The meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m. in the New Activities Room of the University Center by the President, Ed Leary. The minutes were approved as read.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Leary welcomed the C. B. back from vacation, and expressed his hopes for many accomplishments this last quarter. He explained the activities in Helena concerning the three bills we have introduced. They are to be discussed along with other similar bills on the subject of lowering the voting, drinking, and majority age at a joint Senate-House committee meeting. Lowe suggested that we write letters against the proposed bill not to allow radical speakers on campus. Leary said the M.S.P.A. had agreed to work against this sort of thing. McKenzie and Melosi suggested possible contacts for action on this.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Brown said that he had talked with Ken Tolliver on the pamphlet for student's rights. Due to slight misunderstandings, the Hill foundation said that the case for the pamphlet will be presented before their board, but it is doubtful if anything will be done. Tolliver is trying to work up a pamphlet that would be ready in about a month. Leary introduced Kay Kaski as the Kaimin reporter this quarter.

Agather said the sport involved with attaining scholarships would have to have an N.C.A.A. affiliation.

CENTRAL BOARD

M.S.P.A.

Briggs gave a run-down on the present introduction of the bills into the Senate. The bill for lowering the voting age is Senate Bill 58, and the one for lowering the drinking age is Senate Bill 59. The hearings on these bills will be Saturday. If the bills to lower the voting and drinking age to 19 are defeated, it will be difficult to pass any bills of this nature, because they are essentially all the same.

OLD BUSINESS

Lowe raised the question of a new Montana Affairs Commissioner in the absence of Ben Briscoe, present commissioner. Leary said that an election was in order according to the constitution.

NEW BUSINESS

For Founder's Day, there was an idea to have a group discussion on activist groups and other groups on campus. McKenzie said the committee on the Student Code of Conduct was branching out to take on a type of judiciary cases for review. He also said that in the 1964 C.B. there was a motion passed that the bowling rates should be set at $.25. Hughes raised the question of the Winter Carnival Elections being fair and justly held. It was decided that it was an A.W.S. function, and therefore had no need for discussion. LEARY ADJOURNED THE MEETING.
