking many windows of nearby buildings.

Seats Are Now Selling

For the greater Vodvil at the table in Main hall.

This is the triumph of student activities. It promises to be unusually good—if not better than ever.

So great is the interest in town over this show and so great are the mail orders that we urge the students to get their seats now.

NEW ADDITION TO FACULTY

Famous Aviator Coming to Solve Swearingen's Ditch Problem

Early this fall Tom Swearingen was confronted with a deplorable possibility. His engineering staff reported that by April, 1926, it will be impossible to dig any more ditches on the campus. Probing into the reason of such a calamity he found, in one of Kessler's reports, written for him by Janitor Sparks, that there would be no more room for ditches. Acting with the best speed of the business office he wrote to Doctor One More Trouble who will join the faculty next fall.

Those planning on registering next fall will be interested in the above excellent portrait. It is done in the most approved style of Sam's Cafe.

HIS CONFIDENCE IN OUR POLICY

A certain well-known business man said to us the other day, "I like your selling policy; I can buy from you knowing that you will not reduce your price the next day."

One doesn't like to spend a certain amount of money for some article and then pick up the evening paper and find that the same store has it "on sale for tomorrow only" at a lower price.

Surely, it is not fair play.

EXCLUSIVE PICTURE OF ELLEN GARVIN'S FAMILY

We understand that Ellen Garvin has told Virgil Wilson, her regularly announced intended, that he has nothing to fear from her family. In the ever uppermost ideal of truth to all and all the truth to some, the Kaimin Sentinel procured this remarkable group picture of Ellen's family. Twenty-seven of 'em, count 'em.

Of the twenty-seven, sixteen are brothers and sisters, three are cousins with their husbands, one an uncle plus wife and three are nieces.

Wilson is a lawyer and his future is bright. With this group of shining faces and a loving set of parents-in-law egging him on, he should make good at something immediately after graduating. Perhaps it will be the disappearing act.

When the present has faded into dim distended past. And the future has become the tomorrow here at last. Students of Montana, freshman hordes to come. Will bow their heads in the reverence simply done. To the memory of the Lawyers, good fellows but misguided. By this statue, somewhat higher than the grades they left behind.

That embarrassing moment when the sit-out-and-smoke boys discover the Chaperone dead-headed for the next hop-skip and jump.

No Room for Dean

Oh, please, may I go out with him?
The Co-ed asked the Dean.
She showed this picture tall and slim
And swore that he was keen.
Mrs. Sedman looked upon this Jim
And gently shook her head.
Yes, my darling daughter,
You may go out with him;
Now WSGA says you hadn't oughter
Stay out till dark, 'tis sin,
This ride will be a treat,
I'll get my hat and go along,
A ride like this will be a treat,
With two of us it can't be wrong.
The co-ed looked askance, aside,
And neatly did her stuff,
Perhaps we'd better walk than ride,
For three, a motorcycle's tough.

HE CALLED HER COTTAGE CHEESE BECAUSE HE CURDLED HER BLOOD

This picture is taken directly from a humorous scene in Mr. Williams' new Funny-Face production, "Rheumatism." The heroine is murmuring, "Sister Ann Sister Ann."

MOTHER LOVE WINS

This stirring picture was snapped by the Underbrush and Underbrush newsless agency. The wee tot is none other than the son of one of our alumni, i. e., the one in the baby carriage. Scotty Andrus is denouncing the father for bringing the child up in the environment of Bozeman. Note resemblance between father and son. No, Scotty is on the left.

WSGA FUN MAKERS SNAPPED AT MEETING

This dainty group of girls is none other than the famous executive board of the
