MISSOULA, MONTANA--Montana University Cub gridgers will seek to even their season's slate Friday when they take on a tough Brigham Young University freshman eleven in Provo, Utah. Freshman coach Hal Sherbeck will carry a traveling team of 29 to the contest.

The Grizzly Cubs wound up on the short end of a 12-6 game against Montana State freshmen in their only previous outing Oct. 21. Sherbeck said he was pleased with Cub defensive play in the encounter, but felt that the Little Bears need more offensive practice.

"The ends and defensive backfield need a lot of practice, but our interior line held up very well," the coach commented. "The running backs also did a good job in the second half against the MSC frosh, when they outrushed the 'Kittens!'."

Individual standouts included center Tom Hauck, guards Ed Poland, Wayne Dennis and Ken Nielsen; tackles Bruce Wallworic and Larry Gilpin, and tailback Bill Martin.

Tentative Cub starters against the BYU frosh include John Hughes and Don Gilboe, ends; Wallworic and Gilpin, tackles; Poland and Dennis, guards; Hauck, center; Al Van Tress, quarterback; Martin and Bob Herrold, halfbacks; and either Bob Hunton or Pete Gotay, fullback.

Last season the Cubs dropped a 19-6 decision to the young Cougars in Provo. So far this season, the BYU frosh have knocked off a strong Utah State yearling crew by a 20-6 margin.
