LEADERSHIP CAMP

Briscoe said that the newly elected members to Central Board would be given the chance to go to leadership camp first. There are forty applications, and there is room for seventy-five people to go. The deadline for applications is Friday. The total limit is 175 people altogether at the camp. There will be about twenty or twenty-five speakers.
Vice-President Brown spoke, saying that the legal pamphlet can be very benefi­cial to the Central Board. If it is combined with a student legal ad­visor which would answer all of the questions that students have. Brown said that he hopes that when the pamphlet does come out, that the Central Board would look at it closely. Concerning the vote on the athletics fee, Brown said he hopes the C.B. sees fit to budget two years ahead for the department. He said he hopes the C.B. will use the power that they now have to give more money to the minor sports. Leary said he thinks the Central Board accomplished a lot this year, such as the voting bill & bringing Interscholastics back. He expressed his gratitude to the Central Board and thanked them for their efforts. Hughes moved that the meeting be adjourned. The meeting was adjourned.
