DRAMA/DANCE DEPARTMENT PRESENTS 'VOICES IN THE AFTERMATH'

MISSOULA--

Words on the opinion pages of newspapers will come to life in a University of Montana Department of Drama/Dance presentation this Wednesday.

"What Now? Voices in the Aftermath of September 11" will dramatize a cross-section of views about the terrorist attacks on the East Coast. The event will feature students, staff and faculty speaking opinions from a variety of media sources with intention and point of view. This "living newspaper" format was popular during the Great Depression.

The event takes place from 12:15 to about 12:45 p.m. Oct. 10 in the Montana Theatre. It is free and open to the public.

The Montana Theatre is located in the Performing Arts and Radio/Television Center.
