EMMYLOU HARRIS COMES TO MISSOULA

MISSOULA--

The genre-stretching sounds of Grammy Award-winning singer and songwriter Emmylou Harris will fill the University Theatre when she performs in Missoula this month.

Harris and her band, Spyboy, take the stage at 8 p.m. Monday, June 25, on The University of Montana campus. Tickets are $27 in advance or $29 on the day of the show. They are available at all Tic-It-E-Z outlets or by calling (888) MONTANA.

With 31 albums -- nine of them gold -- and 10 Grammys behind her, Harris will have plenty of hits to choose from for her only Montana tour date. Her latest album, 2000's "Red Dirt Girl," was called a "masterpiece" by Salon and "jaw-droppingly fabulous" by the Washington Post.

From country to rock, from folk to pop, Harris has defied conventions in her 25-year solo career.

"Through it all, Harris has given us such soulful and affecting work that it has been hard to tell whether her creative strength rested more in her evocative vocals or her uncompromising taste for songs," wrote a Los Angeles Times reviewer.
