ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PLANS POST-GAME PARTY AT DOWNTOWN PAVILION

MISSOULA--

University of Montana young alumni, students and friends can dance to the '70s and '80s tunes of Seattle dance band Cool Ade at a party after The University of Montana Homecoming football game on Saturday, Oct. 13.

The party begins at Caras Park Pavilion directly after the Grizzlies vs. St. Mary's game and concludes at 8 p.m. Admission costs $5, which includes a free chili feed for the first 200 people. Other beverages will be available for purchase, including wine and beer. Those wishing to purchase alcoholic beverages must have legal-age identification. In case of extremely bad weather, the party will be held downstairs at the Wilma Theatre.

"This is a chance to connect with old classmates and friends that hasn't been available for young alumni before," said Julie Schwartz; UM Alumni Association associate director. "No matter when you graduated, this event is the place to meet up after the game."

The party is co-sponsored by the Alumni Association and the Missoula Downtown Association.
